

ALPHABETICAL INDEX
TO BOTH VOLUMES.

---

NOTE.—The figures, in this Index, indicate the sections; the letters (i. and ii.) the volume.

---

- ABANDONING. (See CHILDREN.)
- ABDUCTION,
what — indictable, i. 555.
- ABORTION, attempt at, whether woman need be pregnant, i. 741 and note.
murder in attempting, i. 328 ; ii. 691.
attempt by “ medicine or other thing,” i. 769.
- ABUSE,
of family, when not indictable, i. 538.
- ABUSING CHILDREN. (See CARNAL ABUSE—RAPE.)
- ACCESSORY, (See ACCESSORY AFTER — ACCESSORY BEFORE — COMPOUNDING CRIME — PRINCIPAL AND ACCESSORY.)
- Meaning of the term, and the law relating to, i. 662-671.*
properly applies only in felony, i. 662.
the general idea of an accessory, i. 663.
reason of distinction between accessory and principal, i. 649.
how accessory follows principal — no higher offence, i. 666-668.
whether can be arraigned or convicted before his principal, i. 667.
where several principals, i. 667.
how, where principal cannot be convicted, i. 668.
statute of Anne, i. 668.
erroneous attainder of principal — pardon, i. 668.
whether accessory may deny his principal's guilt, i. 669.
statutes removing obstructions to prosecution, i. 670.
their interpretation, i. 670.
parties like accessories in felony, i. 674.
- Other questions ; namely,*
how distinguished from principal, i. 649-654.
one is, who entices another to a place to be murdered, i. 635.
offence of, is felony, i. 700 a.
to one person, conviction for, when proof of more persons, i. 792.

ACCESSORY, — continued.

- cannot be convicted of, on charge as principal, i. 803.
- nor on proof of being principal, i. 803.
- charged as, not convicted as principal, i. 803.
- when crime is out of the State, i. 111 et seq.

ACCESSORY AFTER, (See PROCURER — SUBSTANTIVE CRIME.)

In felony, i. 692-700.

- who such accessory, i. 604, 692.
- on what principle held, i. 692.
- must know of principal's guilt, i. 693.
- must be more than a misprision, or compounding, i. 694.
- or receiving back the stolen goods, i. 694.
- criterion to distinguish accessory after, i. 695.
- whether, aiding in prison-breach, escape, &c., i. 695-697.
- when election to hold as accessory or principal felon, i. 696, 697.
- aiding the accessory before the fact, i. 698.
- may be accessories after, in manslaughter, i. 698.
- receiving stolen goods knowing, &c., i. 699, 706.

Persons sustaining the same relation in treason, i. 701-704

- said to be none — a mistake, i. 701.
- English statutory and common law, i. 702.
- how under the government of the United States, i. 703.
- of the States, i. 704.

Persons sustaining the same relation in misdemeanor, i. 705-708.

- some acts of this sort not indictable, i. 706.
- others believed to be indictable — why, i. 707.

Other questions; namely,

- wife cannot be, to the husband, i. 365.
- whether by obstructing arrest, i. 465.

ACCESSORY BEFORE, (See PROCURER.)

In felony, i. 673-680.

- meaning of the term, i. 673.
- law of, not well founded — distinction not favored, i. 673.
- principal and accessory both felons, and punished alike, i. 673, 674.
- accessory, when more blamable than principal, i. 673.
- accessory, how distinguished from principal, i. 604, 675, 676.
- from attempt, i. 675.
- in forgery, murder, burglary, larceny, &c., i. 676.
- accessory before to accessory before, i. 677.
- none in manslaughter, i. 678.
- none in petit larceny, i. 680.

Persons sustaining the like relation in treason, i. 681-684.

- petit treason, high treason — whether accessories in, i. 681.
- procurer of treason, principal, i. 682.
- the matter discussed, i. 682-684.

Persons sustaining the like relation in misdemeanor, i. 685-689.

- no accessories before, in misdemeanor — procurer principal, i. 685.
- procuring some small crimes not indictable, i. 688.

ACCESSORY BEFORE, — continued.

doer alone guilty of some crimes from their peculiar nature, i. 689.

Other questions; namely,

to a felony committed out of the State, i. 111 et seq.

ACCIDENT, (See CARELESSNESS — MISADVENTURE — NEGLIGENCE.)

avoids forfeiture, when, i. 824.

"ACCOUNTS." (See BOOK OF ACCOUNTS.)

ACQUITTAL, (See NEW TRIAL.)

on erroneous indictment, no bar to a second prosecution, i. 1021.

"ACQUITTANCE," (See FORGERY.)

meaning of the word, ii. 565.

ACT, (See CONSEQUENCES — HOMICIDE — INTENT — OVERT ACT — SPECIFIC OFFENCES.)

essential to constitute a crime, discussed, i. 204, 208, 228, 430-597.

Some questions; namely, to constitute crime, act must concur with the intent, i. 204-208, 287.

whether act and intent must concur in point of time, i. 207, 642, 692.

act may be less as intent is greater, i. 226, 227, 760, 768.

when it produces an unintended result, i. 323-336, 397.

when being evil, it results in unintended good, i. 325.

in common law, act measured by result, i. 327.

specific intent, as affecting the degree of criminality, i. 327 and note.

penalty of, qualified by element of chance, i. 331.

whether one act may produce many offences, i. 778, 782, 793.

ACTS OF PARLIAMENT. (See STATUTES.)

ADJUDGED CASES,

how considered, i. 377, 378, 384, note, par. 4.

ADMINISTERING POISON, (See POISON.)

attempts by, i. 741, note, 756.

ADULTERER,

larceny of husband's goods by, ii. 872-874.

ADULTERY,

punishable under the English ecclesiastical law, i. 33.

how under the common law, i. 33, 39, 501.

husband killing wife taken in, ii. 708.

indictment for, conviction of fornication, i. 795.

solicitation to commit, when indictable, i. 767, 768.

conspiracy to commit, i. 768; ii. 184.

ADVOCATE, (See LAWYERS.)

duty of, as to defending criminals, i. 376, note, par. 12.

AFFIDAVIT, (See PERJURY.)

false, indictable, i. 468.

persons infamous may make, in their own cases, i. 973.

AFFIRMATION, (See FALSE AFFIRMATION.)

what, and forms of, ii. 1018.

AFFIRMATIVE STATUTES, (See STATUTES.)

what they are, i. 270.

- AFFRAY, (See DUELLING — FIGHTING — PRIZE FIGHT.)
 what — indictable, i. 535.
 the right to suppress, ii. 653-655.
General discussion of the offence, ii. 1-7. definition of the offence, ii. 1.
 two persons necessary, ii. 1.
 place of its commission, ii. 2.
 what of the fighting, ii. 3.
 what of the terror, ii. 4.
 how aggravated by circumstances, ii. 5.
 aggravation amounting to higher crime, ii. 6.
 degree of the offence of, ii. 6.
 analogous offences, ii. 7.
- "AFORETHOUGHT," meaning of, in law of murder, ii. 677.
- AGENT, (See EMBEZZLEMENT — FALSE PRETENCES — INNOCENT AGENT — PRINCIPAL AND AGENT — SERVANT.)
 in criminal law, who, ii. 331-333.
 command of principal not justify crime of, i. 355.
 selling intoxicating liquors, i. 658.
 act done by, same as done directly, i. 564, 631, 673.
 one may become accessory by, i. 677. effect of consent to the taking given by, in larceny, ii. 822.
- AID AND ABET. (See ACCESSORY — COMBINATION — CONSPIRACY.)
- ALE-HOUSE, (See INTOXICATING LIQUOR.) when indictable, i. 504, 505, 1113 et seq.
- ALLEGATION. (See INDICTMENT.)
- ALLEGLANCE. (See EXPATRIATION.)
- "ALTER," bank-bills, what it is, ii. 573. (And see FORGERY.)
- AMBASSADOR. (See EMBASSADOR.)
- AMENDS, (See COMPOUNDING CRIME.) private right to take, i. 713, 714.
- "AND,"
 effect of the word, in a statute, i. 941.
- ANIMALS. (See DANGEROUS ANIMALS — DOMESTIC ANIMALS — LOWER ANIMALS — WILD ANIMALS.)
- ANIMALS TO KEEP AND FEED, larceny by the receiver of, ii. 869.
- APES,
 not subjects of larceny, ii. 773.
- APOSTASY,
 whether, indictable, i. 497.
- APPEAL, (See JEOPARDY.)
 whether, grantable to the prosecutor, i. 1024-1027.
 whether, to defendant when judge wrongfully discharges jury, i. 1041.
 the old prosecution by, considered, ii. 1001, note, par. 4.

- APPRENTICE, (See MASTER — MASTER AND SERVANT — SERVANT.)
 when neglect to give food to, indictable, i. 364, 537.
 enticing away, not indictable, i. 582.
 immoderate beating of, indictable, i. 887.
 whether, is a servant in embezzlement, ii. 349.
- APPRENTICESHIP,
 English laws of, not in force here, i. 508.
- ARMS, (See LOADED ARMS.) carrying, when indictable, i. 540.
- ARMS OF THE SEA, (See BAYS — TERRITORIAL LIMITS.) are within counties, i. 146.
- ARREST, (See OFFICER.) refusal to assist in making, indictable, i. 409.
 obstructing, indictable, i. 405.
 whether, makes party accessory, i. 465.
 of ambassador, &c., punishable, i. 127.
 wrongful, in foreign country, effect of, i. 135.
 illegal, life taken in resisting, i. 868.
 how constituted, ii. 26.
 assault in resisting, ii. 39.
 of persons obstructing process, &c., ii. 248.
 in presence of the court, is contempt, ii. 252.
 homicide committed in making, ii. 647-651.
 homicide in resisting, i. 441; ii. 699, 705.
- ARREST OF JUDGMENT, (See JEOPARDY.) effect of, on new proceedings, i. 998-1000.
- ARSENALS. (See DOCK-YARD.)
- ARSON, (See ARSON AND OTHER BURNINGS — BURN.)
 what — indictable, i. 224, 559.
 not of one's own property, i. 514; ii. 12.
 offence not against property, but security, i. 577.
 committed by setting fire to outhouse, and it communicates, i. 318.
 resulting in homicide, i. 781.
 burning done in attempt to do something else, i. 329; ii. 14, 15.
 attempt to burn by burning own house, i. 765; ii. 16.
 no degrees in, i. 334.
 unintended, intent must be felonious, i. 334.
- ARSON AND OTHER BURNINGS, (See ARSON — BURNING.)
General discussion of these offences, ii. 8-21.
 as to arson, ii. 10, 12-16.
 burning to defraud insurance office, ii. 12.
 the means and intent, ii. 14. statutory burnings, ii. 17, and note.
 Concluding questions; namely, degree of the crime, &c., ii. 18; attempts and solicitations, ii. 20, 21; burning own house, ii. 21.
- ASPORTATION. (See COMPOUND LARCENY — LARCENY.)
- ASSASSINATION, publicly advocating, whether a crime, i. 768.

- ASSAULT, (See ASSAULT AND BATTERY.)
- what — indictable, i. 548.
  - with intent to murder, to rob, &c., i. 553.
  - when inflicted at request of person injured, i. 260.
  - aggravated, if committed on official persons, i. 470.
  - with intent to murder, how drunkenness excuses, i. 413, and note.
  - killing intended, i. 736.
  - corporation cannot commit, i. 422.
  - with intent to commit rape, not by boy under fourteen, i. 746.
  - conviction for, on indictment for riot and assault, i. 795.
  - indictment, assault with intent, conviction for simple assault, i. 795.
  - or for compound assault in less degree, i. 795.
  - whether same act is, and also a rape or murder, i. 788.
  - homicide in repelling, i. 843; ii. 698-718.
  - justifiable, in defence of property, i. 861.
  - in defence of the person, i. 867.
- General discussion of the offence of,* ii. 22-62.
- definitions, ii. 23 and note.
  - The force as being physical, ii. 25-29.
  - words not alone sufficient, ii. 25.
  - physical touch not necessary, ii. 26.
  - standing still, insufficient, ii. 27.
  - any physical force enough, ii. 28.
  - refusal to provide food and clothing, ii. 29.
  - exposure to the weather, ii. 29.
  - The force as being put in motion, ii. 30, 31.
  - The peril or fear, ii. 32-34.
  - need only be apprehended, ii. 32.
  - but real injury sufficient without fear, ii. 33.
  - must be either actual fear or actual injury, ii. 33.
  - words may explain, ii. 31.
  - The effect of consenting to the force, ii. 35, 36.
  - The force as being unlawful, ii. 37-41.
  - no assault to do what is lawful, ii. 37.
  - it is an assault to proceed too far with lawful force, ii. 38.
  - resisting lawful arrest, &c., ii. 39.
  - words as justifying assault, ii. 41.
  - assault, as justifying assault, ii. 41.
- Aggravations of the offence, ii. 42-54.
- the general doctrine, ii. 43.
  - various old English statutes considered, ii. 44-49.
  - assaults in court, on officers, &c., ii. 48-50.
  - assaults on ambassadors, &c., ii. 51.
  - views concerning the form of the indictment for aggravated, ii. 52.
  - stabbing, striking, &c., under statutes, ii. 53.
  - meaning of the word assault in a statute, ii. 53, note.
  - in Missouri, how assault not indictable, ii. 54.
- Concluding questions, ii. 55-62.

- ASSAULT, — continued.
- misdemeanor — how punished, ii. 55.
  - exciting others to assaults, ii. 55.
  - what other offences include assaults, ii. 56.
  - assaults as constituting parts of other crimes, &c., ii. 57-59.
  - assaults as attempts, ii. 57-59.
  - civil liability — and compared with the criminal liability, ii. 60, 61.
  - the intent, ii. 62.
  - attempts to commit assault, ii. 62.
- ASSAULT AND BATTERY, (See ASSAULT — BATTERY.)
- how, when same blow wounds two men, i. 1061.
  - procurer of, to be held as doer, i. 686.
  - conviction for, on indictment for manslaughter or rape, i. 808.
  - may be committed by parent on child, i. 881, 882.
  - also by master on servant, i. 887.
  - and by husband on wife, i. 891.
- ASSEMBLAGES. (See DISTURBING MEETINGS.)
- ASSEMBLY, UNLAWFUL. (See UNLAWFUL ASSEMBLY.)
- ASSISTANCE,
- what, makes accessory after, i. 695, 696.
- ATTACHMENT, (See CONTEMPT OF COURT.)
- resisting, of one's goods on process against another, ii. 1012.
- ATTAINT — ATTAINTED — ATTAINDER, (See AUTREFOIS ATTAINT — ERRONEOUS SENTENCE — SENTENCE.)
- meaning of the word, i. 967.
  - common-law effects of attainder, i. 967.
  - how in the United States, i. 970.
- ATTEMPT, (See ACCESSORY BEFORE — CONSPIRACY — SOLICITATION — UTTER.)
- unsuccessful, indictable, i. 434, 540, 604.
  - must proceed to some act, i. 204-206.
  - to do what a statute forbids, indictable, i. 237, 435.
  - to do grievous bodily harm, i. 441.
  - to bribe, indictable, i. 468.
  - to prevent attendance of witnesses, &c., i. 468.
  - to procure perjury, i. 468.
  - other obstructions of justice, i. 468.
  - to commit sodomy, ground for divorce, i. 503.
  - to take human life, indictable, i. 547.
  - assault with intent is, i. 553.
  - acts tending to mischief, indictable, i. 540.
  - counselling is, though the thing is not done, i. 675.
  - to commit misdemeanor by means of felony, how regarded, i. 790.
  - whether conviction for, on indictment for the full offence, i. 809.
  - not ordinarily works forfeiture, i. 823.
  - to alien, condition against, void, i. 823.
  - as an element in the law of conspiracy, ii. 191 et seq.
- General view of the doctrine of,* i. 723-772.

ATTEMPT, — continued.

Introductory views, i. 723-726.

like acts toward, indictable otherwise than as attempts, i. 724.

General doctrine of, i. 727-730.

on what principle and how defined, i. 727, 728.

how act and intent combine, &c., i. 729.

must be a specific intent, i. 729, 730.

how in attempt to kill, i. 730.

The kind of intent, i. 731-733.

thing indictable if fully done, i. 731.

thing forborne from change of purpose, i. 732, 733.

no intent in law different from fact, in attempt, i. 734, 735.

how as to substantive crimes, i. 734.

how as matter of evidence, i. 735.

illustrations, i. 736.

The kind and extent of act, i. 737-769.

as adapted to produce intended result, i. 738, 739, 749, 769.

punishable, not amounting to substantive offence, i. 740, 743.

attempts under statutes peculiarly worded, i. 741, note, 758.

true doctrine where there is mistake of fact, i. 741 et seq., 754.

attempts at abortion, pocket-picking, &c., i. 741 and note, 743, 745.

impossibility of fact — facts not known, i. 743-754.

must be adaptation of means to ends, i. 749.

how, when present ability is wanting, i. 750.

when punishable, though unsuccessful, i. 752.

no man deemed to attempt what he knows impossible, i. 753.

presumed to know the law, i. 753 et seq.

attempt may be too small or proceed too little way, i. 759.

attempt to commit treason, felony, misdemeanor, i. 759.

same whether offence is at common law or statutory, i. 759.

act may be less in proportion as intent is greater, i. 760.

some offences too small to have attempts, i. 761.

as to act being illegal, i. 762.

carnal abuse of child, &c., i. 762.

attempt to charge with felony, i. 762.

as distinguished from preparation, i. 763.

attempt to contract incestuous marriage, i. 764.

need not be the last proximate act, i. 764.

generally, nature of act done immaterial, i. 765.

solicitation considered as an attempt, i. 767.

stands further from the act than some other attempts, i. 768.

how far the thing done must be adapted, i. 738, 769.

The combination of act and intent, i. 770, 771.

The degree of the crime of attempt, i. 772.

NOTE. — In the second volume, the attempt to commit each specific offence is treated of in connection with the offence itself. See, in this index, the names of the several offences.

ATTORNEY. (See LAWYERS.)

AUCTIONEER,

embezzling the money, ii. 370.

AUTREFOIS ACQUIT. (See JEOPARDY, &c.)

AUTREFOIS ATTAINT,

the doctrine of, i. 1070.

AWARD, (See REFEREES.)

of referees, disobeying, a contempt of court, ii. 256.

AXIOMATIC TRUTHS,

force of, in the law, i. 140, note.

BAIL,

may take the person bailed, ii. 37.

BANK-BILL. (See BANK-NOTE.)

BANK-NOTE,

meaning of the words, ii. 785.

whether, valid, not conforming to statute, ii. 411.

of broken bank, passing, when false pretence, ii. 418.

whether, subject of larceny, i. 578.

what is forgery of a, ii. 601.

BANKRUPT, (See FRAUDULENT BANKRUPTCY — PERJURY.)

perjury by, in swearing to his schedule, i. 298.

BARN. (See DWELLING-HOUSE.)

BARRATRY, (See CHAMPERTY — NUISANCE.)

what — indictable, i. 541.

whether, disqualifies to be a witness, i. 974, 975.

General discussion of the offence of, ii. 63-69.

general view, ii. 63.

definition, &c., ii. 64.

analogous to maintenance, libel, &c., ii. 65.

requires three acts — form of indictment, ii. 65.

in whose name, &c., actions brought, ii. 66.

misdemeanor — how punishable, ii. 69.

“BARTERING,” (See FORGERY.)

meaning of the word, ii. 608.

BASTARDY,

entertaining one guilty of, not indictable, i. 706.

BATHING,

in open sea, when indictable, i. 1131.

BATTERY, (See ASSAULT — ASSAULT AND BATTERY.)

what — indictable, i. 265, 548; ii. 70.

civil suit also for, i. 265.

inflicted on several, how, after conviction in respect to one, i. 792.

justifiable in defence of property, i. 861.

beating trespasser who yields, i. 862.

in defence of the person, i. 867.

includes an assault, ii. 56, 72.

may be justified by an assault, ii. 41.

- BATTERY, — continued. doctrine of, discussed, ii. 69 a-72 e.
- BATTLE. (See ENEMIES.)
- BAWDY-HOUSE, (See NUISANCE.) keeping of, indictable, and why, i. 500, 734.
procurer of keeping, held as keeper, i. 686.
wife liable, i. 361.
keeping, not disqualify to be a witness, i. 974.
General discussion of the offence of keeping, i. 1083-1096.
definition — why keeper indictable, i. 1083, 1085.
common bawd, not indictable, i. 1085.
house need not be kept for Ince, i. 1086.
house of "ill-fame" — Connecticut statute, i. 1088.
attempts — letting or selling house for bawdry, i. 1090 et seq.
the latter matter as it stands in principle, i. 1092 et seq.
held of late in England, i. 1095, 1096.
- BAYS, (See ARMS OF THE SEA — TERRITORIAL LIMITS.) territorial jurisdiction over, i. 105.
- BEARS,
not subjects of larceny, ii. 773.
- "BEAST,"
meaning of the word, ii. 986.
- BEEES. (See HONEY BEES.)
- BENEFIT OF CLERGY,
what, &c., i. 936-938.
whether women entitled to, i. 938.
- BESTIALITY. (See SODOMY.)
- BETTING, (See ELECTIONS — GAMING.)
procurer of, to be held as doer, i. 686.
forfeits the money, i. 821.
- BIGAMY. (See POLYGAMY.)
- "BILL OBLIGATORY," (See FORGERY.)
meaning of the words, ii. 563.
- BILL OF EXCHANGE, (See FORGERY.)
what is, ii. 562, 785.
- BILLIARD-ROOM, (See GAMING-HOUSES.) public, whether nuisance, i. 1136.
- BIRDS. (See SINGING BIRDS.)
- BLASPHEMY AND PROFANENESS,
indictable, i. 498.
General discussion of the offence, ii. 73-84.
why indictable, ii. 74.
definition of blasphemy, &c., ii. 76.
reviling the Scriptures, ii. 77, 83.
reviling the author of Christianity, ii. 78.
profane swearing, ii. 79.
statutory blasphemy and profaneness, ii. 80.
these statutes not unconstitutional, ii. 81.

- BLASPHEMY AND PROFANENESS, — continued.
liberty of speech, &c., not to be abridged, ii. 82.
Scotch law of blasphemy, ii. 83.
intoxication, whether an excuse for, ii. 84.
- BOARS. (See WILD BOARS.)
- BODIES. (See DEAD BODIES — SEPULTURE.)
- BODILY HARM. (See GRIEVOUS BODILY HARM.)
- BOND,
whether, subject of larceny, i. 578; ii. 769, 770.
- BONDS FOR THE PEACE, (See BREACHES OF PEACE — PEACE.) may be, on conviction for assault, ii. 55; and see i. 945.
- "BOOK OF ACCOUNTS,"
meaning of the words, ii. 785.
- BOOKS ON THE CRIMINAL LAW, (See REPORTS — TREATISES.)
General discussion and enumeration of, i. 70-90.
- BOOKSELLER,
when, liable criminally for libel sold in his shop, i. 219, 221.
- BOSTON HARBOR,
within county lines, i. 147.
- BREACH. (See PRISON BREACH.)
- BREACHES OF THE PEACE, (See ASSAULT — BONDS FOR THE PEACE — FORCIBLE ENTRY AND DETAINER — FORCIBLE TRESPASS — PEACE — RIOT.)
defined, i. 536.
conspiracies to create, indictable, ii. 226.
- BREAKING, (See BURGLARY AND OTHER BREAKINGS.)
what is, in prison breach, ii. 1070, 1075 et seq.
- BREAK JAIL. (See PRISON BREACH.)
- BREWERY. (See NUISANCE — OFFENSIVE TRADES.)
- BRIBERY, (See WITNESS.)
indictable, i. 468, 471.
offer, indictable, i. 216, 767.
of voters at municipal election, i. 246.
whether, disqualifies to be a witness, i. 974, 975.
General discussion of the offence of, ii. 85-89.
definition, &c., ii. 85.
act must tend to pervert justice — illustrations, ii. 86.
whether felony or misdemeanor, ii. 87.
attempts, merely offering bribe, &c., ii. 88.
where indictable, ii. 89.
- BRIDGE. (See WAY.)
- BROTHER, (See HOMICIDE.) neglect of, causing his death, ii. 660.
- BUGGERY. (See SODOMY.)
- BUILDING. (See WOODEN BUILDINGS.)
- BURGLARY, (See BREAKING — BURGLARY AND OTHER BREAKINGS — INTENT — ROBBERY.)
what it is — indictable, i. 207, 342, 559.

BURGLARY, — continued.

- offence not against property, but security, i. 577.
- must be two intents, i. 207, 342.
- effect of consent to enter—plans to entrap, &c., i. 262.
- species of attempt, i. 437.
- attempted felony need not be committed, i. 437.
- what will make accessory before in, i. 676.
- how when misdemeanor intended, and felony committed, i. 736.
- whether the felony intended must be possible, i. 753, 757.
- and larceny, two crimes or one, i. 1062-1064.
- and robbery, how, i. 1063, 1065.

BURGLARY AND OTHER BREAKINGS, (See BURGLARY.)

General discussion of the offence, ii. 90-120.

definitious, ii. 90 and note.

The breaking and entering, ii. 91-100.

of the breaking, ii. 91, 96-105.

of the entry, and what it is, ii. 92.

entry by a tool, &c., ii. 93.

how far entry must extend, ii. 95.

what must be broken and entered, ii. 96-98.

breaking out, ii. 99, 100.

The time of the breach and entry, ii. 101-103.

must be night—what is night, ii. 101.

under English statutes, as common-law, how i. 102, 103.

The place of the breach and entry, ii. 104-108.

must be in dwelling-house, church, or walled town, ii. 104, 105.

another's—one's own house or room, ii. 106, 107.

rooms of lodgers and guests, ii. 106, 107.

The intent, ii. 109-117.

two intents—what must be the ulterior intent, ii. 109.

intending one result, but accomplishing another, ii. 110-112.

intent to do an impossible thing, ii. 114.

intent presumed from the act, ii. 115.

form of the indictment, ii. 116, 117.

Statutory breakings, ii. 118.

Concluding questions, ii. 119, 120.

consent to the burglary—previous jeopardy ii. 119.

is felony—consequences, ii. 120.

principals of the second degree, ii. 120.

BURIAL, (See CORPSE—DEAD BODIES—SEPTULTURE.)

indictable to refuse, i. 506.

conspiracy to prevent, ii. 228.

BURNING, (See ARSON—ARSON AND OTHER BURNINGS.)

when procurer of, held as doer, i. 687.

BUYING AND SELLING PRETENDED TITLES. (See PRETENDED TITLES.)BUYING WIFE. (See WIFE.)BY-LAW. (See CITY BY-LAW.)CAPACITY FOR CRIME. (See INFANCY—INSANITY.)CAPTURES, wrongful, innocently made, through mistake of facts, i. 306, 307.

CARELESSNESS, (See ACCIDENT—NEGLECT.)

death created by, how considered, i. 217; ii. 692, 693.

not sufficient to constitute the intention in larceny, ii. 840.

General discussion of, as an ingredient in crime, i. 313-322.

the doctrine stated, i. 313.

when indictable, in place of direct intent, i. 313.

illustrations as to homicide, i. 314, 321.

from nuisances, servants, ways, arson, suffering dangerous animals to go abroad, &c., i. 316-318.

from law of libel, i. 319.

must be sufficient in degree, i. 320.

doctrines of, not applicable to all crimes, i. 320.

some crimes require a specific intent, i. 320.

carelessness less intensely criminal than direct purpose, i. 321.

these doctrines complicate themselves with other doctrines, i. 322.

CARNAL ABUSE, (See CHILD—CHILDREN—RAPE.)

of female children—attempt, i. 762, 765; ii. 1136.

how in Ohio, i. 37, note.

the offence considered, ii. 1118, 1133.

CARRIERS. (See COMMON CARRIERS.)CASTLE. (See DEFENCE OF THE CASTLE—DEFENCE OF PERSON AND PROPERTY—DWELLING-HOUSE.)CATS,

not subjects of larceny, ii. 773.

"CATTLE," (See ANIMALS.)

meaning of the word, ii. 936.

CAVEAT EMPTOR,

meaning and application of the maxim, i. 11.

CHALLENGE, (See DUELLING.)

to fight duel, indictable, i. 540; ii. 314.

in foreign State, i. 143.

CHALLENGING,

above twenty jurors—forfeiture, i. 968.

right of, at what stage exercised, i. 997.

CHAMPERTY AND MAINTENANCE, (See BARRATRY.)

what—indictable, i. 541.

when mistake of facts, i. 307.

punishment of, i. 942, note.

General discussion of these offences, ii. 121, 140.

question mostly arises in civil jurisprudence, ii. 121.

Maintenance, ii. 122-130.

definitions, &c., ii. 122, 123.

must be in court, ii. 123.

CHAMPERTY AND MAINTENANCE,—continued.

exploded doctrines, ii. 125.
 present doctrine, ii. 124, 126-130.
 exceptions, or what is not maintenance, ii. 127-129.
 view of the doctrine on principle, ii. 129, 130.

Champerly, ii. 131-134.

definition, &c., ii. 131.
 attorneys, &c., when guilty, ii. 132.
 view of champerty on principle, ii. 134.

Buying and selling pretended titles, ii. 136-140.

the common-law doctrine, ii. 136.
 old English statute — conveyances, ii. 137-139.
 interpretation of the statutes, ii. 139.

CHANCE MEDLEY,

what it is, ii. 621.

CHANDLERY. (See OFFENSIVE TRADES.)CHANGE, false pretence of giving wrong, ii. 432 a.

CHARGING THE HUNDRED, (See HOMICIDE.)

old law of, ii. 623.

