

A
T A B L E
T O T H E
Third Part of the Institutes of the Laws of England.

Ability and Difability.  WHERE no man of full age shall be received in any Plea to disable himself. fo. 215 Abjuration and Sanctuary.            The description of it. 215            Sanctuary the ground of Abjuration. ibid.            What kind of Abjuration remains at this day. ibid.            In what cases a man may abjure, and in what not. 216, 217            The judgement in case of Abjuration, and what is implied in it. 217            Where a felon that escapes out of Prison may take Sanctuary. ib.            Where it shall be Felony in Recusants that refuse to abjure. How they may discharge themselves, and what they forfeit. 102            Where none ought to be exiled to a Country of Infidels. 115 Accessory. vide Principal. Adjournment.            Where a Commission, Hac Vice may be adjourned. 31 Affrays.            The definition of an Affray. 158            Affrays inquirable in Leets. ib.            What persons are bound to part Affrays. ib.            The punishment of those that shall refuse to part Affrays. ib. Aliens.            What Aliens may commit treason, and what not. 4, 5 Amercements.            The judgment where the party is fined, and where he is amerced. 218            Where a town shall be amerced for a Murder committed in it, and where not. 53 Annum, Diem &amp; Vestum. 111 Apparel.            How the Law stands now concerning Apparel. 199            How excess of Apparel is best cured. ib.            III, lvs r.	Appeal.            Appeals anciently of High Treason. 5, 132            No Appeal of Treason can be brought in Parliament. 32            Appeals of Rape. 60            Where Appellees shall not have their Clergy. 114            Where a conviction of Man-slaughter and Clergy prayed shall be good Bar in an Appeal. 132            The ancient execution in an Appeal. ib.            What the conclusion shall be in an Appeal where the Plaintiff is maimed and cannot join Battel. 132            The judgment in an Appeal where the Defendant is slain or vanquished. 212            Where a man attainted is slain, the wife may have an Appeal. 215            Where the King cannot pardon an Appellee. 237 Approver.            The description of him. 129            Who may be Approvers and who not. ib.            Where none can be an Approver upon an Appeal, and where an Approverment shall cease upon an Appeal brought. ib.            Of what offences an Approverment may be. 130            Where the Appellees may join Battel with the Approver, and he ought to combat with them all, but not contra. ib.            Where the Approver is pardoned the Appellee shall be discharged. ib.            Where an Approver refusing the combat shall have judgment, as in case of Petit treason. 21            No Justice of Peace, nor the Lord High Steward of England can assign a Coroner to an Approver. ib. Armour and armed.            An exposition upon the statute of 2 E. 3. cap. 3. concerning riding armed. 160            The punishment of those that ride or go armed before this Act and since. 114, 160, 162            Who may punish those that go armed contrary to this statute. 162            No Armour is to be worn where the Parliament is holden. 160 U Arrest.
---	---

T H E T A B L E.

Arrest.
Where the Arrest of a man shall be lawful upon a suspicion, and where not.	118
Assent.
The difference between an Assenter and a Conserter.	169
Attainder.
Where a man commits treason, and dies before Attainder, he forfeits nothing.	12
Where Attainders for treason may be reversed, and where not.	31, 214, 215
Where Autofortis Attaint for the same offence is a good Plea, and where not.	213
Where Autofortis Attaint for another offence is a good Plea, and where not.	ib.
Where a man attainted shall be liable to Arrests and executions for Debts.	213, 215
Where an Attainder is no Plea in an Action of Debt or any other Action.	215
Where a man attainted is slain, his wife may have her Appeal.	ib.
Where a man attainted may purchase land to him and his heirs.	ib.
Where a person attainted may have an Action of Battery, or an Appeal of Maihem or Rape.	ib.
Where an offence is excepted out of any general Pardon, an Attainder for that offence is also excepted.	234, 238
Attaint. vide Jurors.
Authority.
Where a Statute gives authority to divers or any two of them, one shall suffice to execute the Authority if there be no more.	136
Bailment.
W HEN a man shall be said to have goods in his possession, and when in his charge.	108
Battel.
In what cases trial by Battel shall be.	159
Compio , the Etymology of the word, what a Champion signifies, and who may be a Champion.	221
Where the Judges of the Common Law ought to direct the Combat, and where not.	ib.
Where a Champion that kills another forfeits nothing.	ib.
Where a Champion becomes Craven or Recreant, what he forfeits.	ib.
Craven et Recreantia, unde derivantur.	ib.
Where Battel is joined, and the Champion becomes blind, he shall be discharged.	158
Where after issue joyned the trial by Battel is become impossible by the act of God, the Appellee shall be discharged.	159
The punishment of an Appellant or an Appellee that is vanquished.	221
Where an Appellant and an Appellee combat until Night, the Appellee shall go free.	ib.
Beggars.
Five kinds of Beggars; the Alchymist, Concealer, Monopolist, Informer and Poet.	75
Benefices.
Where Ecclesiastical Dignities shall be accounted Benefices, and where not.	155
Bonds.
Where a Subject is bound to do any thing to the King as his liege Lord, no Bond is to be exacted of him.	149
All Bonds and writings made to the Kings dishonour are against Law, and void.	ib.
Where a Bond exacted by an Ecclesiastical Judge not warrantable by Law shall be void.	ib.
Bribery.
The definition and derivation of the word.	145
The difference between Bribery and Extortion.	147
Who may commit Bribery.	147, 148
Where bribery may be committed although no suit dependeth.	148
He that offers a Bribe to a Judge is punishable.	174
What offices are within the statute of 5 E. 6. cap. 16. made for prevention of Bribery.	148
A severe judgment given against a Judge for Bribery.	145
A Lord Chancellor and a Lord Treasurer of England sentenced lately in Parliament for Bribery.	148
The punishment anciently and at this day for Bribery.	149, 224, 225
Brothels.
Brothel-houses against the Law of God and the Nation, and how punished.	203
Brothel-houses anciently suffered, and when first prohibited.	205, 206
The punishment of Harlots found within the verge of the Court.	205, 206
The custom of London for entering into a house and carrying a Harlot to Prison, good.	206
Adultery anciently punish'd at the common law.	ib.
Buggery.

