

Table of Contents

Introduction
Executive Summary
I Omissions - prepared by Alex Colvin
The Current State of the Law
The Law in Other Jurisdictions
Recommendations
II The Mental Element - prepared by Alex Kurke
The Application Section
Purpose and Knowledge
Knowledge and Willful Blindness
Recklessness
The Residual Rule
III Mistake of Fact - prepared by Pamela Snively
Mistake of Fact & Sexual Assault
Proposals
IV Intoxication - prepared by Mary Jackson
Objectives of Reform
Current Law
Intoxication and Criminal Liability
Law Reform Commission Proposals
V Insanity Defence - prepared by Sharon Nicklas
The Current Law
Reform Proposals in Canada
Reform Proposals in Other Jurisdictions
Recommendations
VI Necessity and Duress - prepared by Graeme Coffin
The Distinction Between Necessity and Duress
Preservation of Property
Causing Death or Serious Harm
The Parameters of the Defence, and the Problem of Objectivity
Proportionality and Mistake
Prior Fault and the Availability of the Defence
Justification or Excuse
Draft Provisions
VII Entrapment - prepared by Scott Bomhof
The Subjective Approach
The Objective Approach
Canadian Interpretation of Entrapment
Alternative Approaches
Draft Legislation
Commentary on Draft Legislation
VIII Attempts and Conspiracy - prepared by Brian Grant
Attempts
Conspiracy
IX Parties to an Offence - prepared by Orlando V. Da Silva
The Current Law
Shortcomings/Proposals/Recommendations
The Law Reform Commission Proposals
Proposed Legislation
X The Criminal Liability of Corporations - prepared by Peter Lawson
Is a Distinct Principle of Corporate Criminal Liability Necessary?
Is the LRCC's Formulation of the Principle of Corporate
Criminal Liability Adequate as to its Form and Substance?
Is the LRCC's Formulation Adequate as to its Scope?
What are the Implications of the LRCC's Provision for other Areas of the Criminal Law?
What are the Implications of the LRCC's Provision for the Law
Governing Criminal Sanctions?
XI Sentencing Reform - prepared by Douglas Murray
Examination of Traditional Objectives
Rehabilitation
Deterrence
Incapacitation
Just Deserts
Redress to Victims
Recommendations	