CHASTITY, (See DEFENCE OF PERSON AND PROPERTY.)

life taken in defence of, i. 866, 867.

CHATTELS. (See GOODS AND CHATTELS.)CHEATS, (See CONSPIRACY — FALSE PRETENCES — FALSE TOKEN — FORGERY.)

how defined, indictable, i. 571, 582.
 by fraudulently obtaining a signature, i. 584.
 what false token necessary in, i. 585.
 selling by false weights, i. 600.

General discussion of the common-law offence of, ii. 141, 168.

defined, ii. 143.

stat. 33 Hen. 8, c. 1, ii. 141, 143.

must be symbol or token, ii. 143, 144.

Nature of the symbol or token, ii. 145-153.

mere words or lie, not enough, ii. 145.

illustrations of this doctrine, ii. 145-156.

distinction between falsehood and false token, ii. 146-156.

selling by measure, ii. 146.

check, and no funds — false brands and marks, ii. 147, 150.

worthless paper — forgery — passing counterfeits, &c., ii. 148, 149.

South Carolina statute, ii. 148, note.

counterfeit brands, &c., ii. 150.

enlisting, under a falsehood, as a soldier, ii. 151.

false personation, ii. 152-155.

misreading a writing, ii. 156.

whether the token must be public, ii. 157.

promissory notes of individuals, ii. 157.

need not be of apparent legal validity, ii. 158.

CHEATS,—continued.

Nature of the fraud involved, ii. 159, 160.

person defrauded, the act must be on confidence in the token, ii. 159.

kind of property obtained, ii. 160.

Public cheats, ii. 161-164.

Concluding questions, ii. 165-168.

indictment for cheat or other crime, at election, ii. 165.

is misdemeanor, ii. 165, 167.

whether the act can also be larceny, ii. 166.

punishment of cheat, ii. 167.

attempts to cheat, ii. 168.

CHECKS. (See GAMING CHECKS.)CHESAPEAKE BAY, within territorial jurisdiction, i. 105.

CHILD, (See CARNAL ABUSE — CHILDREN — PARENT — PARENT AND CHILD.)

may maintain parent in suits, ii. 128.

at what period the subject of murder, ii. 632, 634.

killing parent by abuse, ii. 636.

CHILDREN, (See CARNAL ABUSE — CHILD — PARENT — PARENT AND CHILD.)

abandoning, indictable, i. 557, 884.

neglect to provide, with food, i. 557, 883.

correction of, by parent, i. 881.

exposing, to the elements, i. 883.

CHINA,

how our laws extend over our citizens in, i. 123.

CHLOROFORM, (See RAPE.)

in rape, as impairing will, ii. 1126.

CHOLERA,

filthy house in time of, i. 490.

CHOSE IN ACTION,

what is, i. 578.

whether a subject of larceny, i. 578.

not larceny of, at common law, ii. 768-770.

otherwise under statutes, ii. 785.

CHRISTIANITY, (See LORD'S DAY — RELIGION.)

a part of our common law, i. 496 ; ii. 74 and note.

reviling, indictable, ii. 78.

CHURCH, (See BURGLARY, &c. — DISTURBING MEETINGS.)

affray in, ii. 5, 47.

breaking into, burglary, ii. 105.

CITY BY-LAW,

whether, authorized to create forfeitures, i. 832.

prosecution under, as barring indictment on statute, i. 1068.

CIVIL ACTION. (See CIVIL SUIT.)CIVIL LAW, value of illustrations from the, i. 41.

- "CIVIL OFFICER,"
a legislator not, i. 461.
- CIVIL PROCESS, obstructing, whether indictable, i. 467.
- CIVIL REMEDY, (See CIVIL SUIT.) may be had in addition to indictment, i. 264-273.
for assault, ii. 60, 61.
- CIVIL SUIT, (See CRIMINAL PROSECUTIONS — NUISANCE.) is to recover damages, i. 247.
not ordinarily barred by criminal prosecution, i. 264-266, 1069.
whether, in felony, it can be before the criminal, i. 267-278.
compared with criminal, as to punishment or damages, i. 955-957.
when analogies of, govern the criminal, i. 1074-1076.
- CIVIL TRESPASS, (See CARELESSNESS — HOMICIDE.) whether homicide in committing, indictable, and how, ii. 692.
- CLEAN HANDS, (See PLAINTIFFS.) plaintiff in civil suit must have, i. 11, 256, 267.
whether doctrine of, applies to false pretences, ii. 468, 469.
- CLERGY. (See BENEFIT OF CLERGY — CLERK IN ORDERS.)
- CLERK, (See AGENT — EMBEZZLEMENT — SERVANT.)
who is, in embezzlement, ii. 331-333.
- CLERK IN ORDERS,
beating, indictable in England, i. 496; ii. 46.
- CLERK OF COURT. (See OFFICER.)
- CLOSE INTERPRETATION. (See INTERPRETATION OF STATUTES)
- COCCULUS INDICUS BERRIES, (See POISON.)
under what circumstances, poison, i. 758.
- COCKFIGHTING, (See GAMING.)
whether, indictable, i. 504.
- "COIN." (See COUNTERFEITING — COUNTERFEIT MONEY.)
- "COIN AT THE TIME CURRENT,"
meaning of the words, ii. 295.
- "COIN BY LAW MADE CURRENT,"
meaning of the words, ii. 296.
- COKE, (See BOOKS ON THE CRIMINAL LAW.) works of, as authority in criminal law, i. 87.
- COLLECTOR, (See COMMISSION MERCHANT — EMBEZZLEMENT.) on commission, as servant, &c., in embezzlement, ii. 341, 370.
- "COLORING," (See COUNTERFEITING.)
meaning of the word, ii. 292.
- COMBINATTON, (See ACCESSORY — CONSPIRACY.) to injure individuals, indictable, i. 592, 593. of persons to commit crimes, as to the intent, i. 628-642.
as to the measure of guilt, i. 530.
as an element in the law of conspiracy, ii. 180 et seq.
of numbers, as supplying physical force, ii. 505, 519.
- COMBINATIONS OF INTENT, (See INTENT.)
General discussion of, i. 337-345.

- COMBUSTIBLE ARTICLES, (See NUISANCE.) when keeping of, indictable, i. 1097-1100.
- COMMAND,
how indictable, when following it results in death, i. 562.
to child, servant, wife, effect of, i. 355, 357, 884 a, 892.
- COMMERCE,
United States to regulate, i. 173-176.
- COMMISSION MERCHANT, (See EMBEZZLEMENT.)
embezzlement by, ii. 370.
larceny of the goods by, ii. 871.
- COMMITMENT. (See CONTEMPT OF COURT.)
- COMMON BARRATRY. (See BARRATRY.)
- COMMON BAWD, (See BAWDY-HOUSE.) not indictable, i. 1085.
- COMMON CARRIERS,
the doctrine of larceny by, ii. 833, 834, 836, 858-863.
- COMMON GAMBLER. (See GAMING — GAMING-HOUSES.)
- COMMON GAMING-HOUSE. (See GAMING-HOUSES.)
- COMMON LAW, (See CRIMINAL LAW — LAW — MILITARY AND MARTIAL LAW.)
applies in criminal matters, i. 35-38.
whether ecclesiastical law a part of, i. 38.
authorities as to, in criminal matters, i. 40-42.
how, as to military and martial law, i. 43-46.
whether, in force in United States courts, i. 189-203.
- COMMON NUISANCE. (See NUISANCE.)
- COMMON SCOLD, (See NUISANCE — PUBLIC ORDER.)
indictable, i. 510.
how punished, i. 943.
General discussion of the offence of being, i. 1101-1105. is nuisance at common law, i. 1101.
definition, form of indictment, &c., i. 1102, 1103.
misdemeanor — punishment, i. 1104.
- COMPOUNDING CRIME, (See PRIVATE SATISFACTION.) doctrine not applicable to lowest offences, i. 247.
what — indictable, i. 267-276, 604.
when by receiving stolen goods, i. 699.
General discussion of the doctrine of, i. 709-715.
what — not accessorial — theft bote, i. 710.
formerly made the person an accessory, i. 710.
applies to some misdemeanors — not all, i. 711.
as to penal actions, i. 712.
"speaking with the prosecutor" — reparation for injury, i. 713.
promise, &c., in satisfaction, i. 714.
extortions, &c., analogous to compounding, i. 715.
- COMPOUND LARCENY, (See LARCENY — ROBBERY.)
General discussion of, ii. 892-904.
general view of the law of, ii. 892, 893.
larceny from the person, ii. 895-899.

CON

ALPHABETICAL INDEX.

COMPOUND LARCENY, — continued.

- in the dwelling-house, shop, &c., ii. 900-904.
- by the wife in the "building" of the husband, ii. 903.
- from vessel — night-time, day-time, ii. 904.
- from post-office, mails, &c., ii. 904, note.

COMPULSION,

- what, takes from an act its criminal quality, i. 346-355.

CONCURRENT REMEDIES,

- general views of the doctrine of, i. 778-815.
- how, where there is a by-law, i. 246.
- corporation and individuals both indictable for same act, i. 42a

CONDITION,

- precedent, what, i. 914.
- subsequent, what, i. 914.
- violated, what, i. 915.
- effect of violating, i. 915.

CONFESSION, (See JEOPARDY.)

- by plea of guilty, i. 977.

CONFISCATION ACTS, (See FORFEITURE.)

- forfeitures by, i. 821.

CONGREGATION ASSEMBLED. (See DISTURBING MEETINGS.)

CONIES,

- when, subjects of larceny, ii. 773.

CONQUEST, (See LAW OF NATIONS.)

- of a country, not change its laws, i. 14.

CONSCIENCE. (See DIVINE LAW — REASON AND CONSCIENCE.)

CONSENT, (See EMBEZZLEMENT — JEOPARDY — RAPE.)

- of party injured to the injury, effect of, i. 257-263.
- to homicide, no defence, i. 510.
- effect of, in rape, i. 766.
- of prisoner, he may be put a second time in jeopardy, i. 995-1007.
- relinquishing constitutional rights by, i. 995, 996.
- when, prevents an act from being an assault, ii. 35, 36, 72 b.
- to embezzlement, what, and effect of, ii. 365.

CONSEQUENCES, (See ACT — CRIMES — PARDON — PUNISHMENT.)

- of an act, particular and general, i. 223-225.
- of an act, presumed to be intended, ii. 16, 115-117.

CONSPIRACY, (See ATTEMPT — COMBINATION.)

- how indictable, i. 592, 593.
- the combination a sufficient act, i. 432.
- to do mere civil injury — public, i. 592; against animals, i. 597 a.
- mere presence not sufficient, i. 633, 634.
- the will must contribute to, i. 633.
- liability, when independent crimes committed, i. 634.
- accidental consequences of, i. 635.
- when, intent in common, the act by one, i. 638.
- general intent considered, i. 638.
- circumstances modifying guilt in, i. 638, 639.

CONSPIRACY, — continued.

- liability, in treason, under change of plot, i. 639.
- a species of attempt, i. 767.
- to commit adultery, i. 768.
- indictment sustained, though proof shows full offence, i. 792, 814.
- cannot be committed by one person, i. 801.
- when discharge of one discharges the rest, i. 801.
- whether, disqualifies to be a witness, i. 974, 975.
- corrupt, respecting appointment to office, ii. 86 and note.
- stat. 33 Edw. 1, stat. 2, ag inst, ii. 124.
- to get undue price for goods, ii. 452.
- General discussion of the offence*, ii. 169-240.
- definitions, &c., ii. 171, 175.
- some general views, ii. 172, 173.
- under stat. 33 Edw. 1, stat. 2, ii. 174.
- construction of this statute, ii. 174.
- whether it is common law in this country, ii. 174, note.
- is indictable under earlier common law, ii. 176.
- how expanded in modern times, ii. 176.
- how common law modified in this country, ii. 177.
- distinction between the means and object, ii. 178.
- consists of doctrine of attempt and doctrine of combination, ii. 179.
- The element of the law of corrupt combinations, ii. 180-190.
- combinations as giving power for evil, ii. 180.
- thing intended in, not crime if done by one, ii. 181.
- illustrations and limitations of this proposition, ii. 182.
- to commit a civil trespass on real estate, ii. 182, 183.
- wrongs in their nature not aggravated by combination, ii. 181-186.
- combination to commit adultery, ii. 184.
- conspiracy too small in evil, ii. 186.
- how many must combine — husband and wife, &c., ii. 187, 188.
- among laborers, to raise wages, ii. 189.
- must be joint consent of will — what — how proved, ii. 190.
- The element of the law of attempt, ii. 191-195.
- conspiracy an attempt — object need not be accomplished, ii. 192.
- overt act necessary under some statutes, ii. 192.
- at common law, indictment may set out such act, ii. 193.
- this allegation need not be proved, ii. 193.
- peculiar doctrine of attempt in conspiracy, ii. 194, 195.
- how, where the combination does not aggravate, ii. 195.
- act too small in magnitude, ii. 195.
- Application of doctrines to particular relations and things, ii. 196-235.
- general view and classification, ii. 196, 197.
- conspiracies to defraud individuals, ii. 198-214.
- the general doctrine, ii. 198.
- whether the means must be agreed on, ii. 199-202.
- as to which, English form of the indictment, ii. 200.
- American forms, ii. 201.

CONSPIRACY, — continued.

- question, on principle, ii. 202.
- conspiracy aggravated by its circumstances, ii. 203.
- illustrations of conspiracies against individuals, ii. 204-212.
- wager, and playing false, ii. 204.
- cheating in a trade, ii. 205.
- other illustrations, ii. 206.
- electing directors of insurance company, ii. 208.
- defraud many persons, ii. 209.
- particular person not necessary, ii. 210.
- of the property intended to be got, ii. 211.
- procuring payment of a just debt, ii. 212.
- limits of the foregoing doctrines, ii. 213.
- drawing checks on bank where no funds, ii. 214.
- cheating feme covert of husband's property, ii. 214.
- deprive of office in illegal company, ii. 214.
- conspiracies to injure individuals otherwise than by fraud, ii. 215-218.
  - indictable, injury being either to property or person, ii. 215.
  - illustrations, ii. 216.
  - to charge one with crime — slander, ii. 217.
  - to change the settlement of a pauper, ii. 218.
  - to marry paupers, ii. 218.
- conspiracies to disturb course of government and justice, ii. 219-225.
  - general doctrine — indict falsely, &c., ii. 219.
  - need not be to do a thing criminal performed by one, ii. 220.
  - to procure conviction for felony, and divide the estate, ii. 220.
  - general doctrine as to prosecuting for crime, ii. 221.
  - to procure appointment to office, ii. 222, 223.
  - disaffection toward the government and people, ii. 224.
  - to lessen government revenues, ii. 225.
- conspiracies to create breaches of the peace, ii. 226.
  - general doctrine, and illustrations, ii. 226.
- conspiracies to create public nuisances, &c., ii. 227.
  - general doctrine, illustrations, ii. 228, 229.
- conspiracies against both individuals and the community, ii. 234, 235.
  - general doctrines, ii. 234.
  - of workmen, &c., to raise their wages, ii. 230-233.
  - American doctrine, ii. 231.
  - Scotch doctrine, ii. 232.
  - to procure marriage, commit fornication, &c., ii. 235 and note.
- Statutory conspiracies, ii. 236-238.
  - there are statutes in some States mentioned, ii. 236, 237.
  - the New York and New Jersey statutes, ii. 237.
  - United States statutes, ii. 238.
- Concluding questions, ii. 239, 240.
  - merger — in what county indictable, ii. 239.
  - misdemeanor — punishment, ii. 240.

- CONSTABLE, (See OFFICER.)
  - indictable for escape of street-walker, i. 707.
  - indictable for what malfeasance, ii. 978.
- CONSTITUTION OF UNITED STATES, (See GOVERNMENT — UNITED STATES.)
  - judicial power under, i. 56, 57, 195, 198.
- CONSTITUTIONAL LAW, (See EX POST FACTO LAWS — JURISDICTION — LAW OF NATIONS — UNITED STATES.)
  - statutes contrary to, void, i. 24.
  - how far permits military and martial law, i. 43-68.
  - power to suspend habeas corpus, i. 63, 64.
  - jurisdiction of the States over citizens abroad, &c., i. 152, 153.
  - same, &c., over Indian territory, i. 154.
  - jurisdiction of United States, within State limits, i. 155-181.
    - outside State limits, i. 182-188.
  - gaming, lotteries, sale of intoxicating liquor, right to prohibit, i. 493.
  - cruel and unusual punishments, i. 946, 947.
  - power of pardon, i. 899, 909-915.
    - as to pardon before conviction, i. 903, 904.
    - no pardon till the offence is committed, i. 904 and note.
    - no second prosecution for the same offence, i. 978-1070.
  - statutes against blasphemy and profaneness constitutional, ii. 81.
  - as to contempts in absence of the court, ii. 257, 258.
  - United States statutes against importing coin, constitutional, ii. 282.
  - whether States can legislate about the coin, ii. 285.
  - statute of embezzlement void as being partial, ii. 381.
  - as to forgery under State laws, ii. 556-558.
    - (And see particular titles.)
- CONSTITUTIONAL POWER,
  - requires legislation, when, i. 174, 177.
- CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS,
  - may be waived, i. 995-1007.
- CONSTRUCTION. (See INTERPRETATION OF STATUTES.)
- CONSULS,
  - who are — not ministers — not exempt from our laws, &c., i. 129.
  - how quasi judges under treaties, i. 122, 123.
  - in what tribunal prosecuted, i. 181, 196.
  - by what law tried, i. 196.
- CONTAGIOUS DISEASE, (See INFECTED PERSON.)
  - prisoner not to be tried while infected by, i. 354.
  - one having, may stay in own house, i. 490.
    - not go out into public places, i. 490.
  - not carry out one having, i. 490.
- CONTEMPT OF COURT, (See COURT — PARDON.)
  - whether pardonable, i. 913.
  - whether prosecution for, bars indictment for the same act, i. 1067.
  - General discussion of the doctrine of*, ii. 241-273.
  - general nature of these contempts, ii. 241.

- CONTEMPT OF COURT, — continued.
 how far to be discussed, &c., ii. 242.
 Against what tribunal or assemblage, ii. 243-249.
   every judicial tribunal, ii. 243.
   against justices of the peace, ii. 244-246.
   against legislative bodies, ii. 247.
   against officers, public meetings, &c., ii. 248, 249 and note.
 By what act the contempt is committed, ii. 250-267.
   general doctrine as stated by Erskine, ii. 250, note.
   general proposition — plan of the discussion, ii. 250, 251.
   contempts in the presence of the court, ii. 252, 253.
     general doctrine, and illustrations, ii. 252, 253.
   contempts by officers of the court, not in its presence, ii. 254.
     general doctrine, and illustrations, ii. 255.
   contempts by parties, &c., not in its presence, ii. 256.
   contempts by other persons, not in its presence, ii. 257-262.
     no such — unconstitutional, ii. 257.
     contrary doctrine, ii. 258.
     illustrations of these contempts, ii. 258, 259.
     how under United States statute, ii. 260.
     how the matter stands in reason, ii. 261.
     whether proceed for the contempt after cause is ended, ii. 262.
   contempts against justices of the peace, ii. 263.
     general doctrine as to what are, ii. 263.
   contempts viewed as indictable offences, ii. 264-267.
 Consequences of the contempt, ii. 268-273.
   of the proceedings and punishment, ii. 268-271.
   judge not always bound to notice contempt, ii. 272.
   where other remedies exist, ii. 273.
- CONTEMPTS. (See CONTEMPT OF COURT — LEGISLATIVE BODIES.)
- CONTRACT, (See FORGERY.)
 when, not enforced, i. 11.
 meaning of the word, ii. 568.
 breach of, when not indictable, i. 582; ii. 665 and note.
- CONTRIBUTORY NEGLIGENCE, doctrine of, not in criminal law, i. 256; ii. 662 a.
- CONVEYANCE, (See DEED.) of lands, void for adverse possession, ii. 137-139.
- CONVICTION, (See FOREIGN CONVICTION — JEOPARDY — NEW TRIAL.) of one, on indictment against several, i. 800-802.
 bars a second prosecution, i. 994.
 though erroneous, i. 1021, 1022.
- COONS,
 not subjects of larceny, ii. 773.
- CORONER,
 preventing, from holding inquest, &c., indictable, i. 468.
 indictable for what malfeasance, ii. 978.

- “CORPORAL OATH,” (See SOLEMN OATH.) meaning of the words, ii. 1018, note.
- CORPORATION, (See MUNICIPAL CORPORATION.) definition of, i. 417 and note.
 what, whose interests are deemed public interests, i. 246.
 offences against the person, whether guilty of, i. 422.
 whether rights vested in, divested by pardon, i. 910.
 is a person in the law of embezzlement, ii. 337.
 may be extortion from, ii. 408.
 forgery on a non-existing, indictable, ii. 543.
 form of indictment for such forgery, ii. 513.
General view as to responsibility of, for crime, i. 417-424.
 the question stated, i. 417.
 the general doctrine, i. 418.
 distinction of non-feasance and misfeasance, i. 420, 421.
 limit of the foregoing doctrines, i. 422, 423.
 concurrent liability of individuals, i. 424.
- CORPSE, (See BURIAL — DEAD BODIES — SEPULTURE.) indictable to steal, i. 506.
   to refuse to bury, or to dig up, i. 506.
   to sell for dissection, i. 506.
- CORRUPTION OF BLOOD, (See PARDON.)
 what it is, i. 967-969.
 not, in this country, i. 970.
 effect of pardon on, i. 918.
- COSTS,
 when, taken away by pardon, i. 910, 911.
- COUNSEL, (See ADVOCATE — LAWYERS.) effect of employing many, i. 683, note.
 anciently, not allowed to prisoner, i. 996.
- “COUNSEL OR PROCURE,”
 meaning of the term, i. 670.
- COUNSELLORS. (See ADVOCATE — LAWYERS.)
- COUNTERFEIT BILLS. (See COUNTERFEITING — COUNTERFEIT MONEY.)
- COUNTERFEIT COIN. (See COUNTERFEIT MONEY.)
- COUNTERFEIT MONEY, (See COUNTERFEITING — FORGERY.) whether offence to have, with intent to utter, i. 204.
 the offence of passing, ii. 148, 286, 430, 605-608.
- COUNTERFEITING, (See FORGERY — SIMILITUDE — UTTER.) conviction for, under both State and United States laws, i. 178, 989.
 when drunkenness excuses uttering, i. 412.
 a species of attempt, i. 437.
 the injury need not be accomplished, i. 437.
 of records, indictable, i. 468.
 of coin, indictable, i. 479.
 when procurer of, held as doer, i. 686.
 what an attempt to utter, i. 765.

COUNTERFEITING — continued.

- similitude to the supposed original, i. 769.
- conviction for less than is charged, i. 799.
- meaning of word counterfeit — what a counterfeiting, ii. 289-291.
- As to the coin, general discussion of the offence of,* ii. 274-300.
  - what is coin, &c., ii. 276.
  - relation of this offence to forgery, i. 479; ii. 274.
  - the king's prerogative as to coin, ii. 276-279.
  - counterfeiting is treason, when and why, ii. 279.
  - provisions of United States Constitution, ii. 280.
  - laws of the United States, ii. 280-282.
  - no common law counterfeiting against United States, ii. 281.
  - statutes against importing coin, constitutional, ii. 282.
  - common law of the States, ii. 283-287.
  - power of the States to legislate, ii. 285-287.
  - coin is a false token — attempts, ii. 286.
  - passing counterfeit coin, ii. 286.
  - meaning of sundry words, ii. 288-298.
  - "counterfeit — counterfeiting," what is, ii. 289-291.
  - "coloring," ii. 292.
  - "milled money," ii. 293.
  - "instrument adapted for coining," ii. 294.
  - "puncheon," ii. 294.
  - "coin at the time current," ii. 295.
  - "coin by law made current," ii. 296.
  - "lawful money," &c., ii. 297.
  - "coin current by usage," ii. 298.
  - whether felony or misdemeanor, ii. 299.
  - general observations, ii. 300.

COUNTRY,

- one out of, indictable here, i. 110 et seq.

COUNTY, (See JURISDICTION — TERRITORIAL LIMITS.)

- extent of the, on the sea, &c., i. 146-149.
- United States not usually punish offences within, i. 176.
- effect of acquittal because indictment in wrong county, i. 1053.
- penalty vested in, taken away by pardon, i. 910.

COURT, (See CONTEMPT OF COURT — LEGAL PROCESS — PROCEEDINGS IN COURTS.)

- not essential to the existence of law, i. 193.
- essential to its enforcement, i. 193.
- crimes cannot be prosecuted without, having jurisdiction, i. 109-111.
- ours not sit abroad without consent of government there, i. 122.
- attempts to influence, when indictable, i. 468.
- proceeding without authority, effect of, i. 1028.
- affray in, ii. 5.
- assaults in, ii. 49 and note, 50.
- taking paper from files of, when contempt, ii. 253.
- publishing proceedings of, contempt, ii. 259.

COURT, — continued.

- under U. S. statute, ii. 280.
- whether, of U. S. and States administer each other's laws, ii. 1022.
- COURT-MARTIAL, (See MARTIAL LAW — MILITARY LAW.)
  - effect of sentence of, as barring prosecution, i. 1029.
- COVERTURE, (See HUSBAND — MARRIAGE — WIFE.)
  - meaning of the term, i. 357.

General discussion of, as an excuse for crime, i. 356-366.

- how command of husband excuses wife, i. 357.
- when actual constraint excuses, i. 358 and note.
- constraint inferred from presence, i. 359, 360.
- but not as to some particular crimes, i. 361.
- presumption of constraint but prima facie, i. 362.
- wife indictable jointly with husband, i. 363, 366.
- cases in which the foregoing rules do not apply, i. 364-366.
- husband not always liable, i. 366.
- wife may be convicted alone, i. 366.

CRANES,

- when subjects of larceny, ii. 773.

CRIME, (See ACT — CRIMES — CRIMINAL LAW — DIAGRAM OF CRIME — FALSE ACCUSATION — INTENT — LOCALITY OF CRIME — OFFENCE, &c.)

- what it is, i. 32.
- may exist at common law, i. 35-37.
- under the English ecclesiastical law, i. 33, 39.
- committed out of the country, i. 109-123.
- may exist, though a good is done, i. 325, 326, 341.
- technical gradations in, i. 603.

CRIME AGAINST NATURE. (See SODOMY.)CRIMEN FALSI,

- what — incapacitates to be a witness, i. 972.

CRIMES, (See CRIME — DIAGRAM OF CRIME — SPECIFIC OFFENCES.)

- technical divisions and distinctions, i. 598-606.
- how specific, constituted, i. 773-785.
- how carved out of specific criminal transactions, i. 791-815.
- may be against both United States and a State, i. 178.

CRIMINAL,

- the, causing himself to be prosecuted, i. 1010.
- killing a, detected in his crime, ii. 708, 709.

CRIMINAL ACT. (See ACT.)"CRIMINAL CASES,"

- meaning of the words, i. 32.

CRIMINAL INFORMATION,

- cannot always be had where indictment lies, i. 246.
- refused when applicant is carrying on civil suit, i. 266.
- when the applicant is in fault, i. 256.
- withheld where person acted under constraint, i. 683.

CRIMINAL INTENT. (See INTENT.)

CRIMINAL JURISPRUDENCE,

how differs from civil, i. 288, 301, 1074-1076.

CRIMINAL LAW, (See BOOKS ON THE CRIMINAL LAW — COMMON LAW — CRIME — LAW.)

general views concerning the, i. 30-42.

authorities in the, i. 40-42.

what it is, i. 32.

how divided, i. 34.

of our national government, i. 198-203.

of the English ecclesiastical courts, i. 38.

military and martial law, i. 43-68.

when analogous to the civil department, i. 1074-1076.

CRIMINAL PROSECUTIONS, (See CIVIL SUIT.)

how differ from civil suits, i. 247.

CRUEL AND UNUSUAL PUNISHMENTS, (See PUNISHMENT.)

provision in U. S. Constitution does not bind the States, i. 946.

meaning of, i. 946.

CRUELTY,

as cause for divorce, the two kinds of force, i. 560.

to animals, how indictable, i. 594-597 a.

CUL DE SAC, (See WAY.)

whether, is a highway, ii. 1268.

CURTESY,

tenancy by the, i. 509.

CUSTODY, (See LARCENY.)

difference between, and possession, ii. 824 et seq.

DANGEROUS ANIMALS,

suffering, to go at large, when indictable, i. 318.

DANGEROUS WEAPON, (See ARMS — DEADLY WEAPON — LOADED ARMS.)

carrying, when indictable, i. 540.

unintended death, by use of, i. 862.

DAYTIME,

in law, what is, ii. 101.

burglary in, ii. 102.

DEAD BODIES, (See CORPSE — SEPULTURE.)

not subjects of larceny — clothes, &c., are, ii. 780.

DEADLY WEAPON, (See ARMS — DANGEROUS WEAPON — HOMICIDE — LOADED ARMS.)

death by use of, murder, ii. 680, 681, 690, 698.

DEATH, (See HOMICIDE.)

common-law punishment for felonies, i. 935.

when a statute does not prescribe the punishment, i. 935.

not so much inflicted in this country, i. 559, 939.

in judgment of, day how material, i. 951.

in homicide, must spring from act of accused, ii. 637-639.

DEBAUCHERY, (See ADULTERY — BAWDY-HOUSE — EXPOSURE OF PERSON — RAPE — SODOMY.)

DECEITS, (See CHEATS.)

whether, disqualify to be a witness, i. 974.

DECREE, (See CONTEMPT OF COURT.)

of court, disobeying, a contempt, ii. 256.

