

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- I INTRODUCTION
- II ISSUES FOR CANADIAN PHYSICIANS
 - A) EXEMPTION FROM CRIMINAL LIABILITY
 - 1) THE CURRENT CONTEXT
 - 2) RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE LAW REFORM COMMISSION OF CANADA
 - a) Distinction between criminal conduct and professional conduct of physicians
 - i) Recommendations of the Commission
 - ii) Comment
 - iii) Recommendation of the CMA
 - b) Definition of medical treatment
 - i) Recommendations of the Commission
 - ii) Comment
 - iii) Recommendation of the CMA
 - c) Relevance of patient consent
 - i) Recommendations of the Commission
 - ii) Comment
 - Competent Person
 - Incompetent Person
 - Emergency Situation
 - iii) Recommendations of the CMA
 - d) Specification of standard of conduct considered lawful
 - i) Recommendations of the Commission
 - ii) Comment
 - iii) Recommendations of the CMA
 - e) Provisions for non-therapeutic practices
 - i) Recommendations of the Commission
 - ii) Comment
 - iii) Recommendations of the CMA
 - B) INITIATING AND CEASING TREATMENT: PHYSICIANS' OBLIGATIONS
 - 1) THE CURRENT CONTEXT
 - 2) RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE LAW REFORM COMMISSION OF CANADA
 - a) Competent patients: initiation and cessation of treatment
 - i) Recommendations of the Law Reform Commission
 - ii) Comment
 - iii) Recommendations of the CMA
 - b) Incompetent patients: initiation and cessation of treatment
 - i) Recommendations of the Law Reform Commission
 - ii) Comment
 - iii) Recommendations of CMA

- c) Medically/therapeutically futile treatment
 - i) Recommendations of the Law Reform Commission
 - ii) Comment
 - iii) Recommendations of CMA
 - d) The treatment and care of terminally ill patients
 - i) Recommendations of the Law Reform Commission
 - ii) Comment
 - iii) Recommendation of CMA
 - C) THE DEFINITION OF DEATH
 - 1) THE CURRENT CONTEXT
 - 2) RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE LAW REFORM COMMISSION OF CANADA
 - i) Recommendations of the Commission
 - ii) Comment
 - iii) Recommendation of the CMA
- III CONCLUSIONS AND SUMMARY OF RECOMMENDATIONS
 - A) EXEMPTION FROM CRIMINAL LIABILITY
 - B) INITIATING AND CEASING TREATMENT: PHYSICIANS' OBLIGATIONS
 - C) THE DEFINITION OF DEATH