T H E T A B L E

Buggery. The nature, definition and derivation of it. 58                      The several ancient punishments of it. ib.                      How much is requisite to make a Buggery. 59                      How the Indictment of it runs. ib.                      Where in Buggery it shall be felony in the agent only. ib. Buildings. What castles and houses are prohibited subjects to build. 201                      The building of Vaults lawful, and whence used. 203                      The building of Light-houses, Sea-marks or Beacons unlawful. 204                      Where none may erect any building upon his own ground within the Kings Forest. ib.                      Where none can be charged with building but by Act of Parliament. ib.                      What things the Lord of the soil may build where others have Common or Pasture. ib.                      Excess of Building very prejudicial. 201 Bulls. Where it shall be Felony to bring in any Bulls of excommunication from foreign powers, and how anciently punished. 100, 101 Burglary. The definition and derivation of the word. 63                      How anciently called. 65                      What shall be said an Entry into and breaking of a house to make it Burglary. 64                      What shall be said a Mansion house, the breaking whereof makes it Burglary. 64, 65                      Where it shall be Burglary in all, although but one enter. 64                      Where a man may commit Burglary though he break not the house. ib.                      To break an house with an intent to beat another, no Burglary. 65                      When Clergy was taken away from Burglars, and from what sort of Burglars. ib. Burning of Houses. Ancient opinions concerning burning of houses. 66                      What shall be said a burning of a house to make it Felony. ib.                      Where the burning of a house without an intent to do it, shall be Felony, and where not. 67                      What houses it shall be Felony to burn, and what not. ib.                      Where Clergy shall be allowed for burning of a barn, and where not.	Challenge. WHERE peremptory Challenge shall be allowed. 27                      The punishment of him that challenges peremptorily above 35 Jurors. 227                      In what cases a man may challenge peremptorily but 20 Jurors, and what he forfeits that does. 228 Chancery and Chancellour. In what cases the Chancery is a Court of Record, and in what not. 71                      Where the Lord Keeper shall be comprehended under the word Lord Chancellour. 113                      Where no Court of Equity under the penalty of a Premunire can proceed after judgment at the common law. 123, &amp;c.                      No Injunction after Verdict. 123, 124 Childwife, quid? 206 Church. The punishment of those that quarrel or strike in Church or Church-yard. 176, 177                      Who hath liberty to build Churches by the Common Law. 201                      Where a man may prescribe to have an Isle in a Church for him and his family. So of a Pew or Seat. 202                      Whether a Church or no Church, how it shall be tried. 203                      Consecration necessary to a Church or Chapel. ib. Clergy. What offenders may have their Clergy. 39                      When the benefit of Clergy was first taken away. 73                      By whom, of whom, and at what time Clergy may be demanded. 114                      The difference between a Clerk convict, and a Clerk attaind. ib.                      Where the King may pardon the burning of the hand. ib.                      None ought to make purgation at this day. ib.                      Where the ordinary may allow Clergy or disallow it. ib.                      Where Clergy shall be denied upon a trial in a foreign County, and where not. 114, 115                      Where Appellees shall not have their Clergy. 114                      No Clergy allowed anciently to them that rid armed. ib. Commissions. Where a Commission hac Vice may be adjourned. 31                      What Commissions are legal, and what not. 165
U 2	Common

THE TABLE.