DEED, (See CONVEYANCE — FORGERY.)

meaning of the word, ii. 567, 785.

of real estate, whether subject of larceny, ii. 770.

DEER,

when, subjects of larceny, ii. 773.

DEFACING TOMBS, (See SEPULTURE.)

DE FACTO, (See OFFICER.)

DEFECTIVE VERDICT, (See VERDICT.)

DEFENCE, (See DEFENCE OF PROPERTY — HOMICIDE — SELF-DEFENCE.)

of self and property — the right, i. 237, 536, 836-877.

DEFENCE OF THE CASTLE, (See DWELLING-HOUSE.)

general doctrine of, i. 858.

waiver and limit of the right, i. 859; ii. 707.

DEFENCE OF PERSON AND PROPERTY, (See CHASTITY — DEFENCE — DEFENCE OF PROPERTY — HOMICIDE — PROPERTY — ROBBERY — SELF-DEFENCE — UNLAWFUL ASSEMBLY.)

General discussion of the doctrine of, i. 836-877.

two kinds of — perfect and imperfect, i. 840, 841.

not take life to preserve property, i. 840.

how the perfect defence may be made, i. 842-859.

when expecting assault, i. 844.

as to sailor and passenger at sea, i. 845.

duty to avoid taking life, i. 845, 846.

special verdicts, in homicide, i. 847.

how far duty to give way, i. 848.

when the right of perfect defence exists, i. 849-855.

must not take life to prevent a civil trespass, i. 849.

may, to prevent a felony, i. 849, 853, 854, 874.

may, to save one's own life, i. 849.

distinction, whether simple assault or with intent to kill, i. 850.

as to "fleeing to the wall," i. 850, 869 et seq.

discussion of principles, i. 851, 855.

mingling of doctrines, i. 853, note.

slave entering to steal, killed by a spring-gun, &c., i. 854.

how when defence becomes a public nuisance, i. 856.

as to defence of property, in general, i. 857.

defence of the dwelling-house, i. 858, 859.

when the right of imperfect defence exists, i. 860-863.

assault justified, i. 861.

homicide by dangerous weapon, i. 862.

self-defence, i. 864-874.

DEFENCE OF PERSON AND PROPERTY, — continued.

- general statement of the doctrine of, i. 863.
- the doctrine how laid down in U. S., i. 865.
- view taken by Grotius, i. 866.
- resisting attempts against peril of mutilation, i. 866.
- criticism on foregoing views, i. 867.
- resisting attempts against the liberty, i. 868.
- combat should be avoided, i. 869.
- restraints on the perfect right, i. 869, 875.
- what constitutes the necessity, i. 869, 870.
- withdrawing from combat, &c., i. 870, 871.
- overt step taken by assailant, i. 872.
- using improper force in defence—killing a ghost, i. 873.
- the right to defend one's property, i. 875, 876.
- the right to aid others, i. 877.

DEFENCE OF PROPERTY, (See DEFENCE—DEFENCE OF PERSON AND PROPERTY—FORCIBLE ENTRY AND DETAINER—HOMICIDE—PROPERTY.)

- general view of the right of, i. 836-877.
- taking life in, inadmissible, i. 837.
- assault in, ii. 37-41.
- man may defend his own property, ii. 502, 520.
- homicide in, whether murder or manslaughter, ii. 706, 707.

DELAWARE BAY,

- within territorial jurisdiction, i. 105.

DEMAND OF GUN,

- gun need not be in possession, &c., i. 752.

DE MINIMIS NON CURAT LEX. (See MAXIMS—SMALL THINGS.)*DEMOLISHING HOUSE, (See INTENT.)

- construction of statute against, i. 340.

DEMURRER, (See JEOPARDY.)

- effect of erroneous judgment for defendant on, i. 1027.

DEODAND,

- what—when forfeited, i. 827.
- doctrine not followed here, i. 827.

DEPUTY SHERIFF,

- is an "officer," ii. 349.

DESERTION, (See SEAMEN—VESSEL.)

- of ship, forfeits wages of seamen, i. 821.

DESTROYING VESSELS,

- laws forbidding, stated and discussed, i. 570, note.

"DESTRUCTIVE THING,"

- whether, must be in a form capable of destroying, i. 758.

DETAINDER. (See FORCIBLE ENTRY AND DETAINER.)*DIAGRAM OF CRIME, (See CRIMES.)

- shown and described, i. 602-605.

DIPLOMATIC AGENT. (See EMBASSADOR.)*DIPSOMANIA, (See DRUNKENNESS.)

- as an excuse for crime, i. 407.

DISBARRING,

- attorney, ii. 255 and note.

DISCHARGE,

- by committing magistrate, no bar to indictment, i. 1014.

DISCRETION,

- of judge, no appeal from, i. 1041.

DISINTERRING DEAD BODY. (See SEPULTURE.)*DISORDERLY HOUSE, (See BAWDY-HOUSE—NUISANCE—TIPLING-HOUSE, &c.)

- indictable, i. 504, 1107.
- letting house to become, i. 1090-1096.
- by selling liquor in it, i. 318.
- wife liable for keeping, i. 361.
- to be indictable, need not be kept for lucre, i. 1086, 1112.
- General discussion of the offence of keeping*, i. 1106-1121.
- meaning of the term—general view, i. 1106.
- tippling-shops, i. 318, 1113-1117.
- inns and other public-houses, i. 1118.
- whether disturbance must extend beyond the house, i. 1078, 1109.
- otherwise as to inns, &c., i. 1110.
- qualifications of doctrines, i. 1111.
- house need not be kept for lucre, i. 1112.
- how far the evil must progress, i. 1114, 1115.
- statutory enactments, i. 1117.
- houses in which crimes are committed, i. 1119-1121.

DISTRESS,

- excessive, not indictable, i. 538.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA,

- what law prevails in, i. 187, 203.

DISTURBING MEETINGS, (See CHURCH—THEATRE—TOWN MEETINGS.)

- indictable, i. 542.
- contempts against public meetings, ii. 249.
- General discussion of the offence*, ii. 301-310 a.
- common-law doctrine, ii. 301.
- Massachusetts statute, ii. 302.
- Virginia statute, ii. 303.
- Tennessee statute, ii. 304.
- Indiana statute, ii. 305.
- Maine statute, ii. 306.
- Connecticut statute, ii. 307; rightfulness of meeting, ii. 307 a.
- what is a disturbance, ii. 308-310; rules of meeting, ii. 310 a.

DIVINE LAW, (See LAW.)

- conscience deeming, opposed by law of the land, i. 344.

DIVORCE,

- sodomy, and attempts to commit it, ground for, i. 503.

- DIVORCE, — continued. cruelty in, as to the two kinds of force, i. 560.
- DOCKYARDS,
arsenals, &c., whether U. S. government exclusive in, i. 159.
- DOGS,
the law relating to, i. 832, 1080, note.
not subjects of larceny, ii. 773.
- DOMESTIC ANIMALS,
how protected by the criminal law, i. 594-597.
are subjects of larceny, ii. 773.
- DOMESTIC RELATIONS,
General view of the criminal law relating to, i. 878-891.
introduction, i. 878.
parent and child, i. 880-884.
guardian and ward, i. 885.
teacher and pupil, i. 886.
master and servant, i. 887-889. husband and wife, i. 890, 891.
- DOVES,
when, subjects of larceny, ii. 773, 779.
- "DRAFT,"
meaning of the word, ii. 735.
- DRIVING, (See HOMICIDE.) fast and riotous, indictable, i. 540.
improper, causing death, ii. 667.
- DROVERS, (See LARCENY.)
the doctrine of larceny by, ii. 858-862.
- DRUGGING,
whether, an assault, ii. 28.
- DRUNKENNESS, (See INTOXICATION.)
General discussion of the offence of, i. 397-416.
general doctrine of, stated, i. 397.
not alone indictable, i. 399.
intent to drink to excess a sufficient criminal intent, i. 400.
but not in offences which require a particular intent, i. 411.
our jurisprudence on, and the European compared, i. 403.
produced by fraud, unskilfulness of physicians, &c., i. 405.
mere intoxication — public drunkenness, i. 405.
when drunkenness produces insanity, i. 406, 407.
dipsomania, i. 407.
application of these doctrines in homicide, i. 401, 409, 410, 414, 415.
in battery, ii. 72 e. in cases requiring a specific intent, i. 408, 411-416.
further views, i. 410-416.
evidence of, in criminal cases, i. 415.
new forms of the question to arise, i. 415.
- DUCATS,
putting, into pocket to charge with felony, i. 762.

- DUCKING, (See COMMON SCOLD.)
as a punishment, i. 942, 943, 1104.
- DUELING, (See CHALLENGE — HOMICIDE — MURDER.) illegal, i. 10 and note.
the seconds are principals in the murder, i. 654.
an element in affray, ii. 5.
General discussion of the offence of, ii. 311-317.
is murder, both in parties and seconds, ii. 311.
meaning of the word duel, ii. 313.
Challenges and other attempts, ii. 312-315. challenging is an offence, and why, ii. 312.
the challenge, ii. 314.
under statutes, ii. 316.
The punishment, degree of offence, &c., ii. 317.
- DUTY. (See PUBLIC DUTY.)
- DWELLING-HOUSE, (See ARSON — BURGLARY — DEFENCE OF THE CASTLE — DEFENCE OF PERSON AND PROPERTY — FORCIBLE ENTRY AND DETAINER — HOUSE.) discharging fire-arms into, i. 751.
right to defend, i. 858, 859, 877; ii. 1259.
homicide in defence of, i. 858, 859.
whether murder or manslaughter, ii. 701, 707.
turning a person out of, i. 859.
breaking into, is burglary, ii. 90.
what is, in law, ii. 104.
not co-extensive in meaning with house, ii. 104.
may include barn, ii. 104.
- EAVESDROPPING, (See NUISANCE.)
indictable, i. 540.
general view of the offence of, i. 1122-1124.
- ECCLESIASTICAL BENEFICE, (See SIMONY.) corrupt presentation to, i. 496.
- ECCLESIASTICAL COURTS, law of, as common law in this country, i. 38.
probably not practically so as to crimes, i. 38, 39.
- EDUCATION. (See PUBLIC EDUCATION.)
- "EFFECTS," (See SECURITIES AND EFFECTS.)
meaning of the word, ii. 359.
- ELECTIONS, (See BETTING.) defeating, corrupting, &c., indictable, i. 471.
- ELECTIVE FRANCHISE. (See ELECTIONS — EMANCIPATION — FREE NEGROES — GUARANTY.)
- EMANCIPATION, (See FREE NEGROES — NEGRO.) legal responsibility of negro since, i. 893.
as affecting liability of former master on bail-bond, i. 894.
as relieving former liability of slave-father, i. 894.

EMBARGO LAWS,

forfeitures for violating, i. 821, 826.

avoided by overwhelming necessity, i. 351, 824.

EMBASSADOR,

foreign, exempt from our laws, i. 126, 127.

penalty for arrest of, i. 127.

assault on, ii. 51.

EMBEZZLED GOODS,

offence of receiving, ii. 1137.

EMBEZZLEMENT, (See LARCENY — RECEIVING STOLEN GOODS.)

how defined — akin to larceny, i. 567; ii. 325.

General discussion of the offence of, ii. 318-383.

history of the law — stat. 21 Hen. 8, c. 7, ii. 319.

construction of this statute — whether common law here, ii. 320.

39 Geo. 3, c. 85, and 7 & 8 Geo. 4, c. 29, ii. 321, 322.

24 & 25 Vict. c. 96, ii. 323.

American legislation follows the English, ii. 324-327.

larceny and embezzlement considered relatively, ii. 327-329.

English and American statutes viewed relatively, ii. 327, 330.

The classes of persons embezzling, ii. 331-351.

who are clerks, servants, agents, &c., ii. 331-333.

there must be a master, ii. 333.

must be the ordinary relation of master and servant, ii. 333.

chamberlain of commonable lands, ii. 334.

the master may be a corporation, ii. 337.

servant of an unlawful combination, how, ii. 339.

appointing power need not be in the master, ii. 340.

appointment need not be formal, ii. 340.

letter-carrier of post-office, ii. 340.

construction of the New York statute, ii. 338.

how paid, unimportant, ii. 341.

traveller, having a commission, &c., ii. 341.

common carrier is not servant, &c., ii. 342.

constable employed to collect debts, ii. 342, note.

part-owner, — trustees, &c., ii. 343.

a female may be servant, ii. 344.

servant of a firm, as to the individual partners, ii. 345.

may be, of several persons at one time, ii. 345.

whether employment must extend beyond the one transaction, ii. 346.

difference between words clerk, agent, servant, ii. 347, 348.

stage-driver — treasurer — apprentice, ii. 349.

“other officer,” ii. 350.

“waterman,” ii. 351.

The confidence reposed in the person embezzling, ii. 352-355.

not when comes out of regular course of his employment, ii. 353, 360.

servant's authority to receive the money, ii. 353, 354.

Massachusetts statute, ii. 355.

The thing to be embezzled by the person, ii. 356-371.

EMBEZZLEMENT, — continued.

“money,” “goods and chattels,” “effects,” &c., ii. 357-359.

thing must come to servant by virtue of his employment, ii. 360.

what circumstances are within this rule, ii. 361, 362.

view of the rule on principle, ii. 364.

servant in his own wrong, ii. 364.

not come to master before it does to servant, ii. 365.

illustrations and discussion of this doctrine, ii. 365, 368.

money given by master to try servant's honesty, ii. 365.

the New York doctrine, ii. 366.

the Alabama doctrine, ii. 367 and note.

goods in transit to the master, ii. 368.

the goods may belong to a third person, ii. 369.

must not be the servant's, ii. 369.

illustrations — right to mix, ii. 370.

auctioneer, traveller on commission, &c., ii. 370, 371.

The act by which the embezzlement is done, ii. 372-378.

the general doctrine — illustrations, ii. 372, 378.

form of indictment — specific property — evidence, ii. 374.

how under 7 & 8 Geo. 4, c. 29, &c., ii. 375.

false accounts — false denial, ii. 376-378.

The intent, ii. 379.

Concluding questions, ii. 380-383.

degree of the offence — punishment — attempts, ii. 380.

statute void as being partial, ii. 381.

statutory interpretation, in general, ii. 332, 333.

EMBRACERY, (See BRIBERY — JUROR — JURY.)

the law of, considered, ii. 384-389.

EMIGRANTS,

carry laws with them, i. 14, 15.

ENCLOSURE, (See PUBLIC ORDER.)

riotous pulling down of, indictable, i. 537.

ENEMIES,

alien, rights of, under our laws, i. 134.

aiding, in time of war, i. 306.

killing, in battle is not murder, ii. 631.

ENGLISH STATUTES CITED. (See STATUTES, ENGLISH.)*ENGROSSING, (See PUBLIC WEALTH.)

what — whether indictable, i. 518-527.

“ENROLMENT,” (See FORGERY.)

meaning of the word, ii. 570.

ENTICING AWAY CHILD,

not indictable, i. 884 b.

ENTRY. (See BURGLARY — FORCEBLE ENTRY AND DETAINER.)*ERRONEOUS SENTENCE, (See ARREST OF JUDGMENT — WITNESS.)

how, as to disqualifying to be a witness, i. 975.

effect of, as to a second prosecution, i. 1021, 1022.

effect of reversal of, i. 1021, 1022.

ERRONEOUS SENTENCE, — continued.

how, where court acts without authority, i. 1028.

ERROR. (See JEOPARDY — WRIT OF ERROR.)

ESCAPE,

negligent, indictable, i. 218, 318, 321.

voluntary, more deeply criminal, i. 321.

when wife liable for assisting in, i. 359.

one guilty of assisting, must know of felony committed, i. 693.

of street-walker, i. 707.

of others charged with misdemeanor, i. 707.

general view of the law of, ii. 1061-1106.

(See PRISON BREACH, RESCUE, AND ESCAPE.)

ESTRAYS. (See STRAY.)

ETHER, (See RAPE.)

in rape, as impairing will, ii. 1126.

EVIDENCE, (See CONFESSION — INTENT — SHOW FORTH IN EVIDENCE — WITNESS.)

possession as, of having procured, i. 204.

rebutting the presumption of marital coercion, i. 332.

of an infant's capacity for crime, i. 370, 371.

of insanity, i. 384 and note, 385.

accessory may deny principal's guilt, i. 669.

one presumed to intend what he does, and its consequences, i. 734, 735.

of parties in their own causes, i. 973.

under liquor laws, specific sales to show common seller, i. 1065.

EXCUSABLE HOMICIDE, (See DEFENCE, OF PERSON AND PROPERTY — HOMICIDE — SELF-DEFENCE.)

what it is, ii. 620-622.

how punished, ii. 622.

EXCUSE. (See FALSE EXCUSE.)

EXPATRIATION,

right of, i. 512.

treaties, prohibitions, &c., i. 512.

EX POST FACTO LAW, (See CONSTITUTIONAL LAW — PENAL STATUTES.)

Constitutional provision concerning, i. 279-284.

defined, i. 279, 281.

effect of, i. 279.

legislative power as to procedure, i. 280.

evidence within the prohibition, i. 281.

other grounds of invalidity, i. 282, 283.

EXPOSURE, (See ASSAULT — PARENT AND CHILD.)

of one to the weather, an assault, ii. 29.

EXPOSURE OF PERSON, (See NUISANCE — PUBLIC INDECENCY.)

indecent, must be to how many, i. 243, 244.

indictable, i. 500.

same of another's person, i. 500.

General discussion of the offence of, i. 1125-1134.

EXPOSURE OF PERSON, — continued.

definition and general doctrine, i. 1125.

whether the exhibition must be seen, i. 1126, 1127.

whether it must be in a public place, i. 1126-1131.

to how many persons, i. 1129, 1130.

no valid custom of exposure in a place, i. 1131.

of what part of the person, i. 1132.

the intent, i. 1133.

public indecency, i. 1134.

EXTORTION, (See MALFEASANCE AND NON-FEASANCE — OFFICER.)

how defined — indictable, i. 573, 587.

some kinds of, analogous to compounding, i. 715.

General discussion of the offence of, ii. 390-408.

definition and general view, ii. 390, 391.

of the officer committing it, ii. 392.

the color of office necessary, ii. 393.

the act of extortion, ii. 394, 395.

the intent — how corrupt, ii. 396-399.

fees to officers, ii. 394-400.

the thing taken — agreement to take, ii. 401.

old English statutes, ii. 403.

American statutes, ii. 404.

is misdemeanor — how punished, ii. 405.

abetting, by persons not officers, ii. 406.

threat to indict, ii. 407.

may be, from corporation, ii. 408.

‘EXTREME ATROCITY,’

what homicides are committed with, ii. 728.

FACT. (See IGNORANCE OF FACT.)

FAIR GROUND,

criminal law secures to men, i. 252.

FALSE ACCUSATION, (See ATTEMPT.)

of felony, indictable, i. 762.

FALSE AFFIRMATION, (See FALSE PRETENCES — LIBEL — LIBEL AND SLANDER — LIE.)

is not a false pretence, ii. 428, 453.

FALSE EXCUSE,

is not a false pretence, ii. 428.

FALSEHOOD, (See LIBEL — LIBEL AND SLANDER — LIE.)

injury by, not indictable, i. 582.

FALSE IMPRISONMENT, (See ASSAULT — IMPRISONMENT — KIDNAPPING AND FALSE IMPRISONMENT.)

indictable, i. 533.

when, justifiable as made through mistake of facts, i. 306.

procurer of, held as doer, i. 686.

whether, requires physical touch, ii. 26.

- FALSE IMPRISONMENT, — continued.
 whether, includes an assault, a battery, ii. 56.
- FALSE MEASURE. (See CHEATS.)
- FALSE NEWS,
 spreading, when indictable, i. 472-478, 540.
- FALSE PERSONATING, (See FALSE PRETENCES — FICTITIOUS NAME — FORGERY — OFFICER — PERSONATING.)
 how, indictable, i. 468, 587.
 of voter at municipal election, i. 471, note.
 cheating by means of, ii. 152-155.
 is a false pretence, ii. 439.
 forgery effected by, ii. 583.
- FALSE PRETENCES, OBTAINING GOODS BY, (See CHEATS — COUNTERFEITING — FALSE TOKEN — FORGERY — LARCENY — SYMBOL.) a statutory cheat, i. 571, 586.
 statutes of, limited by construction, i. 586.
 where complainant had committed crime were pretence true, i. 257.
 offence committed by an infant, i. 369.
 inducing one to pay his debts, i. 438; ii. 466.
 must be injury done, i. 438.
 must have a tendency to injure, i. 438.
 what concurrence in, creates guilt, i. 633.
 procurer held as doer, i. 636.
 though out of the country, i. 110.
 how, where the pretence is a forgery, i. 815.
 cheating by fictitious name, ii. 152.
- General discussion of the offence of*, ii. 409-488.
 history, and English statutes, ii. 410-414.
 American legislation, ii. 414.
- What is a false pretence, ii. 415-459.
 definition, and general view, ii. 415.
 must be false — how, believed false when not, ii. 417.
 only one pretence need be false, ii. 418.
 promise is not a pretence, ii. 419, 422.
 promise connected with pretence of an existing fact, ii. 424-427.
 representation of future event is not, ii. 420, 421.
 pretence of having a warrant to arrest, ii. 420.
 pretence of having funds — drawing check, ii. 421, 423.
 marriage promise, ii. 422, 445.
 representation of having rent to pay, ii. 425.
 false representation about lands, ii. 426, 444.
 false affirmation — false excuse, ii. 428.
 must be of an existing fact, ii. 429.
 money "due and owing," ii. 429.
 need not be made in words, ii. 430.
 uttering counterfeit money as genuine, ii. 430.
 connecting different conversations, ii. 431.
 pretence as being sufficiently proximate to the fraud, ii. 431.

- FALSE PRETENCES, OBTAINING GOODS BY, — continued. intervening contract, ii. 432.
 shallow devices, ii. 434-436.
 whether must be such as to deceive ordinary prudence, ii. 434-436.
 false representation of pecuniary condition, ii. 437.
 pretence of being captain in the army or navy, ii. 438.
 false personating — fictitious name, &c., ii. 439, 440.
 pretended authority to get goods — forged order, ii. 441.
 misstatement of the sum due, ii. 442.
 false representation of the weight of an article, ii. 442, 443.
 as to title to property sold, ii. 444.
 of having laid a wager — delivered goods, &c., ii. 446.
 common tricks of trade — puffing goods, &c., ii. 447-456.
 false statement of an opinion, ii. 454-457.
 magnitude of the pretence, ii. 458.
 foregoing are but illustrations, ii. 459.
- What must concur with the false pretence, ii. 460-475.
 how far the cheat must be accomplished, ii. 460.
 the pretence must be the means of accomplishing the cheat, ii. 461.
 as to other means co-operating with this, ii. 461 and note.
 pretence must be believed, ii. 462.
 plans to entrap — consent, ii. 463.
 whether person defrauded need have been cautious, ii. 464.
 must be made before the property is parted with, ii. 465.
 where there is stoppage in transitu, ii. 465.
 getting a debt paid by means of — no injury, ii. 466.
 getting money given in charity, ii. 467.
 where the person cheated is also in the wrong, ii. 468, 469.
 case of previous confidence between the parties, ii. 470.
 of the intent to defraud, ii. 471.
 where the wrongful steps are against different individuals, ii. 472.
 pretences made by and to agents, ii. 473, 474.
 where a consideration is paid for the thing got, ii. 475.
- What property must be obtained, ii. 476-484.
 depends on the words of the statute, ii. 476, 477.
 obtaining credit in account, ii. 480, 481.
 land — North Carolina statute — rule of larceny, ii. 477, 478.
 the money taken as a loan, ii. 482.
 the obtaining of a contract, ii. 483.
 same, of a signature to an instrument, ii. 484.
- Concluding questions, ii. 485-488.
 whether felony or misdemeanor, ii. 485.
 the act, partly in one State and partly in another, ii. 486.
 the punishments, ii. 487.
 attempts, ii. 488.
- FALSE TOKEN, (See CHEATS — FALSE PRETENCES — SYMBOL.) what the, must be, i. 585. or symbol, necessary to common-law cheat, i. 571, 586; ii. 142 et seq.

- FALSE TOKEN, — continued. when, need not be of apparent validity, ii. 158.
counterfeit coin is, ii. 286.
- FAMILIES, (See LODGERS.) many, occupying one house create nuisance, i. 490.
several, occupying one house — make several dwelling-houses, ii. 108.
- FATHER, (See PARENT.)
- FELON, (See DEFENCE OF PERSON AND PROPERTY — FELONY — HOMICIDE.) derivation and meaning of the word, i. 615.
taking life of, when justifiable, i. 843, 849, 874.
- "FELONIOUS ASSAULTER," meaning of the words, i. 622.
- FELONY, (See FORFEITURE — HOMICIDE — JEOPARDY — MISDEMEANOR — TREASON.) defined — history of, &c., i. 615-617.
treason is, i. 613.
suicide is, in England, i. 615.
one injured by, whether maintain a civil suit, i. 267-278.
officer arrest one who has committed, i. 441.
corporation cannot commit, i. 422.
created by statute, punished with death, i. 615.
punishment of, in this country, i. 616.
how far common-law rules apply in, i. 617, 620.
in common law, how affected by statute, i. 620.
how statutes creating, construed, i. 622.
statute definition of, i. 618.
what assistance in, makes accessory after, i. 642.
how, as to persons participating in, i. 646.
principals of different degrees, no distinction, i. 648.
accessories in, generally, i. 666-671.
accessories before the fact in, i. 673, 680.
accessories after the fact in, i. 692-700.
misdemeanor elevated to, punishable only as felony, i. 699, 787.
same act not, and also a misdemeanor, i. 699, 787; ii. 6, 165.
misprision of, is misdemeanor, i. 717.
attempt to commit, indictable, i. 759, 768.
when elevated by statute to treason, i. 787.
how, when proved on indictment for misdemeanor, i. 787-789.
on indictment for, whether conviction for misdemeanor, i. 804 et seq.
whether advantages at the trial for, i. 804-807.
indictment for, verdict on included assault, i. 809. upon property, homicide of one committing, i. 875.
how punished, i. 935-939.
forfeiture and other like consequences of, i. 966-977.
rule of twice in jeopardy extends over, i. 990.
differing from misdemeanor when conviction wrong, i. 1001, 1002.
acquittal for, not bar prosecution for misdemeanor, i. 1055.

- FELONY, — continued.
homicide in committing, when murder, ii. 691-694.
(As to what offences are felony, see the several titles.)
- FEME COVERT, (See COVERTURE — MARRIED WOMEN — WIFE.)
meaning of the term, i. 357.
- FEME SOLE,
meaning of the term, i. 357.
- FERÆ NATURÆ, (See WILD ANIMALS.)
- FERRETS,
not subjects of larceny, ii. 773.
- FERRY, (See WAY.)
- FICTITIOUS NAME, (See FALSE PRETENCES — FALSE PERSONATING.) cheating by use of, ii. 152.
forgery of, indictable, ii. 543, 547, 583.
- FICTITIOUS SUIT, (See SUIT.)
- FIGHTING, (See AFFRAY — DEFENCE OF PERSON AND PROPERTY — DUELLING — PRIZE FIGHT.) of persons together, whether indictable, and how, i. 535; ii. 3.
death resulting from, i. 870 et seq.
- FINE, (See IMPRISONMENT.) and imprisonment, as punishment for misdemeanor, i. 940, 941.
may be remitted by pardon, i. 910, 911.
- FIRE, (See ARSON.)
- FISH,
when subjects of larceny, ii. 773, 775.
- FIXTURES,
as subjects of larceny, ii. 764.
- FLIGHT,
common-law consequences of, i. 968.
- FLORIDA,
the common law in, as to crimes, i. 35.
- FOOD, (See UNWHOLESOME FOOD.) refusal to provide, how, as assault, ii. 29.
- FORCE, (See MENTAL FORCE — PHYSICAL FORCE.) is either physical or mental, i. 546.
- FORCIBLE ABDUCTION, (See ABDUCTION.)
- FORCIBLE DETAINER, (See DEFENCE OF PROPERTY — FORCIBLE ENTRY AND DETAINER.) meaning of the words, i. 536; ii. 503, 512.
- FORCIBLE ENTRY AND DETAINER, (See DEFENCE OF PROPERTY — DWELLING-HOUSE.)
what, and when indictable, i. 536-538.
General discussion of the offence of, ii. 489-490.
definitions, &c., ii. 489.
whether force in defence of estate allowable, ii. 490.
order of the discussion, ii. 491.
The old English statutes, ii. 492-496. general statement of, and whether common law here, ii. 492-496.

FORCIBLE ENTRY AND DETAINER, — continued.

- The ownership, estate, or possession necessary, ii. 497-503.
 under statutes, real estate; any property at common law, ii. 497.
 the kind of real estate, and the possession, ii. 498, 499.
 peculiar principles where dwelling-house is occupied, ii. 499.
 not assert even good title with violence, ii. 500.
 tenant in common as to co-tenant — wife as to husband, ii. 500.
 form of indictment, ii. 501.
 no estate necessary, but peaceable possession, ii. 501.
 as to forcible detainer, ii. 502, 503.
 may defend his own estate in possession, ii. 502.
 must have been a previous entry, ii. 503.
 meaning of the words forcible detainer, ii. 503.
 form of the indictment, ii. 503, note.
- The act which constitutes the offence, ii. 504-513.
 general view, ii. 504.
 must exceed a mere trespass, ii. 505. combination of numbers — fear of bodily harm, ii. 505.
 law of the old books, how regarded, ii. 506.
 the acts of violence and the terror, ii. 507.
 where the force must be, ii. 508.
 there must be also a claim to the lands, ii. 509.
 the person entered upon need not be present, ii. 510.
 when offence joint — when several, ii. 511.
 forcible detainer what, and who guilty, ii. 512.
 entry into part, its effect as to the residue, ii. 513.
- The restitution of possession awarded, ii. 514.
- Concluding questions, ii. 515, 516.
 is misdemeanor, ii. 515.
 whether civil or criminal in New Hampshire, ii. 516.
- FORCIBLE MARRIAGE, (See ABDUCTION — MARRIAGE.)
 indictable, i. 555.
- FORCIBLE TRESPASS, (See DWELLING-HOUSE — DEFENCE OF PROPERTY — TRESPASS.)
 what, and when indictable, i. 533-539.
General discussion of the offence, ii. 517-520.
 what is — must be in owner's presence, ii. 517.
 must be breach of peace, or tendency to breach, ii. 518, 519.
 combinations of numbers, ii. 519.
 owner may maintain possession by force, ii. 520.
- FORCIBLY BREAK. (See BREAKING — BURGLARY AND OTHER BREAKINGS.)
- FOREIGN CONVICTION, (See CONVICTION — JEOPARDY — JURIS-DICTION — LOCALITY.)
 effect of as barring a domestic prosecution, i. 983-989.
- FOREIGN COUNTRY, (See HOMICIDE — JURISDICTION — LOCALITY.) death in, from blow given here, i. 112-114.

- FOREIGN GOVERNMENT, (See FOREIGN POWER — JURISDICTION.) acts tending to disturb our relations with, indictable, i. 484.
- FOREIGN JUDGMENT, (See JURISDICTION — WITNESS.) effect of, as disqualifying to be a witness, i. 976.
- FOREIGN LAW, (See SCOTCH LAW.) weight of, in questions of our own criminal law, i. 41.
- FOREIGN MINISTER. (See EMBASSADOR.)
- FOREIGN POWER, (See FOREIGN GOVERNMENT — JURISDICTION — LOCALITY.)
 not recognized by our courts, unless acknowledged by our government,
 i. 119; ii. 1239 and note.
- FOREIGN SECURITIES, (See FORGERY.)
 forgery of, indictable, ii. 571.
- FOREIGN SOVEREIGNS,
 and attendants, free here from our laws, i. 125.
 wrongful acts done here by command of, i. 132, 133.
- FOREIGN TRESPASS. (See TRESPASS.)
- FOREIGNERS, (See FOREIGN GOVERNMENT.) while here, bound and protected by our laws, i. 132-134.
- FORESTALLING,
 the offence considered, i. 518-529.
- FORFEITURE, (See FELONY — IMPEACHMENT — PARDON.)
 when, not enforced on account of mistake of facts, i. 307.
 not, when act compelled by necessity, i. 351.
 under absentee acts, does not attach to wife, i. 365.
 infant may subject his estate to, i. 369.
 of office, a punishment on impeachment, i. 462, 463.
 follows conviction for felony, i. 971.
 riotous enforcement of, indictable, i. 537.
 attaches to felony, i. 615.
 not, in this country, i. 273, 616, 970.
 as a punishment for crime, i. 824, 835, 944.
 may be pardoned, i. 910.
 when, as to vested rights, i. 911.
General view of, as a consequence of crime, i. 966-971.
General view of, without criminal conviction, i. 816-835.
- FORGED ORDER, (See CHEATS — FALSE PRETENCES.)
 is a false pretence, ii. 441.
- FORGERY, (See CHEATS — COUNTERFEIT MONEY — COUNTERFEIT-ING — FALSE PERSONATING — FALSE PRETENCES — SIMILITUDE — UTTERING.)
 how defined — indictable, and why, i. 479, 572, 734.
 no defence for utterer, that he meant to repay, i. 341.
 a species of attempt to cheat, i. 572 and note; ii. 168.
 may be, of fictitious name, i. 572, 748.
 not, by fraudulently procuring signature, i. 584.
 a species of cheat, i. 584; ii. 148.
 so is passing forged paper, ii. 148, 149.

FORGERY, — continued.

- need not be of a public document, i. 585; ii. 157.
- where persons separately execute each a part of instrument, i. 650.
- who principal in uttering forged note, i. 654.
- adviser in uttering, accessory, if absent, i. 676.
- not, where no person to be cheated, i. 748.
  - no apparent legal validity, i. 748; ii. 153.
  - cannot defraud, i. 748.
- similitude to the supposed original, i. 769.
- when, the means of obtaining goods by false pretences, i. 815.
- disqualifies to be a witness, i. 974, 975.
- punishment of, i. 942.
- General discussion of the offence of, as to writings, ii. 521-612.*
  - definitions, &c., ii. 521, 523 and note, 524.
- The writing at common law, 525-532.*
  - need not be with a pen, &c., ii. 525.
  - impressions of seals, ii. 526.
  - printed votes, tickets, &c., ii. 527.
  - forgeries tending to injure individuals, ii. 528-530 et seq.
    - may be under seal or not, ii. 528.
    - illustrations of writings that may be forged, ii. 529.
    - general doctrine stated, ii. 530.
  - forgeries prejudicial to the public, ii. 531, 532.
  - public records, judicial process, seals, &c., ii. 531.
  - general considerations, ii. 532.
- The writing as being of legal efficacy, ii. 533-547.*
  - the general doctrine of, ii. 533.
  - must have, or appear to have, legal efficacy, ii. 533-537.
  - valid or invalid on face, ii. 538-544.
  - prohibited bank-notes, &c., ii. 538, 539.
  - unstamped instruments, ii. 540.
  - if apparently good on its face, enough, ii. 541.
  - instrument paid and taken up, ii. 541, 542.
  - forgery of fictitious name, indictable, ii. 543, 547.
  - form of indictment in such case, ii. 543.
  - non-existing corporation, ii. 543.
  - general doctrine of invalidity on face, ii. 544.
  - ambiguity on face, ii. 545-547.
  - form of such indictment — when lies, ii. 545.
  - railroad ticket — receipt for money, ii. 546.
  - fictitious name in such cases, ii. 547.
- The writing under statutes, ii. 548-571.*
  - needless legislation, ii. 548.
- under English statutes as common law here, ii. 549-555.*
  - general view — whether any are common law here, ii. 549.
  - statement of these statutes, ii. 550-554.
  - their interpretations, ii. 555.
- under American statutes, ii. 556-558, 568-571.*

FORGERY, — continued.

- how, as between the United States and the several States, ii. 557.
- statutes and common law as to each other, ii. 558.
- meanings of certain terms, ii. 559, 560.
  - “promissory note,” ii. 561.
  - “bill of exchange,” ii. 562.
  - “undertaking for payment,” ii. 563.
  - “receipt for money, goods,” &c., ii. 564.
  - “acquittance,” ii. 565.
  - “obligation and bill obligatory,” ii. 566.
  - “deed,” ii. 567.
  - “contract,” ii. 568.
  - “instrument or writing,” ii. 569.
  - “enrolment, registry, or record,” ii. 570.
- as to foreign securities, ii. 571.
- The act of forgery, ii. 572-595.*
  - writing entire instrument, or signature, ii. 572.
  - what alteration of an instrument, ii. 573-577.
  - destruction — severing a part from the rest, ii. 578.
  - writing by authority, or by supposed authority, ii. 579.
  - departure from authority, ii. 580, 581.
  - signing, without authority, “per procuracion,” ii. 582.
  - personating another individual, real or fictitious, ii. 583.
  - false writing to defraud, ii. 584.
  - how in the United States, ii. 585.
  - whether one can forge his own name, ii. 584.
  - can another’s, though identical with his own, ii. 587.
  - false description — alterations — wrong address, ii. 586, 588.
  - fraudulently procuring one to write his own name, ii. 589, 590.
  - altering an unexecuted instrument, ii. 591.
  - the question of similitude to the genuine, ii. 592-595.
- The intent, ii. 596-601.*
  - must be evil — how, public records, &c., ii. 596, 597.
  - must be to defraud a particular person, ii. 598.
  - how inferred, ii. 598, 599.
  - where the person could not be legally defrauded, ii. 599.
  - how, under stat. 14 & 15 Vict. c. 100, ii. 599.
  - altering instrument by reducing the sum, ii. 600.
  - delivering forged instrument as specimen of skill, ii. 601.
  - forged representation of being a partner, ii. 601.
- What progress toward effecting the fraud, ii. 602, 603.*
  - fraud need not be accomplished, ii. 602.
  - illustrations of the doctrine, ii. 603.
- Offences depending on and growing out of forgery, ii. 604-608.*
  - attempt to cheat by a forged instrument, what, &c., ii. 605.
  - must be an act as well as intent, ii. 605.
  - under statutes, the having with intent, ii. 606.
  - uttering forged instruments contrary to statute, ii. 607.

FORGERY, — continued.

“putting off,” “passing,” “showing forth in evidence,” “selling and bartering,” ii. 608.

Concluding questions, ii. 609-612.

whether is misdemeanor or felony, ii. 609.

against State or United States, ii. 611.

prosecution either for common-law cheat or for forgery, ii. 612.

FORMS. (See RELIGION.)FORNICATION, (See ADULTERY.)

punishable under the English ecclesiastical law, i. 38.

how, under the common law, i. 38, 39, 501.

conviction of, on indictment for adultery, i. 795.

conspiracy to procure girl for, ii. 235.

FORTS,

what law prevails in our, i. 159.

FOXES,

not subjects of larceny, ii. 773.

FRAUD, (See ELECTIONS — PARDON.)

effect of, on consent to a battery, i. 261.

how as to rape, i. 261; ii. 1122.

effect of, on the rule that a prisoner be not twice put in jeopardy, i. 1008-1011.

vitiates a pardon, i. 905, 906.

FRAUDULENT BANKRUPTCY, (See BANKRUPT.)

cases relating to, collected, i. 572 a, note.

FRAUDULENT CONVEYANCES, how and when, indictable, i. 572 a.

FREE NEGROES, (See EMANCIPATION — NEGRO — SLAVE.) construction of statute against selling, into slavery, i. 560.

whether, have constitutional rights, i. 947.

punishment of larceny by, i. 947.

FUGITIVES FROM JUSTICE, (See JURISDICTION.)

doctrine concerning, i. 135.

FURNITURE. (See GOODS HIRED — LODGERS.)GAMBLER. (See GAMING — GAMING-HOUSES.)GAME LAWS, English and American, i. 516.

GAMING, (See BETTING — GAMING-HOUSES.)

whether, indictable, i. 504.

GAMING-HOUSES, (See BETTING — GAMING — NUISANCE.)

when, indictable, i. 504.

whether keeping, disqualifies to be a witness, i. 974, 975.

general view of the offence of keeping, i. 1135-1137.

GHOST,

killing a, i. 873.

GLASS HOUSE. (See OFFENSIVE TRADES.)GOLD IN MINE, whether, subject of larceny, ii. 762.

GOODS. (See LOST GOODS — PERSONAL GOODS — RECEIVING STOLEN GOODS — WORK ON GOODS.)“GOODS AND CHATTELS,”

meaning of the words, ii. 358, 785.

GOODS HIRED, (See EMBEZZLEMENT — LARCENY.)

the doctrine of larceny of, ii. 864-868.

GOODS IN TRANSIT. (See EMBEZZLEMENT — LARCENY — WAREHOUSEMEN.)GOVERNMENT, (See FOREIGN GOVERNMENT — LAW — MILITARY AND MARTIAL LAW — OBSTRUCTING GOVERNMENT — PUBLIC REVENUE — TERRITORIAL LIMITS.)

and law, not identical, i. 9.

does not enforce all law, i. 10, 11.

How protected by the criminal law, i. 450-485.

in its own existence and functions, i. 450-480.

interests inseparable from those of the people, i. 450, 451.

refusal to assist, indictable, i. 457.

general duty of the subject to, i. 457, 459.

judicial responsibility to, i. 460-463 and note.

classification of offences against, difficult, i. 480.

in its relations with other governments, i. 481-485.

creating disaffection towards, indictable, ii. 224.

GRAND JURY, (See CONTEMPT — WITNESS.)

refusal to testify before, a contempt of court, ii. 273.

GRAND LARCENY, (See LARCENY — PETIT LARCENY.)

what it is, i. 679.

distinction between, and petit, ii. 884.

GRANT,

what it carries with it, i. 171.

GRIEVOUS BODILY HARM, (See DEFENCE OF PERSON AND PROPERTY — SELF-DEFENCE.)

construction of statute against doing, i. 340.

perfect defence against, justifiable, i. 865, 867.

mere apprehension of, not sufficient, i. 872.

GROSS LEWDNESS. (See LEWDNESS.)GROWING GRAIN, larceny of, under South Carolina statute, ii. 734.

GUARANTY OF REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT, (See EMANCIPATION — FREE NEGROES — GOVERNMENT.)

meaning of clause respecting, i. 161, note.

some views concerning, i. 161-171.

as affecting right of State legislation, i. 165.

how recognized and adjudicated, i. 166-171.

defined, i. 168.

GUARDIAN AND WARD,

view of the criminal law relating to, i. 835.

- GUEST, (See DEFENCE OF PERSON AND PROPERTY — DWELLING HOUSE.) may defend the house, i. 877.
- GUIDE-BOARDS, (See WAX.)
construction of New Hampshire statute about, ii. 1287.
- GUILTY,
plea of, as a confession, i. 977.
- GUILTY PERSON. (See CRIMINAL.)
- GULFS. (See BAYS.)
- GUN,
demand of — it need not be in possession, i. 752.
- GUNPOWDER,
keeping, in populous places, indictable, i. 531, 1097.
how, before houses built, i. 1099.
- GYPSIES, (See VAGABONDS — VAGRANCY — WANDERING MARINERS AND SOLDIERS.)
whether, indictable, i. 516.
false pretence by, of witchcraft, ii. 429 a.
- HABEAS CORPUS, (See CONSTITUTIONAL LAW — PRISONER OF WAR.) power to suspend, i. 63, 64.
effect of suspension of, i. 64.
interpretation of the statute suspending writ of, i. 64, note.
cannot be used to release prisoners of war, i. 63 and note.
by State and national courts concurrently, ii. 1022.
necessity as raising an exception to act of, i. 354.
declining to make return to, a contempt, ii. 253.
- HALE, (See BOOKS ON THE CRIMINAL LAW.)
Pleas of the Crown by, as authority, i. 88.
- HARBORS, (See ARMS OF THE SEA.) obstructions of, injuries to, neglect to repair, indictable, i. 531.
- HARES,
when, subjects of larceny, ii. 773.
- HAWKINS, (See BOOKS ON THE CRIMINAL LAW.)
Pleas of the Crown by, as authority, i. 88.
- HAWKS,
whether, subjects of larceny, ii. 771.
- HEALTH. (See PUBLIC HEALTH.)
- HENS,
are subjects of larceny, ii. 774.
- HERESY, (See PUBLIC MORALS.)
whether, indictable, i. 497, 615.
- HIGH SEAS, (See MARITIME JURISDICTION — OCEAN — PIRACY.) jurisdiction over offences committed on the, i. 117, 176, 201.
- HIGHWAY, (See PUBLIC WAYS — WAX.)
meaning of the word, ii. 1266.
- “HIS,”
the word, may include a woman, ii. 344.

- HOMICIDE, (See DEFENCE OF PERSON AND PROPERTY — EXCUSABLE HOMICIDE — JUSTIFIABLE HOMICIDE — MALICE AFORETHOUGHT — MANSLAUGHTER — MURDER — THREATS.) blow in one jurisdiction and death in another, i. 112-116, 143.
pardon of, before the death, i. 113, note.
in indictment, whether “mortal” injuries alleged, i. 115, note.
of men in battle, not indictable, i. 131.
otherwise, to kill alien enemy, i. 134.
produced by carelessness, indictable, i. 217, 314, 321.
request of person killed, no defence, i. 259, 510.
when, justifiable on the ground of mistake of fact, i. 305.
how, divided in law, i. 334, 401, 409, 547.
small provocation not reduce, to manslaughter, i. 227.
when murder, though death not intended, i. 328, 736.
indictable when act causing death unintended is malum in se, i. 332.
not, when it is malum prohibitum, i. 332.
unintended, is murder or not, according to evil of intent, i. 334.
so, according to kind of intent, i. 328, 334.
one compelled to take life, not punishable, i. 346.
in self-defence, whether punishable, i. 348, 349, 615.
how, of killing innocent person to save self, i. 348.
whether marital coercion excuses wife in, i. 358, 361.
wife not liable for death of apprentice from neglect, i. 364.
drunkenness as an excuse for, i. 409, 414-416.
by abandoning young children, i. 557, 883.
neglecting to give them food, i. 557, 883.
servants, apprentices, &c., i. 557.
by working on the fears, &c., i. 562 and note.
by command to servant, &c., i. 562. compelling another to suicide, i. 562.
producing conviction of murder by perjury, i. 564.
where death comes from opposing unlawful act, i. 633.
who liable for death caused by careless riding, i. 635.
when confederates in an unlawful act guilty, i. 639, 642. counselling to suicide, i. 510, 652.
parties and seconds in duels, i. 654; ii. 311.
how, as to accessories, i. 666.
accessory in, by advising murder of unborn child, i. 676.
cannot become accessory after, before death, i. 693.
attempt, what intent, i. 736.
how act which produces, viewed in degree of enormity, i. 780.
committed in the commission of arson, i. 781.
indictment for murder in first and second degrees, i. 797.
in prevention of crime, i. 854. committed in self-defence, at common law subjects to forfeiture, i. 968.
from improper battery, i. 862.
in mutual combat, i. 870 et seq.
indictment for, after conviction for assault, and death, i. 1059.

HOMICIDE, — continued.

General discussion of the offence of felonious, ii. 613-745.

Historical introduction and general divisions, ii. 613-628.

importance of discussing this title in a proper order, ii. 613, 614.

important place occupied by the history of the subject, ii. 616.

homicide not felonious, ii. 617.

justifiable and excusable homicides defined and explained, ii. 618-622.

what was murder anciently, ii. 623.

how the law was changed to its present form, ii. 624-626.

the result to which the change grew, ii. 627, 628.

What homicides are indictable, ii. 629-671.

general view, ii. 629.

on what being the offence may be committed, ii. 630-634.

every human being — outlaw, &c., ii. 630.

enemy — in battle — condemned to be hung, ii. 631.

child unborn — when deemed a human being, ii. 632-634.

the act by which felonious homicide is committed, ii. 635-641.

what is a sufficient killing, ii. 635, 636.

as to the death being caused by the act, ii. 637-639.

concerning the time of the death, ii. 640.

view of the kinds of force resulting in death, ii. 641.

unlawfulness of the force, ii. 642, 643.

committed in making arrests for crime, ii. 647-651.

when the committer of an offence may resist, ii. 652.

resisting arrest and attempts to suppress a quarrel, ii. 652-655.

separating persons in a quarrel, ii. 653.

suppressing riots, affrays, &c., ii. 654, 655.

kinds of force permitted, ii. 656.

kinds of force not permitted, ii. 656.

unlawful force employed as a threat — attempt, ii. 656.

all unlawful force felonious, if death follows, ii. 657.

illustrations, ii. 657.

death from neglect — degree of duty, ii. 659-662.

general doctrine on this point, ii. 659.

illustrations, ii. 660-662.

some relations of life considered, ii. 663-667.

parent and child, master and servant, &c., ii. 663.

physician, as to patient, ii. 664.

men undertaking business which requires care, ii. 665.

jailer, as to the prisoner, ii. 666.

using a public way improperly, ii. 667.

cause of the death must be sufficiently near, ii. 668.

carelessly navigating a steamboat, ii. 669.

The intent which enters into felonious homicide, ii. 670, 671.

need not be to kill, ii. 670.

drunkenness, ii. &c., 671.

Murder distinguished from manslaughter, ii. 672-722.

preliminary views, ii. 672-674.

HOMICIDE, — continued.

the intent which distinguishes murder from manslaughter, ii. 675-678.

malice aforethought — technical doctrine, ii. 675.

malice instantaneous, &c., ii. 677.

act as viewed without direct reference to the intent, ii. 679-693.

in criminal law, all acts referable to the intent, ii. 679.

intent sometimes determined by technical rules, ii. 679.

deadly weapon used, murder, ii. 680.

illustrations, ii. 682-685.

immoderate chastisement, ii. 683, 684.

weapon not deadly, but improper for correction, ii. 685, 690.

unskillfulness of physician, ii. 685.

parent and child, husband and wife, &c., ii. 686.

intentional acts dangerous, done without excuse, ii. 687.

jailer confining prisoner, &c., ii. 687.

distinction between murder and manslaughter further stated, ii. 689.

illustrations of doctrines, ii. 690.

general test, ii. 691.

in committing misdemeanor — committing felony, ii. 691-693.

in committing civil trespass, ii. 692.

how far intent considered in the foregoing cases, ii. 692, 693.

carelessness, ii. 692, 693.

act viewed with direct reference to the intent, ii. 694-696.

felony intended — misdemeanor intended, ii. 694.

under what circumstances murder, when intent is to kill, ii. 695.

further distinctions, ii. 696.

act viewed relatively to the conduct of the person killed, ii. 697-718.

manslaughter, mind clouded by passion, ii. 697.

assault, mutual combat, &c., the general doctrine, ii. 698, 699.

the doctrine illustrated and discussed, ii. 701-713.

defence of the dwelling-house, ii. 707.

killing wife in act of adultery, ii. 708.

killing person committing sodomy with child, ii. 708.

killing one detected in other crime, ii. 709.

general rule, whether provocation reduces to manslaughter, ii. 710.

passion having time to cool, but not cooled, ii. 710-713.

length of cooling time required, ii. 711-713.

if mind not in fact under passion, not murder, ii. 714.

killing in a quarrel after killing premeditated, ii. 715-717.

the doctrine further extended, ii. 718.

murder and manslaughter as to acts of third persons, ii. 719.

distinction, under statutes of some States, ii. 720-722.

Statutory divisions of murder, ii. 723-730.

two degrees of murder — Pennsylvania and Michigan statutes, ii. 723.

Indiana, Ohio, New York, Massachusetts, ii. 724, 725.

historical views as to interpretation of these statutes, ii. 726, 727.

how these statutes have been interpreted, ii. 728.

further views, ii. 729, 730.

HOMICIDE, — continued.

- Statutory divisions of manslaughter, ii. 731.
- Definition and general doctrine of murder, ii. 732-735.
  - the usual definition, ii. 732.
  - better definitions, ii. 733, 734.
  - definitions of this offence are of but little help, ii. 735.
- Definition and general doctrine of manslaughter, ii. 736-738.
  - definitions, ii. 736, 737.
  - they are of but little help, ii. 738.
- Attempts to commit murder and manslaughter, ii. 739-743.
  - mainly discussed in the first volume, ii. 739.
  - assault with intent, ii. 740.
  - in attempt to murder, the killing must be intended — evidence, ii. 741
  - various other points, ii. 742.
  - attempts are only misdemeanors, ii. 743.
  - concluding questions, ii. 744, 745.
  - murder and manslaughter are felony, ii. 744.
  - in what county — second jeopardy, &c., ii. 745.

HONEY BEES,

reclaimed, are subjects of larceny, ii. 771, 777.

HORSE,

false pretence concerning, ii. 451, 453.
is subject of larceny, ii. 774.

HOTEL. (See INN — TIPPLING-HOUSE.)HOUSE, (See DISORDERLY HOUSE — DWELLING-HOUSE.)

when indictable to tear down or break, i. 298, 537.
may be so filthy as to be a nuisance, i. 490.
used for committing offences, indictable, i. 1119, 1121.
not co-extensive in meaning with dwelling-house, ii. 104.

HOUSE-BREAKING. (See BURGLARY, &c.)HOUSE, DISORDERLY. (See DISORDERLY HOUSE.)HOUSE OF ILL FAME. (See BAWDY-HOUSE.)HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. (See LEGISLATIVE BODIES.)HUSBAND, (See WIFE.)

responsibility of, for wife's crimes, i. 891 a. false pretence of bringing back, to wife, ii. 429 a. causing wife's death by neglect, ii. 682, 686.
killing wife in chastisement, ii. 633.
killing wife taken in adultery, ii. 708.
cannot commit larceny from wife, ii. 872.

HUSBAND AND WIFE, (See COVERTURE — DOMESTIC RELATIONS — HUSBAND — MARRIED WOMEN — WIFE.)

may be indicted jointly, i. 363, 366; exceptions, i. 364-366.
sometimes husband must be joined, i. 366. views of the criminal law relating to, i. 890-891 a.

ICE,

when, the subject of larceny, ii. 765.

IDIOCY. (See INSANITY.)IDLENESS,

whether indictable, i. 453, 454, 515, 516.

IGNORANCE OF FACT, (See HOMICIDE — INTENT — LIBEL.)

as an excuse for crime, i. 297-312.
the presumption, what, i. 301, 305. facts though not known may be set up in defence, i. 440, 441.
men not conclusively presumed to know facts, i. 440.

IGNORANCE OF LAW, (See INTENT.)

not generally an excuse for crime, i. 294-300, 384 and note, 753.
presumption that men know the law, i. 294, 295.
statute which could not be known, i. 295.
exceptions to general doctrine, i. 297-300.
when blended with ignorance of fact, i. 311.
fee taken under, ii. 399 a.

ILLEGAL VOTING. (See BRIBERY — ELECTIONS.)ILL FAME, (See BAWDY-HOUSE — HOUSE OF ILL FAME.)

meaning of the words, i. 1088.

IMPEACHMENT, (See PARDON.)

who punishable by, and to what extent, i. 462, 463.
whether pardonable, i. 912.

IMPOSTURE. (See RELIGIOUS IMPOSTURE.)IMPRISONMENT, (See FALSE IMPRISONMENT — FINE — KIDNAPPING AND FALSE IMPRISONMENT.)

and fine, as punishment for misdemeanor, i. 940, 941.

INCAPACITY OF MIND. (See INSANITY.)INCEST,

whether, indictable, i. 502.
attempt and preparation for attempt distinguished, i. 764.
conviction of, on indictment for rape on daughter, i. 795.

INDECENT EXPOSURE. (See EXPOSURE OF PERSON.)INDIANA, common law in, i. 35.

INDIAN TERRITORY,

whether the United States or a State has jurisdiction over, i. 154.

INDICT. (See THREAT TO INDICT.)INDICTABLE, (See ACT — INTENT, &c.) all public things which statutes forbid, i. 237, 238.

INDICTMENT,

may lie in matters not necessarily criminal, i. 32.
liability to, elsewhere, no defence, i. 142.
duty of private persons to procure, i. 233, 270-276.
civil suit will not bar, i. 264-266, 1069.
may be against husband and wife jointly, i. 363.
exceptions to the last proposition, i. 366.
the intent, how indicated in, i. 426-429.
how drawn, in reference to the two sorts of principals, i. 648.
how, against procurer of treason, i. 682-684.

INDICTMENT, — continued.

- against procurer of misdemeanor, i. 685.
- form of, as affecting decisions interpreting statutes, i. 755.
- in attempts, adviser and one who undertakes and fails, joined, i. 772.
- not join accessory before and principal, in felony, i. 772.
- may cover, conjunctively, negative clauses of the statute, i. 785.
- on statute against receiving stolen goods, i. 785.
- how drawn, in murder of first and second degrees, i. 797.
- offence proved must be within the allegations, i. 798.
- how, when joint, and evidence shows offences several, i. 802.
- against several persons, conviction of one, i. 800.
- for felony, whether conviction of misdemeanor, i. 804 et seq.
- for misdemeanor, and a felony proved, i. 812-815.
- for full offence, conviction for attempt, i. 809.
- surplusage in, does not vitiate, i. 810.
- word "feloniously" does not, i. 810.
- no new, after an acquittal, i. 994.
- pendency of one, no bar to another, i. 1014.
- defective, effect on second prosecution, i. 1021.
- effect of quashing a valid, i. 1027.

INDIVIDUAL,

- how the law protects, i. 554-593.

"INDORSE,"

- meaning of the term, ii. 570 a.

INFAMOUS CRIME,

- what is, i. 972.

INFANCY,

- as an excuse for crime, the law considered, i. 367-373.
- whether infant can consent to an assault, ii. 36.
- cheating by pretending to be of age, ii. 153.
- legal meaning of the word infant, i. 367.
- twelve years — ten years — fourteen years, i. 554; ii. 1118.
- under fourteen, no assault with intent to commit rape, i. 373, 746.

INFECTED PERSON, (See CONTAGIOUS DISEASE.)

- not to be taken into the public way, i. 490.

INFORMATION. (See CRIMINAL INFORMATION.)

INJUNCTION, (See CONTEMPT.)

- disobeying, contempt of court, ii. 256.

INJURY, (See MALICIOUS INJURIES.)

- need not be actual, to maintain indictment, i. 239, 240, 243, 244.

INN, (See DISORDERLY HOUSE — INTOXICATING LIQUOR.)

- disorderly, indictable, i. 504, 1110, 1118.

INNKEEPER,

- when, indictable for not entertaining traveller, i. 532.

INNOCENT AGENT, (See AGENT — SERVANT.)

- what is, i. 310.
- whether court is, i. 564.
- employer of, is a principal, i. 651.

INSANE PERSON, (See INSANITY.)

- employer of, guilty as principal, i. 651.