Common of Pasture. What things the Lord of the soil may build where others have Common of Pasture. 204 Concealors and Concealments. An Exposition upon the Statute of 21 Jac. cap. 2. concerning Concealors. 188, &amp;c. In what time, and in what cases the King shall be barred by a concealment. 189, 190 In what time, and in what cases the Patentee of the King shall be barred by a concealment. 190, 191 Where the King shall have his fee-farm rent out of concealed lands. 191 Conclusions or Estoppels. No conclusions shall be wrought by inferences. 239 Where the pleading of a pardon of alienation shall be a conclusion to the Alienage in the Tenure, and where not. ib. Conspiracy. The description of it. 143 How the party grieved may be relieved against a conspiracy. ib. The judgment in case of conspiracy at the suit of the King, and at the suit of the party. 143, 222 Conspirators not bailable. 143 Constable and Marshall. The Constable and Marshall have no jurisdiction to hold Plea of any thing triable at the common Law. 26 Conviction. Where none can be convicted by verdict but the offences must be found by 24 at the least. 30 The difference between a Clerk convicted and a Clerk attaint. 114 Coroner. Where one is a Coroner both of the Kings house and County, an Indictment taken before him alone is good. 134 Corporation. None can erect a spiritual politick body without the Kings licence. 202 Coverture. Where a feme Covert may commit Larceny, and where not. 108 Where a man may be accessory to the wife, but not the wife to the husband. ib. Where the wife cannot steal the goods of her husband. 170	Council. Several sorts of Councils that the King hath. 129 What advantages a Prisoner may take in case of Treason or Felony to have Council assigned him. 137 Where no man arraigned for Treason or Felony can pray Council without shewing some cause. ib. Where in criminal causes there arises any matter of Law, the Court ex officio ought to assign the Prisoner Council though he requires it not. 230 The reasons why a man indicted of Treason or Felony may not have Council to plead for him. 137 Deodands. WHAT they are. 57 Where there shall be a Deodand when the party slain is within the age of discretion, and where not. ib. Where the sword of a stranger shall be a Deodand. 58 Where a ship, boat or vessel shall be a Deodand, and where not. ib. Depopulations. Depopulators punished at the Common law. 204 Depopulatores agrorum, why so called. ib. How the Indictment or Appeal against Depopulators shall be special and not general. ib. Where Depopulation may be prohibited before it be done. 205 Dies. The division of a natural Day. 63 Inter Canem &amp; Lupum, id est, Crepusculum. ib. Dilapidations. Dilapidation a good cause of deprivation. 204 Dispensations. In exposition upon the statute of 21 Jac. cap. 3. concerning Dispensations with Penal Laws. 186 Dispensations with Penal Laws were against the Common Law. 186, 187, &amp;c. All promises made of Dispensations or forfeitures are void. 187 Who may compound or dispense with a forfeiture. ib. The end of Empson and Dulley Masters of the forfeitures. ib. Divorce.
---	---

THE TABLE.

Divorce. What shall cause a Divorce a vinculo Matrimonii, and what a Menſa &amp; Thoro. 89 Donus Manſonalis. The diſiſion of it. 64 Dower. Where an heir ſhall inherit, the wife ſhall be endowed againſt him. 90 Where a Fine with Proclamations and 5 Years paſt ſhall bar the wife of her Dower, and where not. 216 Drunkenneſs. King Edgar's Law againſt drinking. 200 When drunkenneſs came firſt into England. ib. Duels. Duels againſt the Law of God, Nature, and the Realm. 157 The puniſhment of Duelliſts though no blood be ſhed. 158 How challenges are puniſhed. ib. What Duels are lawful, and what not. ib. Where Kings of England have offered to try their title by ſingle combate. 159 The difference inter Duellum &amp; Manumachiam. 221 Diet. The puniſhment for eating fleſh on faſting days. 200 Eccleſiaſtical. Eccleſiaſtical Perſons pleading exemption from Secular juriſdiction. 24 Where Judges of the Common Law may take cogniſance of a Statute made concerning matter merely ſpiritual. 43 Egyptians. Where it ſhall be Felony for Egyptians to ſtay within the Kingdom. 102 Embring. Embring days, when ſo called, and when they are. 200 Endowments. Who may erect Hoſpitals, Schools, or other works of charity, and endow them without licence, and who not. 202	Error. Where an Error in the judgement may reverse the execution, but an Error in the execution cannot reverse the judgement. 210 The judgment to reverse or avoid an Outlawry in caſe of Treafon or Felony. 214 Where a man is erroneouſly outlawed by Proceſs out of the Kings Bench, a writ of Error lies in the ſame Court. ib. Where a writ of Error lies to reverse an Attainder of High Treafon, and where not. 214, 215 Eſcape. Where a voluntary Eſcape ſhall be Felony in the Gaoler, and where not. 70 Eſcheat. Where treafon committed by a man attainted of felony ſhall not deſtroy the Eſcheats formerly veſted in the Lord. 213 Where an Eſcheat of land lawfully veſted may afterwards be deſtroyed. 232 Exaction. vide Extortion. Execution. Where the King cannot alter Execution otherwiſe than the judgement of Law doth direct. 52 Where the ſame Execution ſhall be done upon an implied Judgment, as upon an expreſs. ib. Where Execution ought to be according to the judgement, and that none for Felony ought to be beheaded, though ſome examples there be to the contrary. 211, 212, 217 Where Execution ought to be done by the right Officer. 217 Where Execution ſhall be reſpited to a woman quick with child once in the caſe of High Treafon as well as Felony. 17, 18 Where Execution was done upon a man for the death of a child, the child being then alive. 232 Executor. Where moderate funeral expences are to be allowed to an Executor, before any debt or duty whatſoever. 202 Exemplifications. What deeds or records may be exemplified under the great Seal, and what not. 173 Where a part of a Record ought not to be exemplified, but the whole Record itſelf. ib.
---	--