INSANITY,

- Dr. Ray's classification of, i. 378, note.
- produced by drunkenness, i. 406, 407.
- in woman, effect of, as to rape, i. 261; ii. 1121, 1123, 1124.
- General discussion of, as an excuse for crime, i. 374-396.*
  - how the matter divides itself, i. 374.
  - no criminal intent without mental capacity, i. 375.
  - unsatisfactory state of the old law, i. 375, note.
  - incapacity must be sufficient in degree, i. 376 and note, 378.
  - the old tests — old law, i. 376.
  - some discussion of Freeman's case, i. 376, note.
  - difficulty of understanding the legal decisions, i. 377, 378, 381.
  - some discussion of Arnold's case, i. 378.
  - medical errors, &c., i. 377, 378.
  - numerous phases of insanity, i. 379.
  - monomania — intermittent insanity, i. 380.
  - test as to what insanity will exempt, i. 381 et seq.
  - the question as one of fact, not of law, i. 383.
  - the usual test, i. 384.
    - discussed, i. 384, note.
    - how applied, i. 385.
    - applicable under what circumstances, i. 386-388.
  - homicidal insanity, i. 387 and note, 388.
  - may be insane, though conscious of doing wrong, i. 387, 388.
  - general views concerning the foregoing tests, i. 389-391.
  - insane belief of what if true would legally justify, i. 392, 393.
  - general doctrine of delusion, i. 394.
  - some discussion of Hadfield's case, i. 392-394.
  - new questions as to, continually arising, i. 395.
  - incapacity for crime distinguished from civil incapacity, i. 396.
  - one can be neither tried nor punished while insane, i. 396.

INSTRUMENT, (See FORGERY.)

- legal meaning of the word, ii. 569.

"INSTRUMENT ADAPTED FOR COINING,"

- meaning of the words, ii. 294.

INTENT, (See ACT — IGNORANCE OF LAW.)

- act and, must concur to constitute crime, i. 204-208, 287.
- presupposes capacity for crime, i. 205, 375 and note.
- doctrine of, applies to both lowest and highest crimes, i. 247.
- why not, to civil suits, i. 247.
- distinctions, in civil and criminal procedure, as to, i. 286, 288.
- legal, not vitiated by accompanying inferior intents, i. 339.
- ultimate good no defence against prohibited intent, i. 341, 343.
- how indicated in law writings and proceedings, i. 425-429.
- in indictments, circumlocution employed to express, i. 426.
- may be less, as act is more wicked, i. 760, 768.

INTENT, — continued.

not ordinarily works forfeiture, i. 823, 834.

in what cases the, of the civil jurisprudence sufficient, i. 1074-1076.

General discussion of the doctrine of the intent, i. 204-429.

INTERNATIONAL LAW. (See LAW OF NATIONS.)

INTERPRETATION OF STATUTES, (See "OR" — STATUTES — WORDS.)

statutes how construed — general doctrine, i. 755.

analogies of common law followed, ii. 118.

statutes against champerty, &c., interpreted strictly, ii. 139.

statute not repealed without negative words, ii. 174.

corporation included under word person, ii. 338, 339.

when the forbidding of bank-notes is directory, ii. 539.

our courts follow the English interpretation of statutes adopted from England, ii. 900 and note.

INTOXICATING LIQUOR, (See TIPPLING-HOUSE.)

larceny of money received for, sold without license, ii. 781.

when seller responsible for crimes of purchasers, i. 318.

wife may be prosecuted for unlawful selling, i. 366.

constitutionality of statutes regulating sale of, i. 493, 833, 834.

whether license required to sell, i. 505.

purchaser from seller without license, not indictable, i. 658, 761.

one who sells as agent, is, i. 658.

procurer of sale, to be held as seller, i. 686.

persuading another to sell, whether indictable, i. 658 and note, 761.

contract to sell not indictable, i. 761.

one guilty as common seller, and of specific sales, i. 782.

where more defendants than one, sentence what, i. 957.

after conviction as common seller, the sales indictable, i. 1065.

specific sales, evidence of being common seller, i. 1065.

constitutionality of forfeitures for selling, i. 833, 834.

INTOXICATION, (See DRUNKENNESS.)

whether, an excuse for blasphemy, ii. 84.

JAIL, (See ESCAPE — PRISON BREACH.)

whether burning of, is arson, ii. 15.

JAILER,

taking life of prisoner by improper confinement, ii. 686, 687.

JEOPARDY, NOT TWICE IN, (See CONSENT — LAW OF NATIONS — NEW TRIAL — NOL. PROS. — VERDICT.)

General discussion of the doctrine of no second jeopardy, i. 978-1070.

Introductory statement, i. 978, 979.

division of the subject, i. 979.

General view of the doctrine, i. 980-994.

common-law rule against being twice put in jeopardy, i. 980.

made a constitutional rule in this country, i. 981.

whether our decisions alter common-law doctrine, i. 982.

JEOPARDY, NOT TWICE IN, — continued.

1st, locality over which it extends, i. 983-989.

between country and country, i. 983.

whether prosecution in one bars in another, &c., i. 984-989.

2d, to what offences applied, i. 990, 991.

strictly, to felony only, i. 990.

by construction, to misdemeanor also, i. 990.

3d, how binds government; and whether, defendants, i. 992-994.

for defendant's benefit, so he may waive it, i. 992.

binds government — no steps backward, i. 992.

Waiver by defendants, i. 995-1007.

how far prisoner may waive rights, i. 995-998.

reason of the doctrine, i. 996.

jury discharged — defective verdict — judgment vacated, &c., i. 998.

judgment erroneously arrested on good indictment, i. 1000.

new trial, pardon to the defendant, i. 1001, 1002.

waiver goes only as far as relief sought, i. 1004.

conviction of part, and acquittal of residue, i. 1004.

verdict on part of the charge, i. 1004, 1006.

Fraud in the matter committed by defendants, i. 1008-1011.

fraud at the hearing, how, i. 1009.

where a man procures himself to be indicted, i. 1010.

general suggestions on the question of fraud, i. 1011.

Rules to determine when there has been a jeopardy, i. 1012-1047.

question one of constitutional law, i. 1012.

after jeopardy attaches, no second jeopardy, i. 1013.

attaches when jury is impanelled, i. 1014, 1015.

after that, no nol. pros., &c., i. 1017.

observations of judges contrary to this view, i. 1018.

reason why this view is correct, i. 1019.

for jeopardy to attach, preliminaries not be erroneous, i. 1020.

no jeopardy where indictment is defective in form, i. 1021.

how when judgment is rendered on invalid indictment, i. 1023.

writs of error in favor of the State, i. 1024.

other impediments than constitutional to rehearing, i. 1025.

when legislative provision for rehearing unconstitutional, i. 1026.

tribunal being without authority, i. 1028.

defects neither of record nor apparent, i. 1030 et seq.

term of court closing before cause finished, i. 1031.

sickness interrupting trial, i. 1032.

jury being unable to agree on verdict, i. 1033-1035.

better view of the whole doctrine, i. 1036.

after jeopardy without conviction, prisoner discharged, i. 1037.

difference between error of judge and jury's misconduct, i. 1038.

juror found not sufficiently sworn, insane, incompetent, &c., i. 1039.

jurors less in number than law requires, i. 1040.

when appeal lies from wrong direction of the judge, i. 1041.

general view on principle of remaining points, i. 1042-1047.

JEOPARDY, NOT TWICE IN, — *continued.

- When are the offences the same, i. 1048-1069.
 no bar if not same offence, i. 1049.
 propositions resting on principle, i. 1051.
 variance — wrong county, &c. — the test, i. 1052, 1053.
 conviction for larger offence bars less, i. 1054.
 how, of conviction for less, i. 1055-1057.
 assault, conviction for it, death afterward, i. 1059.
 limit of the right to cut up offences, i. 1060.
 difficulty — illustrations, i. 1061-1069.
 battery — public way — larceny, &c., i. 1061.
 burglary — larceny — robbery, i. 1062-1064.
 same evidence may establish several crimes, i. 1065.
 sales, &c., of intoxicating liquor, i. 1065.
 forgery, larceny, &c., i. 1066.
 several penalties for one crime in several suits, i. 1067.
 prosecutions under city by-law and under statute, i. 1068.
 civil damage and penal consequence, i. 1069.

The doctrine of autrefois attaint, i. 1070.

JESUS CHRIST, (See CHRISTIANITY — RELIGION.)

reviling, indictable, ii. 78.

JUDGE, (See CONTEMPT — MALFEASANCE AND NON-FEASANCE.)

- how punishable, i. 462.
 trial broken off by sickness of, i. 1032.
 inferior, refusing obedience to superior, a contempt, ii. 256.
 abusing, out of court, whether contempt, ii. 257, 258.

JUDGMENT. (See ARREST OF JUDGMENT — ERRONEOUS SENTENCE — SENTENCE.)*JUDICIAL CONTEMPT. (See CONTEMPT OF COURT.)*JUDICIAL OFFICER, (See MALFEASANCE AND NON-FEASANCE — OFFICER.)

when, not indictable or suable, i. 460, 462.

JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS. (See COURT.)*JUDICIAL SALES, (See CHAMPERTY AND MAINTENANCE.)

not within champerty acts, ii. 139.

JURISDICTION, (See LOCALITY OF CRIME — MARITIME JURISDICTION — STATES — UNITED STATES.)

- with respect to locality, i. 99-203.
 when two governments punish same act, i. 136-144.
 larceny abroad, and goods brought here, i. 137-141. national and State, how concurrent, i. 155, 172, 178, 179.
 no conviction without, i. 811.

JURISPRUDENCE, (See LAW.)

- the source and nature of, i. 1-21.
 difference in the various systems of, i. 13.

JUROR,

- not punishable, i. 462.
 personating, indictable, i. 468.

JUROR, — *continued.

- preventing attendance of, indictable, i. 468. person infamous cannot be, i. 977. effect of withdrawing a, i. 1016.
 trial broken off by sickness of, i. 1032.
 escapes, found incompetent, &c., how second trial, i. 1038, 1039.
 separating from his fellows, &c., a contempt of court, ii. 255.

JURY, (See JEOPARDY.)

- not to be instructed in abstract doctrines, i. 379.
 attempts to influence, indictable, i. 468.
 in some States, assess punishment, i. 934. effect, on second trial, of inability to agree, i. 1033-1035.
 discharge by court, officer, &c., i. 1037, 1038.
 cause tried by too few, not sworn, &c., i. 1038.
 ground of challenge discovered, i. 1038.
 discharge, with prisoner's consent, i. 998.

JUSTICE. (See DIVINE LAW — OBSTRUCTING JUSTICE.)*JUSTICE OF THE PEACE, (See JUDICIAL OFFICER — MALFEASANCE.)

- when, commits barratry, ii. 67.
 judgment by, as barring prosecution in higher court, i. 1023, 1029.
 contempts against, ii. 244-246, 265.
 indictable for what malfeasance in office, ii. 972 et seq.

JUSTIFIABLE HOMICIDE, (See DEFENCE OF PERSON AND PROPERTY — EXCUSABLE HOMICIDE — HOMICIDE — SELF-DEFENCE.)

what it is, ii. 618, 619.

KENTUCKY,

boundary line between, and Ohio, i. 150.

KIDNAPPING, (See KIDNAPPING AND FALSE IMPRISONMENT.)

- indictable, i. 553.
 life taken in resisting, i. 868.

KIDNAPPING AND FALSE IMPRISONMENT, (See FALSE IMPRISONMENT — KIDNAPPING.)

General discussion of these offences, ii. 746-756.

- introductory view, ii. 746.
 False imprisonment, ii. 747-749.
 general view of the offence, ii. 747.
 definition, and statement of doctrines, ii. 748.
 is misdemeanor, ii. 749.

Kidnapping, ii. 750-756.

- definition, and general statement of doctrines, ii. 750.
 consent of young children to being kidnapped, ii. 751.
 Illinois and New York statutes, &c., ii. 752, 753.
 other statutory kidnapping, ii. 753.
 custody of child under decree of divorce, ii. 754.
 degree and locality of the crime, ii. 755, 756.

- KING, (See GOVERNMENT.) of England, not punishable, i. 461. subject refusing to aid, against invasion, i. 469.
- LABOR, (See WAGES.) regulating, and compelling men to, i. 453-455.
- LABORERS, (See CONSPIRACY — LABOR — WAGES — WORK.) combinations among, to raise their wages, ii. 189, 230-233.
- LAKES, (See TERRITORIAL LIMITS.) whether, within counties, i. 149.
- LAND, (See REAL ESTATE.)
false representation concerning, a false pretence, ii. 426, 444.
- LARCENY, (See COMPOUND LARCENY — EMBEZZLEMENT — GRAND LARCENY — INTENT — PETIT LARCENY — PRIVATELY — ROBBERY — STEAL.)
how defined, i. 207, 342 ; ii. 758.
intent to steal and trespass must concur in point of time, i. 207.
committed of a thing of smallest value, i. 224.
is a private wrong, i. 232.
not committed when owner consents to the taking, i. 260, 583.
when owner purposely exposes property, i. 262, 263.
property delivered to the thief, i. 263.
how excused by ignorance of law, i. 297.
not committed by careless trespass, i. 320.
must be two intents, i. 342.
how, when food is taken to preserve one's life, i. 349.
when drunkenness excuses, i. 411.
the intent, how expressed in indictment for, i. 426.
from post-office, when committed, i. 440 ; ii. 904, note.
aggravated and statutory, i. 567.
whether committed of chose in action, i. 578 ; ii. 768-770.
whether, by taking use of a thing, i. 579.
requires physical force, not mental, i. 582.
not fraud, i. 583.
parting with property, possession, i. 583, 585.
what makes principal in, i. 654.
accessory before in, i. 676.
divided into grand and petit, i. 679.
how the distinction in this country, i. 679.
attempt to commit, when, though impossible, i. 741, note, 743, 745.
solicitation to commit, indictable, i. 767. indictment as second offence, conviction as first, i. 795.
conviction of, on proof of burglary, i. 792, 796.
less value than charged, i. 799.
grand larceny, conviction of petit, i. 799.
limit to last doctrine, i. 801, 811.
in one State or country, and goods carried into another, i. 137-142.

LARCENY, — continued.

- by negro, punishment of, i. 947.
disqualifies for being a witness, i. 974, 975.
of different articles at same time, indictment and its effect, i. 1061.
conviction in one county, when bars indictment in another, i. 1061.
whether an act can be, and also a cheat, ii. 166.
not, for servant to take master's money from third person, ii. 365.
General discussion of the offence, ii. 757-891.
simple larceny, divided into grand and petit, i. 679 ; ii. 757.
definitions of larceny, ii. 758 and note.
the same discussed, ii. 758, note.
subject incumbered with technical rules, ii. 760.
statutory and at common law, ii. 761.
What property subject of, at the common law, ii. 761-781.
not real estate, or things adhering to it, ii. 762-764, 770.
how of things after being severed from it, ii. 765 and note, 766.
must be of things valuable, ii. 767.
piece of paper, ii. 768.
chose in action, ii. 768-770.
deeds, &c., of real estate, ii. 770.
wild animals, ii. 771-779.
dead human bodies — shroud, &c., ii. 780.
things gotten by wrong — stealing from thief, &c., ii. 781.
What property subject of, under statutes, ii. 782-787.
The ownership of the property, ii. 788-793.
must be owner, ii. 788.
must be another's — in indictment, how laid, ii. 789.
larceny of one's own goods, when, ii. 790, 791.
how, when part-owner, ii. 792.
limit of the doctrine, ii. 793.
The asportation of the property, ii. 794-798.
what removal of the goods, what control, ii. 794, 795.
offence not purged by giving them back, ii. 796.
illustrations showing what asportation necessary, ii. 797.
how, of tiling horse, &c., ii. 797, 806.
The trespass, ii. 799-839.
the doctrine of trespass stated, ii. 799-803.
the kind of force requisite, ii. 804-810.
must be physical — illustrations, ii. 804.
how of domestic animals, &c., ii. 806.
gift extorted by array of force or by threats, ii. 807.
goods obtained by fraud, ii. 808.
illustrations — playing at hiding under the hat, ii. 810.
consent to the taking, ii. 811-822.
no trespass where there is consent, ii. 811.
same, though consent is obtained by fraud, ii. 812.
consent to part with ownership, not mere possession, ii. 813.
illustrations, &c., ii. 813.

LARCENY, — continued.

- otherwise in Tennessee, ii. 814.
- consent on condition precedent, ii. 81b.
- how the last rule applied, ii. 816-822.
- making change, ii. 817.
- difference between civil and criminal jurisprudence here, ii. 818.
- ring-dropping and the like, ii. 819, 820.
- consent given, in order to punish the thief, ii. 821.
  - when consent comes through an agent, ii. 822.
- as concerns the possession of the goods, ii. 823-839.
  - must be from the owner's possession, ii. 823.
  - need not be from the owner's custody, ii. 824.
  - difference between custody and possession, ii. 824 et seq.
  - how determine whether one has custody or possession, ii. 826-839.
  - one having the custody must still commit a trespass, ii. 827.
  - how determine whether he has committed it, ii. 835-839.
  - how under the rule of ultimate destination, ii. 828-832.
  - illustrations, ii. 830-832.
  - special property — quasi ownership, ii. 833.
- The intent, ii. 840-852.
  - must be felonious, ii. 840.
  - no larceny, where a mere careless trespass, ii. 840.
  - to deprive of ownership, not mere possession, ii. 841.
  - a part of the thing, ii. 841 a.
  - whether must be lucri causa, ii. 842-848.
  - where the taking is to secure a debt, ii. 849.
  - food — ignorance of law — carelessness — drunkenness, ii. 850.
  - taking under a claim of right, ii. 851.
  - under usage, ii. 852.
- Particular things and classes of persons, ii. 853-859.
  - by servants, ii. 854-856.
  - by bailees, &c., ii. 857-871.
  - common carriers — drovers, ii. 858-862.
  - hirers of goods, ii. 864, 865.
  - furniture let to lodgers, ii. 866.
  - goods delivered to do work on, ii. 867, 868.
  - animals to keep and feed, ii. 869.
  - warehouse-men, ii. 870.
  - commission-merchants, &c., ii. 871.
  - wives, and receivers from them — adulterers, ii. 872-874.
  - treasure-trove, wreck, sea-weed, &c., ii. 875-877.
  - lost, abandoned, and mislaid goods, ii. 878-883; also, ii. 758, note, par. 17; 838, 875.
- Concluding questions, ii. 884-891.
  - distinction of grand and petit larceny, ii. 884.
  - degree of the crime — punishment, &c., ii. 885.
  - attempts — misprisions, ii. 886, 887.
  - offence, how divisible — second jeopardy, ii. 888, 889.

LARCENY, — continued.

- in what locality indictable, ii. 890, 891.
- LARCENY FROM THE PERSON, (See PICKPOCKET.)
  - the law of, ii. 895-899.
    - "privily, without his knowledge," ii. 895, 896.
    - drunk and asleep, ii. 897.
    - "by stealing from the person," ii. 898.
  - the asportation in, ii. 899.
- LARCENY IN SHOPS,
  - the law of, ii. 900-904.
- LARCENY IN THE DWELLING-HOUSE,
  - the law of, ii. 900-903.
- LAW, (See COMMON LAW — CONSTITUTIONAL LAW — CRIMINAL LAW — DIVINE LAW — FOREIGN LAW — IGNORANCE OF LAW — JURISDICTION — JURISPRUDENCE — LAW OF NATIONS — LEGAL REASONING — LEGAL REASONS — MILITARY AND MARTIAL LAW — SCOTCH LAW.)
  - nature and sources of, i. 1-21.
  - primary and modified, how distinguished, i. 15.
  - into what classes separable, i. 22-29.
  - civil and criminal, how blending, i. 33.
  - not changed by change of government, i. 9, 14, 190.
  - all law not enforced by the courts, i. 10, 11, 16.
  - different meanings of the word, i. 16.
  - may exist without courts, i. 193, 198, 199.
  - cannot be enforced without courts, i. 193.
  - of State and United States in each other's tribunals, i. 181; ii. 1022.
- LAW OF NATIONS, (See CONQUEST — CONSTITUTIONAL LAW — JURISDICTION.)
  - enforced by war, i. 14.
  - as limiting the construction of statutes, i. 115 and note, 124.
  - all nations bound by, i. 124.
  - various principles of, discussed, i. 99-144, 484.

NOTE. — Particular questions on law of nations are discussed also under other titles.

LAWYERS, (See ADVOCATE — MALPRACTICE — PRIVILEGED COMMUNICATIONS.)

- responsibility of, for crime, i. 895.
- conspiracy of, with client, indictable, i. 895.
- how punishable for barratry, ii. 69.
- when, guilty of champerty, ii. 132.
- contempts of court by — disbarring, i. 895; ii. 255 and note.

LEAGUE. (See MARINE LEAGUE.)

LEASE,

- riotous termination of, indictable, i. 537.

LEGAL MAXIMS. (See MAXIMS.)

LEGAL PROCESS, (See COURT — PROCEEDINGS IN COURTS.)

- how, justifies a wrongful act, i. 355.
- abuse of, indictable, i. 588.

- LEGAL REASONING,
how, differs from legislative, i. 277.
- LEGAL REASONS, (See MAXIMS.) inherent in the law, i. 274.
- LEGAL REMEDIES. (See CONCURRENT REMEDIES — COURT — PROCEEDINGS IN COURTS — PROSECUTIONS.)
- LEGAL RIGHTS. (See LAW.)
- LEGISLATIVE BODIES, (See CONSTITUTIONAL LAW — CONTEMPT OF COURT.) are courts of record, ii. 247.
contempts against, how punishable, i. 461-463; ii. 247.
whether pardonable, i. 913.
- LEGISLATIVE PROCEEDINGS, (See LEGISLATIVE BODIES.) publication of, when privileged, ii. 915-917.
- LEGISLATOR, (See LEGISLATIVE BODIES.)
how, punishable for misconduct, i. 461, 462.
- “LETTER.” (See POST LETTER.)
- LETTER CARRIER, (See EMBEZZLEMENT.)
may be a servant in embezzlement, ii. 340. larceny by, ii. 904, note.
- LEVYING WAR. (See TREASON.)
- LEWDNESS, (See ADULTERY — BAWDY-HOUSE — HOUSE OF ILL-FAME — OPEN LEWDNESS.) not indictable to deliver of child a lewd woman, i. 1121.
- LIBEL, (See FALSE AFFIRMATION — FALSEHOOD — LIBEL AND SLANDER — OBSCENE LIBEL — SLANDER — WORDS.) publishing, indictable, i. 540.
why, i. 591, 734.
criminal liability for, when published by servant, i. 221.
whether offence to have, with intent, i. 204.
attempt to publish, indictable, i. 761.
when justifiable on account of mistake of facts, i. 308.
how words of, to be construed, i. 308.
defence by showing the truth of, i. 308, 319.
not defendant's own negligence, i. 319.
on foreign prince or officer, indictable, i. 484.
charge need not be false, i. 591. reason why, indictable, i. 591.
indictment for printing and publishing, conviction publishing, i. 799.
in what local jurisdiction indictable, i. 110.
by agent, the principal out of the country, i. 110.
effect of pardon on action for, i. 917.
- LIBEL AND SLANDER, (See LIBEL — LIBERTY OF SPEECH — OBSCENE LIBEL — PAPERS — SLANDER.)
General discussion of the offences of, ii. 905-949.
introductory views, ii. 905, 906.
Nature and definition of libel, ii. 907-927.
definition, &c., ii. 907, 908.

- LIBEL AND SLANDER, — continued. libels tending to breaches of the peace, ii. 909.
tending to the corruption of public morals, ii. 910.
tending to create discontent toward the government, ii. 911.
to other violations of the criminal law, ii. 912.
limitations and restrictions of doctrines, ii. 913-927.
liberty of the press to be maintained, ii. 913.
privileged communications, ii. 914 et seq.
proceedings in courts, legislative bodies, &c., ii. 915-917.
the truth of the publication as an excuse, ii. 918-920.
how this matter stands in principle, ii. 921.
the intent—publications by servants, &c., ii. 922, 923.
how the libel interpreted, ii. 924.
form of the libel—ironical language, &c., ii. 925.
whether, or how far, must be published, ii. 926, 927.
- The different kinds of libel, ii. 928-944.
libels against public, and private—illustrations, ii. 929-938.
against collective bodies and corporations, ii. 931.
by corporations—individual members, ii. 935.
against official persons, ii. 936, 937. against persons connected with other governments, ii. 938.
libels on the dead, ii. 939, 940.
on our own government, ii. 941, 942.
obscene libels, ii. 943, 944.
Verbal slander, ii. 945-947. (And see SLANDER.)
Concluding questions, ii. 948, 949.
is misdemeanor—the consequences, ii. 948.
attempts—each separate publication a libel, ii. 949.
- LIBERAL INTERPRETATION. (See INTERPRETATION OF STATUTES — STATUTES.)
- LIBERTY,
(See DEFENCE OF PERSON AND PROPERTY.)
preserved by obeying the laws, i. 64, note, par. 12; also, 928.
personal, whether may take life to preserve, i. 868.
- LIBERTY OF SPEECH, (See LIBEL — LIBEL AND SLANDER — SLANDER — WORDS.) not to be impaired by laws against blasphemy, ii. 82.
not to be abridged by the doctrine of conspiracy, ii. 224.
nor by the law of libel, ii. 913, 914.
- LIBERTY OF THE PRESS. (See LIBERTY OF SPEECH.)
- LICENCE,
abuse of, as to trespass, &c., i. 208.
- LICENCE LAWS. (See INTOXICATING LIQUOR.)
- LIE, (See CHEATS — FALSE AFFIRMATION — FALSEHOOD — LIBEL AND SLANDER.) not a false token, in the law of cheats, ii. 145.
- LIFE, (See DEFENCE OF PERSON AND PROPERTY — HOMICIDE — SELF-DEFENCE.)

- LIFE, — continued.
 whether one may prefer own, to another's, i. 843 and note, 845.
 may be taken in defence of limb, i. 866.
 "LIFE OR LIMB,"
 meaning of the words, i. 990.
- LIME-KILN. (See OFFENSIVE TRADES.)
- LIQUOR. (See INTOXICATING LIQUOR.)
- LIVERY STABLE. (See OFFENSIVE TRADES.)
- LOADED ARMS, (See ARMS — DANGEROUS WEAPON — DEADLY WEAPON.) legal meaning of the words, i. 758.
- LOCALITY OF CRIME, (See CRIME — GOVERNMENT — JURISDICTION — TERRITORIAL LIMITS.) general discussion of, as between our country and others, i. 99-154.
 as between United States and States, i. 156-188.
- LODGERS, (See FAMILIES.)
 when rooms of, are separate dwelling-houses, ii. 108.
 whether breaking rooms of, is burglary, ii. 106.
 whether burglary to break their own rooms, ii. 107.
 larceny of furniture by, ii. 866.
- LODGING-HOUSE. (See INN.)
- LONG ISLAND SOUND,
 is in what jurisdiction, i. 148.
- LORD'S DAY, (See CHRISTIANITY — RELIGION.) whether profanation of, indictable at common law, i. 499.
 highway may be repaired on, ii. 1230.
General discussion of offence of not observing, ii. 950-970. principle on which the law rests, ii. 950.
 whether enactments for observance of, are constitutional, ii. 951.
 statutes, how construed, ii. 953-964.
 common labor, ii. 954-958.
 works of necessity and charity, what, ii. 959, 960.
 sale of intoxicating liquors on, ii. 961, 962.
 keep open shop, ii. 963.
 traveller, ii. 964.
 disturbances which amount to nuisances, ii. 965.
 other offences, ii. 966.
 liquor laws, ii. 966, 967.
 civil contracts — judicial proceedings, &c., ii. 968-970.
 further questions, ii. 969, 970.
- LOST GOODS, (See EMBEZZLEMENT — LARCENY.) as to larceny of, ii. 758, note, par. 17; also, 838, 875, 878-883.
- LOTTERIES, (See BETTING — GAMING.) constitutionality of statutes regulating, i. 493.
- LOWER ANIMALS,
 injuries to, how far indictable, i. 594-597.
- LUCRI CAUSA, (See LARCENY.)
 whether, essential in larceny, ii. 842-843.

- LUNACY. (See INSANITY.)
- MAGAZINES. (See DOCKYARDS.)
- MAGISTRATE, (See JUDGE — JUDICIAL OFFICER — JUSTICE OF THE PEACE — MALFEASANCE AND NON-FEASANCE IN OFFICE — OFFICER.)
 how excused by ignorance of law, i. 299.
 disobedience to order of, indictable, i. 240.
 how and when, punishable, i. 460-463 and note.
- MAGNITUDE. (See SMALL THINGS.)
- MAIM — MALMING, (See MAYHEM.)
 meaning of the word, ii. 1005.
- MAINE LAW. (See INTOXICATING LIQUOR.)
- MAINTENANCE. (See CHAMPERTY AND MAINTENANCE.)
- MALFEASANCE AND NON-FEASANCE IN OFFICE, (See CORPORATION — EXTORTION — JUDGE — JUDICIAL OFFICER — MISFEASANCE — OFFICER.)
General discussion of the offence of, ii. 971-982.
 as to justices of the peace, &c., ii. 972 et seq.
 for what malfeasance liable, ii. 973-976.
 whether presumed to know the law — burden of proof, ii. 977.
 sheriffs, constables, &c., ii. 978, 979.
 questions local to particular States, ii. 980-982.
- MALICE — MALICIOUS,
 meaning of the word, i. 429.
 malice express or implied, i. 429.
- MALICE AFORETHOUGHT, (See HOMICIDE.)
 meaning of the words, i. 429.
 in murder what, i. 600; ii. 625, 672, 675-678.
 in mayhem, what, ii. 1006.
- MALICIOUS INJURIES,
 to the person, concerning, ii. 991.
- MALICIOUS MISCHIEF,
 how defined — indictable, i. 568, 569 and note.
 damage to real estate, i. 569, 570, 577.
 how, by injuries to the lower animals, i. 594-597.
 conviction of, on proof of larceny, i. 792.
 done by mistake of law and fact, i. 298.
General discussion of the offence of, ii. 983-1000.
 definition, &c., ii. 983.
 The property, ii. 984-991.
 at common law, against what property, ii. 984, 985.
 under statutes, against what property, ii. 986-990.
 statute of Virginia — Maine — North Carolina, ii. 987-990. injuries to the person, ii. 991.
 The act of mischief, ii. 992-995.
 at common law, ii. 992.
 wife injuring husband's property, ii. 993.
 under statutes, ii. 994, 995.

MALICIOUS MISCHIEF, — continued.

The intent, i. 298; ii. 996-998.

English statutes as in force with us, ii. 999.

Concluding questions, ii. 1000.

is misdemeanor at common law — how under statutes, ii. 1000.

MALICIOUS WOUNDING. (See MAYHEM.)MALPRACTICE, (See CONTEMPT OF COURT — HOMICIDE — LAWYERS — PHYSICIAN.)

of physician, indictable, i. 558.

what, by attorney, indictable, i. 805.

by attorney, a contempt of court, ii. 253.

MANDAMUS,

refusing compliance with, a contempt of court, ii. 256.

MANSLAUGHTER, (See HOMICIDE — MURDER.)

what is, i. 600.

has principals of the second degree, i. 678.

has no accessories before, i. 678.

has accessories after, i. 698.

may be conviction of, on proof of murder, i. 792.

on indictment for murder, i. 795, 796.

otherwise when no jurisdiction in the court, i. 811.

indicted for, convicted of assault and battery, i. 808, 809.

MARINE LEAGUE,

what is, i. 104.

territorial jurisdiction extends, i. 104.

of sea from shore, not in counties, i. 146.

MARINERS. (See MASTER MARINER — WANDERING MARINERS.)MARITIME JURISDICTION, (See HIGH SEAS — JURISDICTION — OCEAN — PIRACY — PORTS.)

what, embraces locally, i. 173.

power of Congress as to, i. 173-176.

MARRIAGE, (See COVERTURE — FORCIBLE MARRIAGE — PROMISE.)

age of consent to, i. 373.

law does not compel, i. 509.

forcible, i. 555.

of pauper, conspiracies to procure, ii. 218.

of infant, &c., conspiracy to procure, ii. 235.

whether promise of, is a false pretence, ii. 422, 445.

false representation of being in condition to marry, ii. 445.

MARRIAGE LAWS. (See COVERTURE.)MARRIED WOMEN. (See COVERTURE — FEME COVERT — WIFE.)MARTIAL LAW, (See GOVERNMENT — MILITARY AND MARTIAL LAW.)

what, and when it may exist, i. 43-68.

MARTINS,

not subjects of larceny, ii. 773.

MARYLAND,

local extent of, i. 150.

MASTER, (See MASTER AND SERVANT — PRINCIPAL AND AGENT — SERVANT.)

when, criminally liable for act of servant, i. 218-222, 316, 317.

inciting servant to steal goods of, i. 767.

may maintain servant in his suits, ii. 128.

killing servant in correction, ii. 683 and note, 684.

right to chastise servant, i. 887; ii. 663.

MASTER AND SERVANT, (See DOMESTIC RELATIONS — MASTER — SERVANT.)

view of the criminal law relating to, i. 887-889.

MASTER MARINER.

chastising seamen, i. 882; ii. 37.

MAXIMS,

"caveat emptor," i. 11.

"de minimis non curat lex," i. 212. (See SMALL THINGS.)

"in jure non remota causa sed proxima spectatur," i. 212.

"cessante ratione legis, cessat ipsa lex," i. 273, 275, 805.

"actus non facit reum nisi mens sit rea," i. 288; ii. 400.

"actus me invito factus, non est meus actus," i. 288.

"ignorantia juris non excusat," i. 295.

"ignorantia facti excusat," i. 301.

"qui facit per alium, facit per se," i. 673, note.

MAYHEM, (See DEFENCE OF PERSON AND PROPERTY — MAIM.)

what it is, i. 259.

not, if in self-defence, i. 257.

request of person injured, no defence, i. 259.

committed on one's self, indictable, i. 259, 513.

taking life in resisting, justifiable, i. 867.

punishment at common law not death, i. 935.

General discussion of the offence of, ii. 1001-1008.

definition of mayhem, &c., stated and discussed, ii. 1001 and note.

old English statutes on the subject, ii. 1002, 1003.

American legislation, ii. 1004.

meaning of some words — statutory interpretation, ii. 1005-1007.

whether, misdemeanor or felony, ii. 1008.

MEETING. (See DISORDERLY HOUSE — DISTURBING MEETINGS — PUBLIC MEETINGS — THEATRE — UNLAWFUL ASSEMBLY.)

"MEMBER,"

what is, in mayhem, ii. 1007.

MENTAL FORCE,

what is, i. 546.

physical injuries produced by, i. 560-564.

directed against property rights, i. 581 et seq.

MENTAL INCAPACITY. (See INSANITY — RAPE.)MERGER, (See OFFENCES AS INCLUDED IN ONE ANOTHER.)

whether conspiracy to commit merges in felony committed, i. 814.

the doctrine of, of offence, i. 780-790, 804-815.

- MILITARY, (See WANDERING MARINERS AND SOLDIERS.) muster of, when contempt of court, ii. 252.
- MILITARY AND MARTIAL LAW, (See GOVERNMENT—MARTIAL LAW.) general view of, i. 43-68.
- MILLED MONEY, (See COUNTERFEITING.)
meaning of the words, ii. 293.
- MINISTER. (See EMBASSADOR.)
- MINISTERIAL OFFICERS, (See MAGISTRATE—JUSTICE OF PEACE.)
contempts against, ii. 245, 246.
- MINORS. (See INFANCY.)
- MISADVENTURE, (See ACCIDENT—CARELESSNESS—NEGLECT.) in the law of homicide, what, ii. 620.
- MISCHIEF. (See MALICIOUS MISCHIEF.)
- MISDEMEANOR, (See FELONY—TREASON.)
what is, i. 603, 605, 623, 624.
encouraging, not always indictable, i. 226.
right of officer to arrest one who has committed, i. 441.
no distinction between principals of first and second degree, i. 656.
in the lighter, persons far from the act not indictable, i. 657.
how no accessories in, i. 686.
accessory before the fact in, i. 685-689.
accessories after the fact in, i. 707, 708.
attempt to commit, indictable, i. 759, 768.
every indictable attempt is, i. 772. same act is not, and also felony, i. 699, 787.
created by statute out of felony, ceases to be felony, i. 699.
where the proof shows a felony, i. 787-790, 804.
whether one charged with, has advantages at the trial, i. 804-807.
whether conviction of, on good indictment for felony, i. 804 et seq.
on bad indictment for felony, i. 810.
committed by means of a felony, how regarded, i. 815.
how punished, i. 940-945; ii. 240.
not twice in jeopardy, whether extends to, i. 990, 991.
how differs from felony, in a case of wrong conviction, i. 1001, 1002.
acquittal or conviction of, then indictment for felony, i. 1055, 1058.
homicide in committing, murder or manslaughter, ii. 691-693.

NOTE. — As to what offences are misdemeanor, see the several titles.

- MISFEASANCE, (See MALFEASANCE AND NON-FEASANCE IN OFFICE.) not different in principle from non-feasance, i. 217, 420.
- MISPRISION, meaning of, and general view of law of, i. 604, 624, 716-722.
doctrine of, not applicable to lowest offences, i. 247.
what — indictable, i. 267, 276.
of felony — of treason, what, i. 717.
under act of Congress, i. 703, 722.

- MISPRISION, — continued.
limit of duty as to, i. 721.
anciently, to receive stolen goods knowing them stolen, i. 699.
flying from assault is, i. 851.
of felony, lawyer's liability for, i. 895.
- MISREADING A WRITING, (See CHEATS—FORGERY.) obtaining signature by, whether a common-law cheat, ii. 156.
how, as a forgery, ii. 589-591.
- MISTAKE, (See IGNORANCE OF FACT—IGNORANCE OF LAW.) avoids forfeiture, when, i. 824.
- MONEY, (See MILLED MONEY.)
what is, ii. 785.
- MONKEYS,
not subjects of larceny, ii. 773.
- MONOMANIA. (See INSANITY.)
- MORALS. (See PUBLIC MORALS.)
- MOUNTEBANK'S STAGE, (See PUBLIC SHOW.) erection of, indictable, i. 504.
- MULATTO,
construction of Tennessee statute against cohabiting with, i. 659.
- MUNICIPAL CORPORATION, (See CORPORATION.) effect of sentence in court of, as barring prosecution, i. 1029.
- MUNICIPAL ELECTION,
personating voter and voting at, i. 471.
- MURDER, (See DUELLING—HOMICIDE—MALICE AFORETHOUGHT—MANSLAUGHTER.) whether marital coercion excuses, i. 358, 361.
malice in, how described in the indictment, i. 429.
as to premeditation, technical distinctions, i. 600.
on indictment for, conviction of manslaughter, i. 795.
otherwise, where no jurisdiction in the court, i. 811.
may be convicted in either degree, i. 797.
whether the act of, can be also an assault, i. 788.
as to the provocation, i. 873.
whether includes assault, ii. 56.
duelling is, in parties and seconds, ii. 311.
- MUSTERING SOLDIERS, (See CONTEMPT OF COURT.) within hearing of court, contempt, ii. 252.
- MUTE. (See STANDING MUTE.)
- NAME, (See CRIMES—FICTITIOUS NAME.)
how given to offences, i. 776-779.
- NATURAL JUSTICE. (See DIVINE LAW.)
- NAVIGABLE RIVERS, (See RIVER—NUISANCE.) obstruction of, injuries to, indictable, i. 531.
- NAVIGABLE WATERS, (See WAY.) jurisdiction over, i. 108, 174-176.

- NAVIGATION,
unskilful or careless, causing death, ii. 667, 669.
- NECESSITY,
what, takes away criminal quality from act, i. 53, 54, 346-355.
may qualify provisions of habeas corpus act, i. 354.
prevents forfeiture, i. 824.
- NEGATIVE STATUTES. (See STATUTES.)
- NEGLECT, (See ACCIDENT — CARELESENNESS — CONTRIBUTORY NEGLIGENCE.)
may create criminal liability, i. 314, 433.
homicide resulting from, ii. 667, 669.
- NEGRO, (See EMANCIPATION — FREE NEGROES — GUARANTY.) statute against taking, in steamboats without free papers, i. 307.
construction of statute against cohabiting with, i. 659. right of, to freedom and vote in seceded States, i. 169, 170.
- NEWS. (See FALSE NEWS.)
- NEW TRIAL, (See ACQUITTAL — CONVICTION — DEFECTIVE VERDICT — JEOPARDY — VERDICT.) cannot be granted the prosecutor, i. 992, 1026.
how, in cases of fraud, i. 1008.
granted on prayer of defendant, i. 1002, 1003, 1008. effect, where conviction of part, i. 1006, 1007.
- NEW YORK,
where the county lines run, i. 149.
- NEW YORK HARBOR,
local jurisdiction over, i. 148.
- NIGHT, (See DAYTIME — LARCENY.)
in law, what is, ii. 101.
- NIGHT-WALKING,
offence of, i. 501 and note.
- NO SECOND PROSECUTION. (See JEOPARDY.)
- NOISES, (See NUISANCE.)
in public places, indictable, i. 531. whereby a woman miscarries, i. 537.
- NOL. PROS., (See INDICTMENT — JEOPARDY — QUASHING.)
meaning of the term, i. 1014.
right of, and its effect, i. 1006, 1014, 1016, 1017, 1021.
- NON COMPOS MENTIS. (See INSANITY.)
- NON-CONFORMITY,
to the church, indictable in England, i. 496.
- NON-FEASANCE, (See CORPORATION — MISFEASANCE.) same in principle as misfeasance, i. 420.
- NOSE. (See SLITTING THE NOSTRILS.)
- NOTE. (See BANK-NOTE — PROMISSORY NOTE.)
- NOXIOUS TRADES, (See OFFENSIVE TRADES — NUISANCE — TRADE.)
indictable, i. 491, 531, 1138, 1139.
- NUISANCE, (See BARRATRY — CIVIL SUIT — CRIMINAL PROSECUTIONS. — TIPPLING-HOUSE — WAY, &c.)

NUISANCE, — continued.

- illustrations of — indictable, i. 531.
may be too small to be indictable, i. 227.
indictable to deaden a tree on public lands, i. 236.
how many it must affect, i. 243, 244, 1078.
what damage from a public, foundation for civil suit, i. 265.
created by neglect, indictable, i. 316, 433.
created by servant, i. 316, 317, 1075.
when corporation indictable for, i. 419-422.
house kept in filthy state, &c., i. 490; abatable, i. 490.
carrying on noxious trade, i. 491, 531, 1138-1144.
in obstructing rivers, where navigation improved by it, i. 341.
same of a road — wharf, &c., i. 341.
in uttering forged bills, though payment provided for, i. 341.
conviction of, when more proved than charged, i. 792.
abatable, and forfeitures without criminal conviction, i. 816-835.
liable to abatement, and how, i. 821, 828, 1080, 1081.
being erected, not abatable till complete nuisance, i. 823.
abatement, not punishment for crime, i. 829.
may be abated though pardoned, i. 829.
in burning one's own house, ii. 21.
of conspiring to create, ii. 227.
general doctrine of nuisance, i. 1071-1082.
- Particular nuisances; namely,
bawdy-house, i. 1083-1096.
combustible articles, i. 1097-1100.
common scold, i. 1101-1105. disorderly house, i. 1106-1121.
eavesdropping, i. 1122-1124. exposure of person, i. 1125-1134. gaming house, i. 1135-1137. offensive trades, i. 1138-1144.
public shows, i. 1145-1149. wooden buildings and the like, i. 1150, 1151.
- OATH, (See CORPORAL OATH — SOLEMN OATH.)
what, and forms of, ii. 1018.
- “OBLIGATION,” (See FORGERY.)
meaning of the word, ii. 566.
- OBSCENE LIBEL, (See LIBEL — LIBEL AND SLANDER.) prints and writings, indictable, i. 309, 500; ii. 943.
good motives of, no justification, i. 309.
attempt to publish, indictable, i. 761.
to be indictable, how far need be public, i. 1129.
not allowed in United States mails, ii. 944.
- OBSCENE WORDS, (See SLANDER.)
indictable, i. 500.

OBSTRUCTING GOVERNMENT,
 general view of the offence of, ii. 1009-1013.

OBSTRUCTING JUSTICE, (See PERJURY — RESISTING OFFICER — WITNESS.)
 what, — indictable, i. 468.
 general view of the offence of, ii. 1009-1013.

OBSTRUCTING PROCESS. (See RESISTING OFFICER.)

OBSTRUCTING RIVER. (See NAVIGABLE RIVERS — NUISANCE — WAY.)

OCEAN, (See HIGH SEAS — MARITIME JURISDICTION — PIRACY.) no territorial jurisdiction over, i. 103.
 except to a marine league from shore, i. 104, 105.
 blow on, and death on land, i. 112-116, 143.
 crimes committed on, i. 112, 117, 118.
 larceny on, and goods taken to land, i. 141.
 offences on, how punished, i. 176.

OFFENCE, (See CRIME — JEOPARDY — SMALL THINGS.) laws punishing subsequent, more heavily than first, i. 959-965.

OFFENCES, (See PENALTIES — PARDON — SPECIFIC OFFENCES.) houses for the commission of, i. 1119-1121.

OFFENCES AS INCLUDED WITHIN ONE ANOTHER, (See ATTEMPT — CRIMES — JEOPARDY — MERGER.) discussed, i. 774-785, 791-815.
 as to murder, &c., i. 779.
 crimes included under felony, how divisible, i. 793.
 as to the allegation, i. 794.
 no conviction when want of jurisdiction, i. 811.
 within what, is assault, ii. 56.
 how cheats, with other offences, ii. 165.
 how as to larceny and embezzlement, ii. 323, 365.
 in larceny, how, ii. 888, 889.

OFFENSIVE TRADES, (See NOXIOUS TRADES — NUISANCE — TRADE.)
 when carrying on, indictable, i. 531, 1138-1144.

OFFERING GIFTS. (See ATTEMPT — BRIBERY.)

OFFICE, (See BRIBERY — MALFEASANCE AND NON-FEASANCE IN OFFICE — OFFICER.) public, refusal to accept, indictable, i. 246, 458.
 what the office must be, i. 246.
 usurping an, i. 468 and note.
 taking or giving reward for, indictable, i. 471.
 forfeited by conviction for felony, i. 971.
 conspiracy to procure appointment to, ii. 222, 223.

OFFICER, (See ARREST — BRIBERY — CONSTABLE — CORONER — EXTORTION — FALSE PERSONATING — JUDICIAL OFFICER — JUSTICE OF THE PEACE — MALFEASANCE AND NON-FEASANCE — OTHER OFFICER — PERSONATING — PRISON BREACH — RESISTING OFFICER — SHERIFF — STREET WALKER, &c.) indictable for negligent escape, i. 218, 316, 321.

OFFICER, — continued.
 indictable for voluntary escape, i. 321.
 for not serving process, &c., i. 240.
 how excused by ignorance of law, i. 299.
 when, may kill one resisting arrest, i. 441.
 indictable for breach of duty, and when, i. 459-464.
de jure and de facto, distinction of, i. 464. principles connected with this distinction, i. 464.
 personating an, indictable, i. 468, 587.
 of court, preventing attendance of, indictable, i. 488.
 refusing to assist an, i. 469.
 slandering, assaulting, &c., an, i. 470.
 assaults on, ii. 50 and note, 51.
 contempts against, ii. 246-248.
 refusing obedience, a contempt of court, ii. 255.
de facto, can commit extortion, ii. 392. demanding fees in advance, &c., extortion, ii. 394-400.
 too large a fee, ii. 399.
 fee taken by, under mistake of fact, ii. 400.
 in murder by, beheading convict instead of hanging him, ii. 631 to suppress riots, affrays, &c., ii. 653, 655.
 of justice, taking life in obedience to law, ii. 644.

OFFICIAL MISCONDUCT. (See MALFEASANCE AND NON-FEASANCE IN OFFICE — OFFICER, &c.)

OHIO,
 the common law in, as to crimes, i. 35, 37.
 boundary line between, and Kentucky, i. 150.

OMISSION, (See PERJURY.) act of, same in principle as commission, i. 217, 420.
 homicide caused by, whether indictable, i. 217.
 in testimony, whether perjury, ii. 1039.

OPEN LEWDNESS, (See BAWDY HOUSE — EXPOSURE OF PERSON — LEWDNESS.) how indictable at common law, i. 500.

OPINIONS OF WITNESSES, (See EVIDENCE — PERJURY — WITNESS.) whether perjury is assignable of, ii. 1040.

“OR,” (See INTERPRETATION OF STATUTES.)
 effect of the word, in a statute, i. 941.
 form of indictment on statute, i. 785.

“ORDER,” (See PUBLIC ORDER — MAGISTRATE.)
 meaning of the word, ii. 560, 785.

“OTHER OFFICER,” (See OFFICER.)
 meaning of the words, ii. 350.

OUTHOUSE, (See ARSON — DWELLING-HOUSE.) burning dwelling-house by setting fire to, i. 313.

OUTLAWRY, proceeding of, not in use in this country, i. 967.

- OUTLINES OF TECHNICAL DIVISIONS. (See CRIMES — DIAGRAM OF CRIME.)
- OVERT ACT, (See CONSPIRACY — TREASON.) necessary, under statutes, in conspiracy, i. 432; ii. 192.
 in treason, ii. 1214, 1231-1234.
- OWLING,
 what, whether indictable, i. 517.
- OXEN,
 are subjects of larceny, ii. 774.
- OYSTERS,
 when subjects of larceny, ii. 773, 775.
- PAPERS, (See COURT — LIBEL AND SLANDER.) circulating, concerning the merits of a cause, indictable, i. 468.
- PARDON, (See CONTEMPT OF COURT — CORRUPTION OF BLOOD — FORFEITURE — PENAL ACTION — PENALTIES — PUNISHMENT.) of homicide before the death, i. 113, note.
 of principal, how affects accessory, i. 668.
 of nuisance, it is still abatable, i. 829.
 of one offence, effect on sentence for another, i. 953.
 of felony, in England, when conviction wrong, i. 1001.
General discussion of, i. 897-926.
 introductory view, i. 897.
 definition stated and discussed, i. 898 and note.
 by what power granted, i. 899-901.
 by legislative act, i. 900, 901.
 how far the English law prevails with us, i. 902.
 no pardon till offence committed, i. 903, 904.
 whether, before conviction, i. 903, 904.
 void, for what fraud, omissions, &c., i. 905, 906.
 void if not delivered and accepted, i. 907.
 construction of — promise, not pardon, i. 908.
 what wrongs may be pardoned, i. 909.
 penal actions — fines — forfeitures — private rights, i. 910, 911.
 when the right vests — money paid over to the State, i. 911.
 as to impeachments and contempts, i. 912, 913.
 conditional and partial, — operation not abridged, i. 914.
 illustrations of conditions, i. 915. effect of condition violated, i. 915.
 direct effect of pardon, i. 916.
 incapacity to be a witness, &c., — slander, i. 917.
 corruption of blood — statutory consequences of crime, i. 918.
 some principles to regulate the granting of, i. 921-926.
 wrongful granting of, impeachable, i. 925, 926.
- PARENT, (See CHILD — CHILDREN — PARENT AND CHILD.) may maintain child in his suits, ii. 128.
 may chastise child — how, i. 881; ii. 620, 656, 663, 683.

- PARENT, — continued.
 causing death of child by neglect, ii. 660, 686, 690.
 killing one committing sodomy with child, ii. 703.
- PARENT AND CHILD, (See CHILD — CHILDREN — DOMESTIC RELATIONS — PARENT.)
 general view of the criminal law relating to, i. 880-884.
- PARISHES, (See WAY.)
 indictable, for non-repair of public ways, i. 419.
- PARROTS,
 not subjects of larceny, ii. 773.
- PARTICEPS CRIMINIS. (See CLEAN HANDS — CONSPIRACY.)
- PARTRIDGES,
 when subjects of larceny, ii. 773, 779.
- PARTY, (See JEOPARDY — NEW TRIAL.)
 trial broken off by sickness of, i. 1032.
- “PASS,” (See COUNTERFEIT MONEY — UTTER.)
 meaning of the word, ii. 288, 608.
- PASSION, (See HOMICIDE — MANSLAUGHTER — MURDER.) effect of, in reducing a homicide to manslaughter, ii. 697-718.
- PASSPORTS, violations of, indictable, i. 484.
- PAUPERS,
 English laws concerning, not received in this country, i. 508.
 conspiracies to change settlement of, ii. 218.
- PEACE, (See BONDS FOR THE PEACE — BREACHES OF THE PEACE — FORCIBLE ENTRY AND DETAINER, &c.) breaches of, indictable, i. 537, 539, 548, 591.
 libels tend to breach of, i. 734.
 sureties for, part of the sentence for misdemeanor, i. 945.
- PEACOCKS,
 are subjects of larceny, ii. 774.
- “PECULIAR PEOPLE,” homicide through neglect of, to employ physician, i. 305, note.
- PENAL ACTION, (See PARDON — PENALTIES.) whether wife liable in — how, of husband, i. 363-366.
 whether compounding, indictable, i. 712.
 judgment in, what, i. 956, 957.
 laws against twice in jeopardy do not extend to, i. 900.
 may be pardoned, i. 909-911.
- PENAL STATUTES,
 when ex post facto, i. 279.
- PENALTIES, (See OFFENCES — PARDON — PUNISHMENT.)
 several, may be inflicted for same offence, i. 1067.
 and in separate suits, i. 1067.
- PENDENCY, (See PROCEEDINGS IN COURTS — QUASHING.) of proceedings, no bar to fresh ones, i. 1014.
- PEOPLE OF COLOR. (See NEGROES.)
- PER INFORTUNIUM. (See MISADVENTURE.)

PERJURY, (See AFFIDAVIT — OMISSION — OPINIONS OF WITNESSES — SUBORNATION OF PERJURY — WITNESS.) and subornation of perjury, indictable, i. 468; why, i. 539, 734.
 a species of attempt, i. 437.
 committed, though the testimony believed false is really true, i. 437.
 whether, committed by a mere reckless swearing, i. 320.
 when not committed by a bankrupt swearing to his schedule, i. 298.
 producing conviction in a capital case, how viewed, i. 564.
 punishment of, i. 942.
 disqualifies to be a witness, i. 974, 975.
General discussion of the offence of, ii. 1014–1056.
 definitions, ii. 1015 and note.
 The kind of oath, and tribunal before which taken, ii. 1017–1029.
 the general doctrine, ii. 1017.
 form of the oath, ii. 1018 and note.
 how witness brought into court, immaterial, ii. 1019.
 party swearing in his own behalf, ii. 1019.
 oath to be administered by one having authority, ii. 1020, 1030.
 illustrations, and who has authority, ii. 1020–1023.
 as between the United States and States, &c., ii. 1022, 1023. instances of false oaths being, ii. 1024.
 Hawkins's statement, ii. 1025.
 must be in a course of justice, ii. 1026.
 illustrations, ii. 1026, 1027.
 extra-judicial oaths, ii. 1027.
 cause must be properly in court, ii. 1028.
 how, of defective proceedings, ii. 1028.
 how, of false affidavits, ii. 1029.
 The question of materiality to the issue, ii. 1030–1042.
 mere promissory oath no, i. 1032.
 evidence merely affecting credibility of witness, i. 1035.
 how, as to omission, i. 1039.
 The testimony as being false, ii. 1043, 1044.
 general view, ii. 1043.
 contradictory statements, ii. 1044.
 The intent, whether carelessness, &c., sufficient, ii. 1045–1048
 English statutes as common law here, ii. 1049, 1050.
 American statutes, ii. 1051–1053.
 Concluding questions, ii. 1054–1056.
 degree of the crime — punishment, ii. 1054.
 attempts, ii. 1055.
 subornation of, ii. 1056.
“PERSON.” (See DEFENCE OF PERSON AND PROPERTY — EXPOSURE OF PERSON — INDIVIDUAL — SELF-DEFENCE.)
“PERSONAL GOODS,” (See DEFENCE OF PERSON AND PROPERTY — EMBEZZLEMENT — GOODS AND CHATTELS.)
 meaning of the words, ii. 785.

PERSONAL PROPERTY, (See MALICIOUS MISCHIEF.)
 meaning of the words, ii. 785.
 as the subject of malicious mischief, i. 569.
“PERSONATING,” (See FALSE PERSONATING — FALSE PRETENCES — OFFICER.) whether person must be living — have lived, i. 758.
PERSUADING TO ENLIST. (See RECRUITING SOLDIERS.)
PETIT LARCENY, (See GRAND LARCENY — LARCENY.)
 what, is, i. 679.
 felony — punishment not death, i. 679, 935.
 no accessories, i. 680.
 accessory after, not punishable, i. 680.
 whipping for, i. 942.
 whether, disqualifies to be a witness, i. 974, 975.
 distinction between, and grand larceny, ii. 884. prison breach on imprisonment for, ii. 1084.
PETIT TREASON, (See TREASON.)
 what — unknown in this country, i. 631, 779.
 how, as to accessories, i. 686.
PHEASANTS,
 when, subjects of larceny, ii. 773, 779.
PHYSICAL ELEMENTS, (See PHYSICAL FORCE.) injuries produced by means of, indictable, i. 557, 558.
PHYSICAL FORCE, (See ASSAULT — FORCE — MENTAL FORCE.)
 what is, i. 546.
 all injuries to the person by, indictable, i. 548, 556.
 directed against property rights, i. 574 et seq.
PHYSICIAN, (See MALPRACTICE.) when, indictable for homicide of patient, i. 217, 314; ii. 664, 685.
 for malpractice, i. 558, 896.
 having carnal intercourse with patient, ii. 36.
PICKPOCKET, (See LARCENY — LARCENY FROM THE PERSON.) whether there must be any thing in the pocket, i. 741, 743, 744.
PIGEONS,
 when, subjects of larceny, ii. 773, 779.
PILLORY,
 standing in, as a punishment, i. 942, 943.
PIRACY, (See HIGH SEAS — OCEAN — PIRATICAL AGGRESSIONS.) common right of nations to punish, i. 120. capture of vessel supposed, through mistake, to be piratical, i. 306.
 conviction in one country bars prosecution in another, i. 935.
General discussion of the law of, ii. 1057–1063.
 against what law the offence of, ii. 1057.
 defined and explained, ii. 1058 and note.
 by whom and against what, ii. 1059.
 under law of nations in United States, ii. 1060.
 authorities, ii. 1061; statutes, ii. 1062.
 general views, &c., ii. 1062, 1063.

- PIRATICAL AGGRESSIONS, (See PIRACY.)
when forfeiture follows, i. 826.
- PLAINTIFFS,
must be free from blame, i. 11.
entitled to complain, i. 11.
- PLEA -- PLEAD,
meaning of, i. 1014.
without plea, no jeopardy barring second prosecution, i. 1029 a
- POISON, (See ADMINISTERING POISON -- ATTEMPT.) who held as principal in administering, i. 651. no attempt, when substance not poisonous, i. 756.
whether, must be in a form capable of poisoning, i. 758.
- POLECATS,
not subjects of larceny, ii. 773.
- POLITICAL LIBELS,
law of, ii. 937, note.
- POLITICAL PRISONER, (See PRISONER OF WAR.) meaning of the term, i. 64, note.
- POLYGAMY,
whether, indictable, i. 502.
- POPULATION,
and growth of, how the law protects, i. 509-513, 515, 516.
- PORTS, (See JURISDICTION -- MARITIME JURISDICTION.) of foreign countries, crimes committed in vessels within, i. 117.
- POSSESSION, (See CUSTODY -- LARCENY.) with intent to commit crime, whether indictable, i. 204.
is evidence of procuring, i. 204. difference between, and custody, ii. 824 et seq.
- POST LETTER, (See EMBEZZLEMENT -- LETTER CARRIER.) meaning of the words, ii. 785, 804, note.
- POSTAL OFFENCES,
stated and discussed, ii. 904, note.
- POST-OFFICE,
what is a, ii. 904, note.
- POWDER MAGAZINE, (See NUISANCE.) when, an indictable nuisance, i. 1098.
- "PREMEDITATED DESIGN," words, in statutes against mayhem, ii. 1006.
- PRESS. (See LIBEL -- LIBEL AND SLANDER -- LIBERTY OF SPEECH -- OBSCENE LIBEL -- PUBLISHER.)
- PRESUMPTIONS,
what, as to "malice aforethought," ii. 673 a, 673 b.
- PRETENCES, FALSE. (See CHEATS -- FALSE PRETENCES.)
- PRETENDED TITLES, (See TITLE.)
general discussion of the offence of buying and selling, ii. 136-140.
(See CHAMPERTY AND MAINTENANCE.)
- PRINCIPAL, (See PRINCIPAL AND ACCESSORY -- PRINCIPAL AND AGENT.) in crime, who is, i. 604, 675, 676.

- PRINCIPAL, -- continued.
general view of the law concerning, i. 648-659.
where several persons commit distinct component acts, i. 650.
need not be present, i. 651.
except constructively, i. 653.
may be also accessory, i. 664.
one indicted as, not convicted as accessory, i. 803.
- PRINCIPAL AND ACCESSORY, (See ACCESSORY -- PRINCIPAL.) distinction of, i. 604.
conviction of the one as evidence against the other, i. 669.
- PRINCIPAL AND AGENT, (See AGENT -- MASTER -- SERVANT.) employer of another to commit crime, guilty, i. 631.
varying from principal's orders, i. 636-641.
criminal law as to, in general, i. 892.
- PRINT. (See OBSCENE LIBEL -- PRESS -- PUBLISHER.)
- PRISON BREACH, (See PRISON BREACH, RESCUE, AND ESCAPE.)
indictable, i. 466; how far wife liable who assists husband in, i. 359.
assisting in, whether makes accessory after, i. 695-697.
- PRISON BREACH, RESCUE, AND ESCAPE, (See BREAKING -- ESCAPE -- PRISON BREACH -- RESCUE.)
General discussion of these offences, ii. 1064-1106.
definitions, ii. 1065.
viewed either as substantive offences or accessorial, ii. 1066.
These several offences viewed as accessorial, ii. 1068, 1069.
The substantive offence of prison breach, ii. 1070-1084.
ancient common law, and 1 Edw. 2, stat. 2, ii. 1070.
this statute common law with us -- its effect, ii. 1070.
what is a breaking, ii. 1071, 1072, 1075 et seq.
the imprisonment must be for crime, ii. 1072.
assisting, how in principle, ii. 1073.
must not be unlawful, ii. 1074.
some general views -- quotation from Gabbett, ii. 1075 et seq.
punishment, ii. 1105.
Gabbett's definition, &c., of prison breach, ii. 1076.
further views by Gabbett, ii. 1077-1083.
where the imprisonment is for petit larceny, ii. 1084.
The substantive offence of rescue, ii. 1085-1091.
The substantive offence of escape, ii. 1092-1106.
general views, ii. 1092.
expositions from Gabbett, ii. 1093-1102. escape by the prisoner himself, ii. 1103, 1104.
English and American statutes, ii. 1106.
- PRISONER OF WAR, (See HABEAS CORPUS -- POLITICAL PRISONER -- STATE PRISONER.) meaning of the term, i. 63, note, 64, note.
cannot be released on habeas corpus, i. 63 and note.
- PRIVATEER, (See PIRACY.) aggressing on nation not commissioned against, i. 131.

- PRIVATEER, — continued.
 belonging to an unrecognized belligerent, ii. 1057, note, 1058, 1059.
- “PRIVATELY,”
 meaning of the word, ii. 896.
- PRIVATE RIGHTS. (See VESTED RIGHTS.)
- PRIVATE SATISFACTION, (See COMPOUNDING CRIME.)
 when, may be taken of the criminal, i. 713 and note.
 effect of agreement to forbear prosecution, i. 714.
- PRIVATE WAY, (See WAY.) obstruction of, not indictable, i. 245.
- PRIVILEGED COMMUNICATIONS, (See LAWYERS — LIBEL AND SLANDER.) as between counsel and client, i. 895.
 what and how, in law of libel, ii. 914.
- PRIZE FIGHT, (See AFFRAY — FIGHTING.)
 indictable, i. 535.
 persons present countenancing, indictable, i. 632, 658 ; ii. 85.
- PROCEEDINGS. (See LEGISLATIVE PROCEEDINGS — PENDENCY — PROSECUTION.)
- PROCEEDINGS IN COURTS, publication of, when a contempt, ii. 259.
 when publication of, privileged, ii. 915-917.
- PROCEDURE, (See COURT.)
 In United States courts, how regulated, i. 194.
- PROCURER, (See ACCESSORY — NUISANCE — PRINCIPAL AND ACCESSORY.) of a statutory crime, guilty as the doer, i. 604.
- PROFANE SWEARING, (See BLASPHEMY AND PROFANENESS.) whether, indictable, i. 498 ; ii. 79.
- PROMISE, (See MARRIAGE.)
 false, not a false pretence, ii. 419.
- PROMISSORY NOTE, (See FORGERY — LARCENY.)
 what is, ii. 785, 787.
 whether, subject of larceny, i. 578 ; ii. 768, 785.
 whether, a token in the law of cheat, ii. 157.
 what is not a larceny of a, ii. 787.
- PROPERTY, (See DEFENCE OF PERSON AND PROPERTY — DEFENCE OF PROPERTY — FORFEITURE — PERSONAL PROPERTY.) meaning of the word, ii. 357 a.
 men do as they will with their own, i. 514, 576.
 injuries to, by physical force, i. 575 et seq.
 by mental and moral force, i. 531 et seq.
 its relations to crime, i. 816-835.
- PROPHECIES,
 false and pretended, whether indictable, i. 497.
- PROSECUTIONS, (See JEOPARDY — PROCEEDINGS — SUIT — THREAT TO INDICT.) several, for one crime, i. 1067-1069.

- PROTECTION, (See GOVERNMENT — INDIVIDUAL — PUBLIC CONVENIENCE — PUBLIC EDUCATION — PUBLIC HEALTH — PUBLIC MORALS — PUBLIC ORDER — PUBLIC REVENUE — PUBLIC SAFETY — PUBLIC TRANQUILLITY — PUBLIC WEALTH.)
Discussion of the, given the several interests of society, i. 450-597.
- PROVISIONS. (See FOOD — UNWHOLESOME FOOD.)
- PUBERTY, (See RAPE.) legal age of, i. 373, 551 ; ii. 1117, 1118.
- PUBLIC,
 how the criminal law protects the, i. 450-543.
 whether token must be, in cheat, ii. 157.
 as to public cheats, ii. 161-164.
- PUBLIC CONVENIENCE,
 how the law protects, i. 530-532.
- PUBLIC CONVEYANCES,
 homicide from negligence in running, ii. 662 a.
- PUBLIC DUTY,
 all disobedience of, indictable, i. 239.
- PUBLIC EDUCATION,
 how the law regards, i. 507, 508.
- PUBLIC GAMING-HOUSE. (See GAMING-HOUSES.)
- PUBLIC HEALTH,
 whatever tends to injure, indictable, i. 489-494.
- PUBLIC HOUSE. (See INN.)
- PUBLIC INDECENCY, (See EXPOSURE OF PERSON.)
 what — indictable under a statute, i. 1134.
- PUBLIC MEETINGS. (See DISTURBING MEETINGS.)
- PUBLIC MORALS,
 every act which impairs, indictable, i. 500.
 protected by the criminal law, i. 501-506.
- PUBLIC NUISANCE. (See NUISANCE.)
- PUBLIC ORDER,
 how the law protects, i. 533-543.
- “PUBLIC PLACE,”
 meaning of the words, i. 1128 ; ii. 2.
- “PUBLIC PROPERTY,”
 meaning of the words, ii. 986.
- PUBLIC REVENUE, (See GOVERNMENT — REVENUE LAWS.) concern of the general government, views of, i. 486-488.
 sources of, i. 486.
- PUBLIC SAFETY,
 how the law protects, i. 530-532.
- PUBLIC SHOW, (See NUISANCE — OBSCENE LIBEL.)
 when, indictable, i. 504.
General discussion of the offence of, i. 1145-1149.
 general doctrine, i. 1145.
 New York statute, i. 1147.
 Massachusetts statute, i. 1148.

- PUBLIC SHOW, — continued.
Vermont statute, i. 1149.
- PUBLIC SQUARES, (See WAY.)
obstructions of, injuries to, neglect to repair, indictable, i. 531.
- PUBLIC TRANQUILLITY,
how the law protects, i. 533-543.
- PUBLIC WAY, (See NAVIGABLE RIVERS — NUISANCE — PRIVATE WAY — WAY.)
- PUBLIC WEALTH,
how the law protects, i. 509, 514, 517-529.
- PUBLIC WORSHIP, (See DISTURBING MEETINGS.)
- PUBLIC WRONGS, (See PUBLIC.)
when private injuries are indictable as, i. 232, 233.
- PUBLICATION, (See COURT.)
- PUBLISHER, (See LIBEL AND SLANDER.) of newspaper, liable criminally for its contents, i. 221.
- "PUNCHEON,"
meaning of the word, ii. 294.
- PUNISHMENT, (See JEOPARDY — OFFENCE — PARDON — PENALTIES.) the object of, i. 210.
where statute unconstitutional, as increasing the, i. 279.
statute not providing, to disobey still indictable, i. 237, 238.
so civil injury suable, i. 237.
taken away by pardon, i. 916.
what concerns the, must be alleged in the indictment, ii. 52.
- General discussion of the*, i. 927-958.
Introductory view, i. 927-932.
sentence to unauthorized, erroneous, i. 930-932.
defendant taking advantage of error in his favor in, i. 930-932.
punishment in this country generally by statute, i. 933.
province of court and jury as to the, i. 934.
The punishment of felony — benefit of clergy, i. 935-939.
at common law, usually death — exceptions, i. 935.
benefit of clergy, i. 936-938.
punishment, what in this country, i. 939.
- Punishment generally and of misdemeanor, i. 940-953.
at common law, usually fine and imprisonment, i. 940.
whether limited — whether one or both, i. 940, 941.
construction of statutes, i. 941.
whipping, pillory, ducking, &c., i. 942 and note.
these not used in this country, i. 943.
forfeiture as part of the punishment, i. 944.
sureties for the peace in cases of misdemeanor, i. 945.
cruel and unusual, what — forbidden, i. 946, 947.
matter in aggravation and mitigation, i. 948.
in felonies, how as to such matter, i. 949.
how matter affecting the, shown, i. 950.

- PUNISHMENT, — continued.
day of execution, how far material, i. 951.
several successive convictions, i. 953.
Concerning joint convictions, i. 954-958.
each suffers the whole punishment — judgment several, i. 954-958.
rule in civil jurisprudence different, i. 955.
how, in penal actions, i. 956, 957 and note.
conflict of opinion, i. 958.
- "PUT OFF," (See COUNTERFEITING — FORGERY — UTTERED AND PUT OFF.)
meaning of the words, ii. 288, 608.
- QUARANTINE,
laws of, on what principle, i. 492.
disobedience to order for performing, indictable, i. 240.
- QUARRELS,
homicide in, ii. 701-718.
- QUASHING, (See COURT — INDICTMENT — NOL. PROS. — PENDENCY — PROCEEDINGS IN COURTS.) indictment, effect as to second prosecution, i. 1014, 1027.
- RAILROAD CORPORATIONS, compellable to have cattle-guards at crossings, i. 493, note.
indictable under statute for causing death, i. 531.
- RAILROAD PASSENGER TICKET, forging of, indictable, ii. 546.
- RAPE, (See ATTEMPT — ASSAULT — CARNAL ABUSE — PUBERTY.)
what — indictable, i. 554.
cannot be, where woman consents, i. 259, 766; ii. 1120.
how, consent obtained by fraud, i. 261; ii. 1122.
on insane woman, i. 261; ii. 1121, 1123.
age of puberty, as to, i. 373, 554.
attempt to commit, when, i. 737 and note, 746, 762.
neither, nor attempt, by boy under fourteen, i. 737, 746, 753.
whether, can also be assault, i. 738; ii. 56.
on daughter, conviction for incest, i. 795. indictment for, conviction for assault and battery, i. 808, 809.
punishment at common law, not death, i. 935.
burglary with intent to commit, is no assault, ii. 56.
- General discussion of the offence of*, ii. 1107-1138.
definition obscure in the books, ii. 1107.
division of the subject, ii. 1107.
history of the law, ii. 1108-1112.
the true definition, ii. 1113-1115.
the man who commits the offence, ii. 1116, 1117.
the woman on whom it is committed, ii. 1118, 1119.

RAPE, — continued.

- kind of force necessary, ii. 1120, 1121.
 what consent prevent act from being, ii. 1122-1126.
 ether, chloroform, in committing, ii. 1126.
 the carnal knowledge — emission, ii. 1127-1132.
   penetration, ii. 1132.
 carnal abuse of children, ii. 1133.
 Concluding questions, ii. 1134-1136.
   is felony — the punishment, ii. 1134.
   aiders at the fact, ii. 1135; attempts, ii. 1136.
- REAL ESTATE, (See LAND.)
 whether, the subject of malicious mischief, i. 569; ii. 984, 985.
 how protected by the criminal law, i. 577.
 as subject of larceny, ii. 762-766, 770, 783.
- REASON AND CONSCIENCE, (See DIVINE LAW.) their force as legal authority, i. 42.
- REASONING,
 legal, differs from legislative, i. 277.
- RECAPTURE, (See PERSONAL PROPERTY — PROPERTY.) of property, the right, i. 536.
- RECEIPT, (See FORGERY.)
 what forgery of, is indictable, ii. 546.
 for money or goods, what, ii. 564, 785.
 what is not a larceny of, ii. 787.
- RECEIVING STOLEN GOODS, (See EMBEZZLEMENT — GOODS AND CHATELS — LARCENY.) is a species of larceny, i. 567.
 no offence to take back one's own goods stolen, i. 694.
   how another's, i. 699.
 statute against, how construed, i. 735.
 when, both felony and misdemeanor, i. 789.
 disqualifies to be a witness, i. 974.
General discussion of the offence of, ii. 1137-1142 a.
 general view, ii. 1137.
 the intent, ii. 1138.
 the act of receiving, ii. 1139.
 the property as being stolen, ii. 1140, 1141.
 how of goods embezzled, ii. 1141.
 husband and wife, ii. 1142.
 where the larceny was abroad, ii. 1142 a.
- RECORD, (See COUNTERFEITING — COURT — FORGERY — LARCENY.) altering or counterfeiting, indictable, i. 468.
 meaning of the word, ii. 570, 735.
 of court, whether subject of larceny, ii. 768 and note.
- RECRUITING SOLDIERS,
 construction of Massachusetts statute concerning, i. 752 and note.
- REFEREES, (See AWARD.)
 refusal of, to report, a contempt of court, ii. 256.

- “REGISTRY,” (See FORGERY.)
 meaning of the word, ii. 570.
- REGRATING,
 the offence of, considered, i. 518-529.
- RELIGION, (See CHRISTIANITY — CONSPIRACY.) essential to society, i. 495.
 established, in England, not in this country, i. 496.
 conspiracy to subvert, ii. 228.
- RELIGIOUS IMPOSTURE,
 whether, indictable, i. 497.
- RELIGIOUS MEETINGS. (See DISTURBING MEETINGS.)
- REMEDIES. (See CONCURRENT REMEDIES — COURT — PROCEEDINGS.)
- REPENTANCE,
 not a remission of crime, i. 208 a.
- REPETITION OF THE OFFENCE, of laws which provide special punishment for, i. 959-965.
- REPORTS, (See TREATISES.)
 discussion of the, on criminal law, i. 70-85.
- REPUTATION, (See LIBEL AND SLANDER — SLANDER.) as to protection of, by law, i. 591.
 conspiracy against, indictable, i. 591, note.
- “REQUEST,”
 meaning of the word, ii. 560, 785.
- RESCUE, (See PRISON BREACH, RESCUE, AND ESCAPE.) of prisoner, indictable, i. 466.
 of goods, i. 467; ii. 111.
 persons guilty of, who do not aid in the entire act, i. 639.
 whether, makes accessory after, i. 695-697; ii. 1066-1069.
 as constituting an affray, ii. 5.
- RESISTING OFFICER, (See ARREST — OBSTRUCTING JUSTICE — OFFICER.) intent to resist, what, i. 340.
 no warrant, immaterial that defendant did not know it, i. 440.
 indictable, i. 464, 465.
 when obstructing coroner indictable, i. 688.
 whether, makes accessory after, i. 696, 697.
- “RETREATING TO THE WALL,” (See DEFENCE OF PERSON AND PROPERTY — SELF-DEFENCE.)
 meaning of the words, i. 850.
 must be in good faith, i. 871.
- RETROSPECTIVE LAWS. (See VESTED RIGHTS.)
- REVENUE, (See PUBLIC REVENUE — REVENUE LAWS.) of government, conspiracy to lessen, indictable, ii. 225.
- REVENUE LAWS, (See PUBLIC REVENUE.) object of, i. 488.
 when necessity excuses violation of, i. 351, 352, 824.
 enforced by forfeitures, i. 821.
 forfeiture avoided by necessity, &c., i. 824

- REVOLT, (See FOREIGN GOVERNMENT — GOVERNMENT — JURISDICTION.) cases relating to, collected, i. 564, note.
attempts to excite, against foreign governments, i. 484.
- REVOLUTION,
does not change the law, i. 14.
- RING-DROPPING, (See FALSE PRETENCES — LARCENY.) goods obtained by, when larceny, ii. 819.
- RIOT, (See ROUT — UNLAWFUL ASSEMBLY.)
what — indictable, i. 534.
corporation cannot commit, i. 422.
riotous conduct, i. 537, 540.
all who countenance, indictable as principals, i. 632, 653.
liability for accidental results of, i. 637.
and assault, indictment for, conviction of assault, i. 795.
in defence of property, not justifiable, i. 875.
whether, includes an assault, ii. 56.
a sort of conspiracy, ii. 226.
conspiracies to commit, ii. 226.
right and duty to suppress, ii. 653-655.
homicide committed in, murder, ii. 691.
General discussion of the offence of, ii. 1143-1155.
definitions, ii. 1143 and note.
The persons committing the, how many, &c., ii. 1144-1146.
The nature of the act, ii. 1147-1151.
apprehension of danger — form of indictment, ii. 1147.
whether, must relate to a private quarrel, ii. 1147 and note.
how many must be alarmed, ii. 1148.
thing accomplished need not be unlawful, ii. 1149.
lawful assembly becoming, ii. 1150.
how far the act of, must proceed, ii. 1151.
The intent, ii. 1152.
Concluding questions, ii. 1153-1155.
whether, is misdemeanor or felony, ii. 1153.
what countenance of, makes one guilty, ii. 1153.
conviction of less offence — former jeopardy, ii. 1154.
attempts to commit, ii. 1155.
- RIVER. (See NAVIGABLE RIVERS — NUISANCE — TERRITORIAL LIMITS — WAY.)
- ROAD. (See WAY.)
- ROBBERY, (See ATTEMPT — BURGLARY — COMPOUND LARCENY — DEFENCE OF PERSON AND PROPERTY — LARCENY.)
what — indictable, i. 533.
an aggravated larceny, i. 553, 567.
by taking money to desist from a rape, i. 329.
whether marital coercion excuses, i. 358, 361.
how fear essential in, i. 438.
whether assault essential in, i. 438.

- ROBBERY, — continued.
requires physical force — not mental, i. 532.
what does not amount to aiding another in, i. 635.
not, to compel one to write an order for goods, i. 748.
nor is this an attempt to rob, i. 748.
on high seas, conviction of, in only one country, i. 985.
acquittal of, bars indictment for larceny, i. 1055.
in house, and burglary, two crimes or one, i. 1063, 1064.
General discussion of the offence of, ii. 1156-1182.
definitions, ii. 1156 and note.
The larceny, ii. 1158-1165.
is a compound larceny, ii. 1158.
the aggravating matter, — illustrations, ii. 1159.
subjects of larceny by statute, ii. 1160.
asportation — value, ii. 1161, 1162.
intent, returning thing taken, &c., ii. 1162 a, 1163.
yielding property under compulsion, ii. 1164.
The act of violence, ii. 1166-1173.
must be physical act, or threatening demonstration, ii. 1166, 1173.
charge of sodomy, ii. 1172.
where there is real violence to the person, ii. 1167, 1168.
where there is apprehended violence, ii. 1169, 1170.
threats of burning the house, ii. 1171. threat of prosecution, ii. 1173.
The fear, ii. 1174-1176.
What deemed the person — possession, ii. 1177, 1178.
Concluding questions, ii. 1179-1182.
is felony, ii. 1179; aiders at the fact, ii. 1180.
attempts, ii. 1181; previous jeopardy, ii. 1182.
robbing in particular places, ii. 1182.
- ROBBING THE MAIL. (See EMBEZZLEMENT — LETTER CARRIER — LARCENY — POSTAL OFFENCES.)
- ROGUES,
how punished, i. 515, 516.
- ROUT, (See RIOT — UNLAWFUL ASSEMBLY.)
what — indictable, i. 534.
the offence of, considered, ii. 1183-1186.
- ABBATH. (See CHRISTIANITY — LORD'S DAY — RELIGION.)
- SAFE CONDUCT,
violations of, indictable, i. 484.
- SAFETY. (See PUBLIC SAFETY.)
- SALE. (See JUDICIAL SALES.)
- SALE OF LIQUOR. (See INTOXICATING LIQUOR.)
- SAME OFFENCE, (See JEOPARDY — OFFENCES AS INCLUDED WITHIN ONE ANOTHER.)
what is the, i. 1048-1069.

SCHEDULE. (See BANKRUPT.)
SCHOOLMASTER, (See SCHOOLS — TEACHER AND PUPIL.) whether, must be licensed, i. 507.
 right of, to chastise pupil, i. 886. committing indecent assault on pupil, ii. 36.
SCHOOLS, (See DISTURBING MEETINGS.)
 the offence of disturbing, ii. 302, 306.
SCOLD. (See COMMON SCOLD.)
SCOTCH LAW, (See BLASPHEMY AND PROFANENESS — FOREIGN LAW — JURISDICTION — LAW — LAW OF NATIONS.) takes cognizance of any offences obviously criminal, i. 36.
 its weight in questions of our own criminal law, i. 41.
SCRIPTURES, (See CHRISTIANITY — RELIGION.)
 reviling the, indictable, ii. 77, 83.
SEA. (See HIGH SEAS — MARITIME JURISDICTION — OCEAN.)
SEA-CAPTAIN. (See MASTER MARINER.)
SEAMEN. (See DESERTION — MASTER MARINER.) SEA-SHORE, (See TERRITORIAL LIMITS.)
 jurisdiction over, i. 146.
SEA-WEED,
 when subject of larceny, ii. 877.
SECOND OFFENCE, (See JEOPARDY — OFFENCES AS INCLUDED WITHIN ONE ANOTHER.) laws punishing the, more heavily than the first, i. 919, 959-965.
 must be averred in the indictment, i. 961.
 form of allegation, i. 962.
 previous conviction, how established, i. 963.
 form of procedure, i. 964.
SECOND PROSECUTION. (See JEOPARDY.) SECONDS, (See DUELING.) in duel, guilty of murder, i. 654; ii. 311.
SECRETARY OF LEGATION, carries ministerial dignity, i. 128.
 not responsible to laws of the country, i. 128.
“SECRETE,”
 meaning of the word, ii. 904, note.
“SECURITIES AND EFFECTS,”
 meaning of the words, ii. 785.
SECURITY, (See VALUABLE SECURITY.) meaning of the word, ii. 570 b.
“SE DEFENDENDO.” (See SELF-DEFENCE.)
SEDITION,
 offence of, considered, i. 457 and note.
SELECTMAN,
 is a “public officer,” ii. 319.
 neglecting official duties, ii. 982.
SELF, (See MAYHEM — SELF-MURDER.)
 what injuries a man may inflict on, i. 259, 260.

SELF-DEFENCE, (See DEFENCE — DEFENCE OF PERSON AND PROPERTY — HOMICIDE — LIFE — PERSON.) exercise of, when thought necessary through mistake, i. 305.
 assault in, ii. 39-41.
 homicide in, what, &c., ii. 621, 622.
 murder or manslaughter, ii. 697-713.
General discussion of the right of, i. 838-876. (See HOMICIDE.) SELF-MURDER,
 unlawful, i. 259.
 is felony in England, i. 511, 615; how here, i. 511.
 one who counsels to, how and when guilty, i. 510, 652.
 two agreeing to, survivor guilty, i. 652.
 forfeiture for, at common law, i. 968.
 the offence of, considered, ii. 1187.
“SELL,” (See FORGERY.)
 meaning of the word, ii. 608.
SELLING WIFE. (See WIFE.)
SENTENCE, (See ARREST OF JUDGMENT — ERRONEOUS SENTENCE — PARDON.) day not material in, i. 951.
 on successive convictions, i. 953.
 how, in penal actions, i. 795, 796.
 when can be no valid, no jeopardy, i. 1021-1041. (See JEOPARDY.)
SEPULTURE, (See BURIAL — CORPSE — DEAD BODIES.) offences against, considered, ii. 1188-1190.
SERVANT, (See AGENT — MASTER — MASTER AND SERVANT.)
 in criminal law, who, ii. 331-333.
 when master criminally responsible for acts of, i. 218-221, 316, 317.
 command of master, not justify crime of, i. 355.
 when neglect to supply, with food, indictable, i. 557.
 may commit arson of master's house in which he lives, ii. 13.
 may maintain master in his suits, ii. 128.
SETTLEMENT, of pauper, conspiracies to change, ii. 218.
SHEEP,
 are subjects of larceny, ii. 774.
SHERIFF, (See ARREST — OFFICE — OFFICER — RESISTING OFFICER.) whether, indictable for act of deputy, i. 218.
 for what malfeasance indictable, ii. 978.
“SHIP OR VESSEL.” (See VESSEL.) “SHOOT AT,”
 meaning of the words, i. 753.
SHOP BREAKINGS, (See BREAKING — BURGLARY, &c.) indictable under statutes, i. 559.
SHOW. (See PUBLIC SHOW.)
“SHOW FORTH IN EVIDENCE,” (See EVIDENCE — FORGERY.) legal meaning of the words, ii. 608.

SHROUD,
is the subject of larceny, ii. 730.

SICK, (See PUBLIC HEALTH.)
injuring one who is, by discharge of gun, i. 549.

SICKNESS, (See JEOPARDY — JUROR — WITNESS.) trial broken off by, how, as to jeopardy, i. 1032, 1037.

SIGNATURE, (See MISREADING A WRITING.)

"SIMILAR PIECES," (See COUNTERFEITING.)
meaning of the words, ii. 288.

SIMILITUDE, (See COUNTERFEITING — FORGERY.) necessary to constitute counterfeiting the coin, ii. 291.
how far necessary in forgery, ii. 592-595.

SIMONY, (See ECCLESIASTICAL BENEFICE.)
indictable in England, i. 496.

SIMPLE LARCENY, (See LARCENY.)

SINGING BIRDS,
not subjects of larceny, ii. 773.

SLANDER, VERBAL, (See LIBEL AND SLANDER.) when, indictable, i. 470, 540; ii. 945-947; why, i. 591.
effect of pardon on action for, i. 917.
whether conspiracy to, indictable, ii. 217.
as spoken to a justice or judge, ii. 285, 266.

SLAUGHTER-HOUSE, (See OFFENSIVE TRADES.)
when, nuisance indictable, i. 1141.

SLAVE, (See EMANCIPATION — FREE NEGROES — NEGRO.) statutes against taking, on board steamboats without a pass, i. 307.
permitting, to hire time — construction of statute against, i. 659.
homicides by, what court try in Tennessee, i. 811.
intending to steal, killed, i. 854, 855.

SLAVE TRADE,
cases relating to the, collected, i. 564, note.

SLAVERY, (See EMANCIPATION.) selling into, as a punishment, i. 947.

SLITTING THE NOSTRILS,
as a punishment, i. 942 and note.

SMALL THINGS, (See MAXIMS.)
General discussion, of the doctrine of the magnitude of the intent, i. 216-222.
magnitude of the act, i. 212-229.
Some particular questions, — law does not regard, i. 10.
carelessness may be too small for law to notice, i. 216.
public wrongs may be too small to be indictable, i. 239.
offences viewed differently according to degree of enormity, i. 247.
intent too little of evil to make act unintended indictable, i. 334.
mental incapacity may be too small to excuse, i. 376.
near or remote consequences of an act, i. 406.
how rule of, applies in larceny, i. 579.

SMALL THINGS, — continued. doctrine of, applied to interpretation of statutes, i. 659.
accessory after in petit larceny, not punishable, i. 680.
nearness of intent to another's criminal act, i. 688.
attempt may be too small, i. 759.
conspiracy too small in evil, ii. 186, 195.
act must be how direct a cause of the death, ii. 668.

SOAP-BOILING, (See OFFENSIVE TRADES.)

SODOMY, (See DEFENCE OF PERSON AND PROPERTY — HOMICIDE.)
what — indictable, i. 503.
ground for divorce, i. 503.
solicitation to, indictable, i. 767, 768 b, 768 d.
perfect defence against, justifiable, i. 867.
killing one detected in, by parent, ii. 708.
General discussion of the offence of, ii. 1191-1196.
definition, ii. 1191.
who may commit, &c., ii. 1193.
penetration, ii. 1194.
solicitations and other attempts, ii. 1195.
whether, is felony or misdemeanor, i. 503; ii. 1196.

SOLDIERS, (See MUSTERING SOLDIERS — RECRUITING SOLDIERS — WANDERING MARINERS AND SOLDIERS.)

"SOLEMN OATH," (See CORPORAL OATH.)
meaning of the words, ii. 1018, note.

SOLICITATION,
an indictable attempt, i. 767-768 d, 772, 772 a; ii. 20.
of chastity, when indictable, i. 501, 768.
to an assault which is committed, ii. 55.
to a battery, whether indictable, ii. 62.

SPECIFIC OFFENCES, (See CRIMES.) in general, how constituted by law, i. 599.
how created and named, i. 773-785; illustrations, i. 777, 780-783.

SPRING GUNS, (See DEFENCE, &c. — HOMICIDE.) setting, for the protection of property, i. 854, 855, note, 858.

SQUIRRELS,
not subjects of larceny, ii. 773.

"STACK,"
what is, ii. 936.

STAGE DRIVER, (See EMBEZZLEMENT — LARCENY.)
whether, is a servant, in embezzlement, ii. 341, 349.

STANDING MUTE,
common-law forfeiture for, i. 968.

STARE DECISIS,
doctrine of, in criminal cases, i. 93-98.

STATE, (See GOVERNMENT — STATES — UNITED STATES.)
commanding wrongful acts abroad, i. 153.
right to appropriate persons to its exclusive service, i. 180. courts of, not administer United States laws, ii. 1022.

- STATE COURTS, (See COURT — JURISDICTION.)
no power to administer United States laws, ii. 1022. cannot release federal prisoners, i. 63, note, par. 3.
- STATE PRISONER, (See HABEAS CORPUS — POLITICAL PRISONER.) meaning of the term, i. 64, note, par. 8.
- STATES, (See GOVERNMENT — JURISDICTION — LOCALITY OF CRIME — STATE — UNITED STATES.) boundaries of the, i. 145 et seq.
local jurisdiction of, not absolute, i. 151.
jurisdiction of, over citizens abroad, i. 152-154.
source of authority of, i. 156.
become, by secession, subject to national legislation, i. 161-171.
when United States have full governmental powers in, i. 163, 171.
- STATUTES, (See INTERPRETATION OF STATUTES.)
how far treated of, in this work, i. 34. offences not always defined by, i. 35, note.
subject to exceptions of international law, i. 115 and note, 124.
for punishing our citizens abroad, how construed, i. 121.
disobedience to, indictable, i. 237. effect of, where their existence could not be known, i. 296.
not violated unless the intent accompanied the act, i. 345.
felony created by, how punished, i. 235, 935.
creating felony, how construed, i. 622.
accessories in felony, created by, i. 664.
interpretation of, strict in proportion to offence, i. 606.
attempt to commit offence by, indictable as at common law, i. 759.
words in new, take the meaning of the old, i. 982.
- STATUTES, ENGLISH, — cited, — 51 Hen. 3, stat. 6, — i. 491, note; ii. 143, note.
Westm. 1, c. 13, — i. 625; ii. 1109, 1133.
Westm. 1, c. 15, — i. 679.
Westm. 1, c. 26, — ii. 397.
Westm. 1, c. 34, — i. 473, 476.
Westm. 2, c. 34, — ii. 874, 1111, 1134.
28 Edw. 1, stat. 3, c. 20, — ii. 164.
33 Edw. 1, stat. 2, — ii. 124, 131, note, 174.
1 Edw. 2, stat. 2, — ii. 1070, 1076, 1077, 1079.
9 Edw. 2, c. 3, — ii. 46.
2 Edw. 3, c. 3, — ii. 492.
5 Edw. 3, c. 10, — ii. 384, note.
25 Edw. 3, stat. 5, c. 2, — i. 535, note, 659; ii. 87, 1205, 1206, 1223.
27 Edw. 3, stat. 1, c. 2, — i. 906, note.
34 Edw. 3, c. 8, — ii. 384, note.
38 Edw. 3, stat. 1, c. 12, — ii. 384, note.
2 Rich. 2, stat. 1, c. 5, — i. 476.
5 Rich. 2, stat. 1, c. 8, — ii. 492, 501.
13 Rich. 2, stat. 2, c. 1, — ii. 624.
15 Rich. 2, c. 2, — ii. 493, 498.

- STATUTES, ENGLISH, — cited, — continued.
5 Hen. 4, c. 5, — ii. 1002.
5 Hen. 4, c. 6, — ii. 45, 48, note.
2 Hen. 5, c. 7, — i. 615, note.
8 Hen. 5, c. 6, — ii. 1200.
8 Hen. 6, c. 1, — ii. 48, note.
8 Hen. 6, c. 9, — ii. 494, 495, 501, 503.
11 Hen. 6, c. 11, — ii. 45, 48, note.
3 Hen. 7, c. 2, i. 555.
21 Hen. 8, c. 7, — ii. 319, 856.
23 Hen. 8, c. 1, — ii. 625, 627, 726, 732.
24 Hen. 8, c. 5, — ii. 621.
25 Hen. 8, c. 6, — i. 503.
32 Hen. 8, c. 9, — i. 541, note; ii. 137, 138, 384, note.
33 Hen. 8, c. 1, — i. 571; ii. 141, 143, 157, 160, 410.
33 Hen. 8, c. 12, — ii. 48 and note.
37 Hen. 8, c. 6, — ii. 999, 1002.
1 Edw. 6, c. 1, — ii. 76, note.
1 Edw. 6, c. 12, — ii. 100, note, 102.
2 & 3 Edw. 6, c. 19, — ii. 76, note.
3 & 4 Edw. 6, c. 5, — i. 534, note.
3 & 4 Edw. 6, c. 21, — i. 524 and note.
5 & 6 Edw. 6, c. 4, — ii. 47, 48, note.
5 & 6 Edw. 6, c. 9, — ii. 103, note.
5 & 6 Edw. 6, c. 14, — i. 519, 524 and note, 525.
1 Mary, c. 1, — i. 534, note.
1 Mary, c. 2, — ii. 76, note.
1 Mary, sess. 2, c. 6, — ii. 279.
1 Mary, stat. 2, c. 12, — i. 534, note.
1 & 2 Phil. & M. c. 3, — i. 476, note.
3 Phil. & M. c. 3, — i. 524, note.
4 & 5 Phil. & M. c. 4, — ii. 103, note.
1 Eliz. c. 1, — i. 615, note; ii. 76, note.
1 Eliz. c. 6, — i. 476, note.
1 Eliz. c. 16, — i. 534, note.
5 Eliz. c. 5, — i. 524 and note; ii. 76, note.
5 Eliz. c. 9, — ii. 1049.
5 Eliz. c. 10, — ii. 320, note.
5 Eliz. c. 12, — i. 524.
5 Eliz. c. 14, — ii. 550-553, 603.
8 Eliz. c. 4, — ii. 895.
13 Eliz. c. 25, — i. 524.
18 Eliz. c. 5, — i. 712.
18 Eliz. c. 7, — ii. 1112, 1133.
31 Eliz. c. 11, — ii. 496, 503.
39 Eliz. c. 15, — ii. 100, note, 103, note.
1 Jac. 1, c. 11, — i. 502.
1 Jac. 1, c. 12, — i. 593.

STATUTES, ENGLISH, — cited, — continued.

- 3 Jac. 1, c. 21, — ii. 76, note.
 21 Jac. 1, c. 15, — ii. 496.
 21 Jac. 1, c. 26, — ii. 554.
 12 Car. 2, c. 25, — i. 491, note.
 15 Car. 2, c. 8, — i. 524, note.
 22 & 23 Car. 2, c. 1, — ii. 1003.
 22 & 23 Car. 2, c. 7, — ii. 999.
 29 Car. 2, c. 7, — ii. 957, 958, note.
 3 Will. & M. c. 9, — i. 699; ii. 866.
 1 Will. 3, c. 18, — ii. 76, note.
 8 & 9 Will. 3, c. 26, — ii. 292.
 1 Anne, stat. 2, c. 9, — i. 668, 699; ii. 1049.
 5 Anne, c. 31, — i. 699.
 5 Anne, c. 34, — i. 524, note.
 7 Anne, c. 12, — i. 128, note.
 9 Anne, c. 14, — ii. 48, note.
 12 Anne, stat. 1, c. 7, — ii. 99, 900, note, 908.
 1 Geo. 1, c. 5, — i. 534, note.
 9 Geo. 1, c. 22, — ii. 999, 1200.
 9 Geo. 2, c. 35, — i. 106.
 16 Geo. 2, c. 31, — i. 359.
 26 Geo. 2, c. 14, — ii. 400.
 27 Geo. 2, c. 15, — ii. 1200.
 30 Geo. 2, c. 24, — ii. 411, 446, 460.
 31 Geo. 2, c. 29, — ii. 143, note.
 3 Geo. 3, c. 11, — ii. 143, note.
 12 Geo. 3, c. 48, — i. 345.
 12 Geo. 3, c. 71, — i. 524.
 13 Geo. 3, c. 62, — ii. 143, note.
 13 Geo. 3, c. 80, — ii. 183.
 39 Geo. 3, c. 85, — ii. 321, 334, 344.
 52 Geo. 3, c. 64, — ii. 411.
 52 Geo. 3, c. 143, — ii. 340.
 5 Geo. 4, c. 47, — i. 517.
 6 Geo. 4, c. 129, — ii. 230.
 7 Geo. 4, c. 64, — ii. 471.
 7 & 8 Geo. 4, c. 18, — i. 855, note.
 7 & 8 Geo. 4, c. 28, — i. 937.
 7 & 8 Geo. 4, c. 29, — i. 679; ii. 99, 166, 322, 334, 337, 341, note, 344, 375, 412, 471, 481.
 7 & 8 Geo. 4, c. 30, — i. 298; ii. 997.
 7 & 8 Geo. 4, c. 64, — ii. 471.
 9 Geo. 4, c. 31, — i. 112, 611, note, 678, note; ii. 48, note, 1129.
 9 Geo. 4, c. 54, Irish, — i. 937.
 9 Geo. 4, c. 55, — i. 752.
 11 Geo. 4 & 1 Will. 4, c. 66, — ii. 562.
 1 & 2 Will. 4, c. 67, — ii. 349.

STATUTES, ENGLISH, — cited, — continued.

- 2 Will. 4, c. 34, — ii. 607.
 7 Will. 4 & 1 Vict. c. 90, — ii. 997, note.
 7 Will. 4 & 1 Vict. c. 85, — i. 741 and note, 809.
 11 & 12 Vict. c. 46, — i. 670.
 14 & 15 Vict. c. 19, — i. 964.
 14 & 15 Vict. c. 100, — i. 757, 809; ii. 328, note, 599.
 18 & 19 Vict. c. 118, — ii. 964.
 24 & 25 Vict. c. 94, § 2, — i. 670.
 24 & 25 Vict. c. 96, — ii. 99, 166, 323, 328, note, 375, note, 413, 477, 1141.
 24 & 25 Vict. c. 98, — ii. 599.
 24 & 25 Vict. c. 99, — i. 964.
 24 & 25 Vict. c. 100, — i. 612, note, 768 a, 1059, note.
- STATUTORY DISABILITY, effect of pardon on, i. 920.
- STATUTORY PROHIBITION, doctrine and effect of, i. 237-239.
- STEAL, (See LARCENY.) dead human body, i. 506.
- STEAMBOAT, (See HOMICIDE.)
 improper navigation of, causing death, ii. 669.
- STOLEN GOODS. (See RECEIVING STOLEN GOODS.)
- STRAY, (See TREASURE-TROVE — WALF — WRECK.) concerning larceny of, ii. 876 and note.
- STREET-WALKER, (See ESCAPE — MISDEMEANOR.) escape of, indictable, i. 707.
- “STRIKING WORK,”
 whether, indictable, ii. 232, 233.
- SUBJECT. (See EXPATRIATION — GOVERNMENT.)
- SUBORNATION OF PERJURY, (See PERJURY.)
 indictable, i. 463.
 disqualifies to be a witness, i. 974, 975.
 the doctrine of, ii. 1056, 1197-1199.
- SUBSTANTIVE CRIME, (See ACCESSORY AFTER.)
 meaning of the term, i. 696.
 is sometimes only an attempt, i. 728, 729, 734.
- SUICIDE. (See SELF-MURDER.)
- SUIT, (See JEOPARDY — PROSECUTIONS — THREAT TO INDICT.) bringing fictitious, &c., a contempt, ii. 253.
- SUNDAY. (See LORD'S DAY.)
- SURPLUSAGE, (See INDICTMENT.) in indictment, may be rejected, i. 810.
 of intents, not vitiate, i. 339, 340.
 of wrongful act, what constitutes, i. 774, 775.
- SWANS,
 when, subjects of larceny, ii. 773.
- SWEARING. (See BLASPHEMY AND PROFANENESS — PROFANE SWEARING.)

- SWINE,
construction of city by-law against, going at large, i. 832.
- SYMBOL, (See CHEATS—FALSE PRETENCES—FALSE TOKEN.) or token, necessary in a cheat, ii. 142 et seq.
- TAVERN. (See INN.)
- TAX COLLECTOR,
is "public officer," ii. 349.
- TAXES,
omission to pay, forfeits property, i. 821.
- TEACHER AND PUPIL, (See DOMESTIC RELATIONS—SCHOOL-MASTER—SCHOOLS.)
view of the criminal law relating to, i. 886.
- "TEN SIMILAR PIECES." (See SIMILAR PIECES.)
- TERRITORIAL LIMITS, (See ARMS OF THE SEA—BAYS—COUNTY —JURISDICTION—LAKES—LOCALITY OF CRIME—RIVER—SEA-SHORE—UNITED STATES, &c.) statutes not have effect beyond, i. 109, 110.
of United States, i. 102-108.
of the States, i. 145-154, 184.
- TERRITORIES, (See UNITED STATES.) congressional jurisdiction over the, i. 188.
- THEATRE, (See DISTURBING MEETINGS.) rights of audience at, i. 542, note; ii. 218, 308, note.
- THEFT BOTE,
what is, i. 710.
- THIEF, (See LARCENY.) stealing goods from, is larceny, ii. 731.
- THREAT TO INDICT, (See PROSECUTIONS.) obtaining money by, indictable, ii. 407.
- THREATENING LETTERS,
the offence of sending, considered, ii. 1200, 1201.
- THREATENING NOTICE, request to post, indictable, i. 767.
- THREATS, (See HOMICIDE.) of present death, whether excuse for crime, i. 347, 348. resulting in death, how indictable, i. 562.
- "THRESHING MACHINE,"
meaning of the words, ii. 986.
- TIME,
whether act and intent must concur in, i. 207, 642, 692.
men do as they will with their own, i. 515, 516.
- TIPPLING-HOUSE, (See DISORDERLY HOUSE—NUISANCE—IN-TOXICATING LIQUOR.)
the offence of keeping, i. 318, 1113-1117.
- TITLE, (See PRETENDED TITLES.) injuring property under claim of, i. 298, 576.

- TITLES PRETENDED. (See PRETENDED TITLES.)
- TOKEN. (See FALSE TOKEN.)
- "TOOL,"
legal meaning of the word, ii. 288.
- TOWN, (See NUISANCE—WALLED TOWN.)
indictable, for non-repair of public ways, i. 419.
- TOWN MEETINGS, (See DISTURBING MEETINGS.) disturbance of, indictable, i. 542.
- TRADE, (See NOXIOUS TRADES—NUISANCE—OFFENSIVE TRADES —TRICKS OF TRADE.)
laws concerning exercise of, i. 508.
- TRANSPORTATION,
not used as a punishment in this country, i. 939.
- TRAVELLERS,
not obeying law of road, ii. 1277.
- TRAVELLING ON SUNDAY,
as violating Lord's day, ii. 96.
- TREASON, (See FELONY—OVERT ACT—PETIT TREASON.)
what—indictable, i. 456.
either against States, or United States, i. 177, 456.
minute acts, &c., of helping to levy war, indictable, i. 226.
concealing another's treason, i. 226. (See MISPRISON.) not punishable when act compelled, i. 347, 348.
whether marital coercion excuses wife in, i. 358, 361.
infant may commit, i. 369.
whether corporation can commit, i. 422, 423.
a species of attempt, i. 437, 440.
reasonable purpose need not succeed, i. 437.
but must be act in, evil in nature, i. 440.
is felony also, i. 612, 613.
responsibility for acts of co-conspirators, i. 639.
principals first and second degrees in, not distinguished, i. 655.
violating king's companion as, the statute construed, i. 659.
accessories before the fact in, i. 681-684.
accessories after the fact in, i. 701-704.
construction of United States Constitution concerning, i. 703.
the State constitutions, i. 704.
misprison of, anciently treason, now misdemeanor, i. 717.
whether, admits of indictable attempts, i. 759, 772.
forfeiture and other like consequences of, i. 960-977.
General discussion of the offence of, ii. 1202-1255.
introductory views, ii. 1202-1204.
English treasons corresponding to ours, ii. 1205-1213.
distinction between high and petit, i. 611; ii. 1205.
how before stat. 25 Edw. 3, stat. 5, c. 2, ii. 1205.
this statute, ii. 1206.
concerning subsequent statutes, ii. 1207.
construction, as to levying war, adhering, &c., ii. 1208-1212.

TREASON, — continued.

not quite satisfactory, ii. 1213.

Treason against the United States, ii. 1214-1236.

constitutional provision, ii. 1214.

acts of congress, ii. 1215-1222.

our written law derived from statute of Edw. ii. 1223.

as to following the English interpretations, ii. 1223-1225.

attempt to prevent execution of a legislative act, ii. 1226, 1227 what is a levying of war, ii. 1226-1231.

whether one can levy war alone, ii. 1228, 1229.

peculiarly an offence of the intent, ii. 1230.

what is a sufficient overt act, ii. 1231-1234.

bare conspiracy not, ii. 1231.

overt act of levying war, ii. 1231.

adhering to the enemy, ii. 1232-1234.

the allegiance necessary, ii. 1235.

as to act of 1862, ii. 1236.

Treason against the several States, ii. 1254, 1255.

TREASURE-TROVE, (See STRAY — WAIF — WRECK.)

concealment of, an indictable misdemeanor, ii. 875.

the doctrine of larceny of, ii. 876.

TREATISES, (See REPORTS.)

General enumeration and discussion of the old, i. 86-90.

TREATY, (See LAW OF NATIONS.)

land boundaries established by, i. 107, 108.

how, affected by war between the parties, ii. 1252.

"TREES,"

meaning of the word, ii. 986.

TRESPASS, (See CIVIL TRESPASS — FORCIBLE TRESPASS.)

in foreign country, may be sued here, i. 140.

meaning of the term, in the criminal law, i. 625.

ab initio, where license abused, i. 208.

corporation may be sued in, i. 422.

not alone indictable, i. 538.

TRICKS OF TRADE, (See FALSE PRETENCES.)

as false pretences, ii. 447-456.

TURKEYS,

are subjects of larceny, ii. 774.

UNDERTAKING, (See FORGERY.)

for payment of money, &c., what, ii. 563, 785.

UNITED STATES, (See CONSTITUTION OF UNITED STATES — GOV-ERNMENT — TERRITORIAL LIMITS — TERRITORIES — STATES.)

boundaries of, i. 102-108.

crimes committed beyond limits of, i. 109-123.

exemptions from criminal laws of, within limits of, i. 124-135.

jurisdiction of, within State limits, i. 156-188.

UNITED STATES, — continued.

source of authority, i. 156.

jurisdiction beyond State limits, i. 158, 182-188.

jurisdiction over places ceded to the, by the States, i. 159, 203.

when has complete jurisdiction over States, i. 161-171.

jurisdiction of, in other cases within State limits, i. 172-181.

same act offence against both, and a State, i. 173, 987.

right of, to appropriate persons to exclusive service, i. 180.

courts of, enforce State laws, i. 181, 194; ii. 1022.

whether, has a common law, i. 189-203.

procedure in tribunals of, i. 194.

courts of, may administer State law, i. 195, 196.

treason against, how limited, i. 456.

"UNLAWFUL,"

meaning of the word, ii. 178.

UNLAWFUL ASSEMBLY, (See RIOT — ROUT.)

what — indictable, i. 534.

of twelve or more persons, i. 534.

General view of the law concerning, ii. 1256-1259.

definitions, ii. 1256 and note.

how compared with riot, ii. 1257.

as to the specific intent, ii. 1258.

assembly for defence of the dwelling-house, ii. 1259.

UNWHOLESOME FOOD, (See FOOD — NUISANCE.)

providing, indictable, i. 558.

supplying, to prisoners of war, i. 484.

indictable to make or sell, i. 491.

privately administering, to particular individuals, i. 491, note.

USURY,

how viewed in the criminal law, ii. 1260-1263.

UTTER — UTTERING, (See ATTEMPT — COUNTERFEITING — COUNTERFEIT MONEY — FORGERY — PASS.)

legal meaning of the words, ii. 605, 607.

when wife liable for, base coin, i. 359.

drunkenness as excuse for, i. 412.

a species of attempt, i. 437.

as false pretence, ii. 430.

of forged instruments — the offence, ii. 604-608.

of counterfeit coin at gaming-table, i. 765.

"UTTERED AND PUT OFF," (See PUT OFF.)

meaning of the words, ii. 288.

VAGABONDS, (See GYPSIES — WANDERING MARINERS, &c.)

how punished, i. 515.

VAGRANCY, (See GYPSIES — WANDERING MARINERS, &c.)

whether, indictable, i. 515, 516.

entertaining vagrant, not indictable, i. 706.

- VALUABLE SECURITY,
meaning of the words, ii. 785.
- " VALUABLE THING," meaning of the term, ii. 480.
- VARIANCE, (See INDICTMENT — JEOPARDY.)
what, and effect of — prosecuted again, i. 1052.
- VENUE, (See JEOPARDY — LOCALITY OF CRIME.) waiver as to, i. 995.
- VERBAL OBSCENITY. (See OBSCENE WORDS — SLANDER.)
- VERBAL SLANDER. (See LIBEL AND SLANDER — SLANDER.)
- VERDICT, (See EMBRACERY — JEOPARDY — NEW TRIAL.)
defective, effect on further proceedings, i. 998, 999.
guilty of part, not guilty of residue, how new trial, i. 1004.
guilty of part, silent as to residue, how, i. 1006.
- VESSEL,
(See DESERTION — FORFEITURE — SEAMEN.)
crimes committed on board, i. 112, 117, 118.
how, when not in our waters, i. 114-116.
whether foreign, subject to our laws, i. 130.
offence of destroying, discussed, i. 570, note. forfeiture of, for piracy committed by master, i. 826 and note.
belligerent, forfeiture of neutral's share in, i. 826.
- VESTED RIGHTS, (See FORFEITURE — PARDON.) not divested by pardon, i. 910, 911, 916.
when the right vests, i. 911.
- VOTER, (See BRIBERY — ELECTIONS.)
bribing a, ii. 86.
- WAGER. (See BETTING.)
- WAGES, (See LABOR — LABORERS.) of laborers, as to laws regulating, i. 453-455, 508.
conspiracies to raise or lower, ii. 230, 231 and note, 232, 233.
- WAIF, (See STRAY — TREASURE-TROVE — WRECK.)
what is, ii. 876 and note.
the doctrine of larceny of, ii. 876 and note.
- WAIVER. (See CONSENT — JEOPARDY — NEW TRIAL — VERDICT.)
- WALLED TOWN, (See BURGLARY — TOWN.)
whether breaking into, is burglary, ii. 105.
- WANDERING MARINERS AND SOLDIERS, (See GYPSIES — VAGABONDS — VAGRANCY.)
whether, indictable, i. 516.
- WARD. (See DOMESTIC RELATIONS — GUARDIAN AND WARD.)
- WAREHOUSE-MEN,
larceny of the goods by, ii. 870.
- WARRANT, (See OFFICER.) officer indictable for not serving, i. 240.
day of execution in, though not in judgment, i. 951.

- WARRANT, — continued.
for payment of money, what, ii. 560, 785.
for delivery of goods, what, ii. 560, 785.
- WARRANTY,
when, implied in sale, i. 11.
- WATER, (See NUISANCE.)
indictable to make, unwholesome, i. 491.
- " WATERMAN,"
meaning of the word, ii. 351.
- WAY, (See NAVIGABLE RIVERS — NAVIGABLE WATERS — NUISANCE — PARISHES — PRIVATE WAY.) neglect to repair, indictable, i. 241, 419.
obstruction of, indictable, i. 531.
people need not be actually injured, i. 244.
all must have right to use the, i. 254.
belonging to a town, i. 245.
conviction for not repairing one street, where more proved, i. 792.
several streets out of repair, indictment for one, i. 1061.
improper use of, causing death, ii. 667.
careless use of, manslaughter, ii. 690.
- General discussion of obstruction and neglect to repair, ii. 1264-1287.*
introductory views, ii. 1264, 1265.
The kinds of ways, ii. 1266-1271.
must be public — meaning of word highway, ii. 1266.
how highways established, &c., ii. 1267.
cul de sac, whether highway, ii. 1268.
footway, horseway, public square, bridge, ferry, ii. 1269.
turnpike-roads, railroads, ii. 1270.
who liable for repair, &c., of these, ii. 1270.
rivers, harbors, &c., ii. 1271.
- The act of obstruction, ii. 1272-1279.
general doctrine, ii. 1272.
methods of obstruction enumerated, ii. 1273.
by teams standing, loading, unloading, &c., ii. 1274.
collecting crowd — darkening street — house liable to fall, ii. 1275.
how as to the nature of the travel contemplated, &c., ii. 1276.
obstructions outside the travelled part, ii. 1277.
statute authorizing obstruction, ii. 1278.
the intent — accidental injury to the way, ii. 1279.
- The condition in which the way must be put and kept, ii. 1280.
The person or corporation responsible for non-repair, ii. 1281-1283.
Concluding questions, ii. 1284-1287.
is misdemeanor, ii. 1284.
the punishment — abatement of the nuisance, &c., ii. 1285, 1286.
second jeopardy, &c., ii. 1286.
New Hampshire statute about guide-boards, ii. 1287.
- WEALTH. (See PUBLIC WEALTH.)
- WEAPON. (See DANGEROUS WEAPON — DEADLY WEAPON.)

- WHIPPING, (See DOMESTIC RELATIONS — PARENT.)
as a punishment, i. 942, 943, 947.
- WIFE, (See COVERTURE — HUSBAND — MARRIED WOMEN.) selling and buying a, indictable, i. 502.
burning husband's house by, not arson, ii. 13.
may commit forcible entry on husband's lands, ii. 500.
larceny of husband's goods by, ii. 872-874.
- WILD ANIMALS,
whether, subjects of larceny, i. 578; ii. 771, 772.
- WILD BOARS,
when, subjects of larceny, ii. 773.
- WILFUL — WILFULLY,
meaning of the word, i. 427, 428; ii. 310.
- WITCHCRAFT,
what, and whether indictable, i. 593.
as false pretence, ii. 429 a.
- WITNESS, (See BRIBERY — CONTEMPT OF COURT — EVIDENCE — FOREIGN JUDGMENT — JEOPARDY — NEW TRIAL — OPINIONS OF WIT-NESSES — PERJURY.)
preventing attendance of, indictable, i. 468, 695; why, i. 734.
attempt to intimidate, &c., i. 468.
keeping back, not make accessory after, i. 695.
incapacity of, removed by pardon, i. 917.
incapacity of, from crime, by operation of law, i. 972-976.
must be judgment on conviction, i. 975.
how, if erroneous, i. 975.
trial broken off by sickness of, i. 1037.
by not being acquainted with the nature of an oath, i. 1037.
when punishable for disobedience, ii. 253, 266.
- WOODEN BUILDINGS, (See NUISANCE.)
when a nuisance, i. 1150.
- WORDS, (See INTERPRETATION OF STATUTES — LIBEL AND SLANDER — LIBERTY OF SPEECH — SLANDER.) of judges, how to be understood, i. 379, 381, 384, note, par. 4, 551.
in indictments, i. 428.
when, provoking quarrels, i. 540.
how, as constituting the fighting in affray, ii. 3.
how, as constituting an assault, ii. 26, 34.
how, as justifying an assault, ii. 41.
not symbols or tokens, in the law of cheat, ii. 145.
when, an indictable obstruction of justice, ii. 265, 266.
when, amount to a libel, ii. 314.
whether, justify a blow to reduce killing to manslaughter, ii. 704.
not an overt act in treason, ii. 1233.
- WORK, (See LABOR — LABORERS — WAGES.) concerning compelling men to, i. 453-455.
- WORK ON GOODS, (See EMBEZZLEMENT — LARCENY.) larceny by one who has done, ii. 867, 868.

- WORKMEN. (See LABORERS.)
- WORSHIP. (See DISTURBING MEETINGS — LORD'S DAY.)
- WOUNDING,
construction of statute against, i. 340.
- WRECK, (See STRAY — TREASURE-TROVE — WAIF.) what is — larceny of, ii. 876 and note.
- WRIT OF ERROR, (See JEOPARDY.)
whether, grantable to the prosecutor, i. 1024.
effect of, i. 1024, 1026.
- WRITING. (See FORGERY — MISREADING A WRITING.)
meaning of the word, ii. 448, note, 525, 569.

END OF VOL. II.