THE TABLE.

Exigent,
What a man that is put in Exigent shall forfeit.	232
How a man that is put in Exigent may excuse his absence.	233
Extortion and Exaction.
The difference between Bribery and Extortion.	147
Where several Officers were punished for Extortion and Exaction.	149
The fees of certain officers appointed by statute.	150
Falsifying of Attainders.
WHERE a stranger shall falsifie an Attainder by traversing the offence, and where by traversing the time of the offence.	230,
	231
Where an Attainder may be falsified by the plea of the party himself.	231, 232
Where an heir may falsifie an Attainder by plea.	231
Where a Fugam fecit may be falsified by traverse, and where by matter of Law.	232
Felo de se.
The description of him.	54
Where a man shall be said Felo de se , and where not.	ib.
Where the Executors or Administrators of Felo de se may traverse the inquisition taken, and where not.	54, 55
How a Felo de se shall be enquired of where the body cannot be found.	55
What Felo de se shall forfeit.	ib.
Where a joynt-tenant becoming Felo de se shall forfeit but part and where the whole.	ib.
Felony.
Where in Felony voluntas anciently reputabatur pro facto .	5, 161
All Treason implies a Felony.	15
Who shall be said a Felon for conspiring the death of any great person within the statute of 3 H. 7. c. 14. and who those persons are, and who have power to enquire of it, and to try it.	38
Where it shall be Felony to kill another at a Just or Turnament, and where not.	56
Where it shall be Felony by the statute of 3 H. 7. c. 2. for carrying away a woman against her will.	61
What woman that statute extendeth to, and what not.	ib.
		Where it shall be Felony by the statute of 5 H. 4. c. 5. for cutting out the tongues, or putting out the eyes of any man.	62
		The cutting off of a mans privities anciently Felony, now Mayhem.	62, 63, 118
		The cutting off of Ears no Felony.	63
		Where breakers of Prison shall be Felons.	69
		Where a relation shall never make a man a Felon.	70
		Where it shall be Felony by the statute of 8 H. 6. cap. 12, &c. to embesil Records.	70, 71. &c.
		Where Multiplication shall be Felony by the statute of 5 H. 4. cap. 4.	74
		Where hunting with Vizors shall be Felony by the statute of 1 H. 7. cap. 1.	75, 76
		Where embeseling the Kings armour by the statute of 21 El. cap. 4. shall be Felony.	78
		Where the serving of foreign Princes shall be Felony by the statute of 3 Jac. cap. 4.	80, 81
		Where the offence against this statute shall be tri'd.	80
		Where it shall be Felony in the Gaoler by dures of imprisonment to make a man become an Approver against his will.	91
		Where it shall be Felony to conceal and deny goods though he found them, and where not.	98, 108
		How a Felon that is in prison may be retained to serve the King in his wars.	239
		The judgement in case of Felony.	211
		What things are implied in the Judgement of Felony.	47
		Fines.
		Where a Fine with Proclamations and 5 years past shall bar the wife of her dower, and where not.	216
		Fines. vide Amercements.
		Flattery.
		The description of a Flatterer.	209
		An ancient Law against Flatterers.	ib.
		The sentence of Holy Writ against Flatterers.	ib.
		The miserable ends of divers Flatterers and Favourites.	208
		Flemensfreme, quid?	181
		Force, and Forcible Entry.
		Diversity of Forces.	161
		Where the Sheriff may remove a Force, but not restore possession.	ib.
		Where a man may gather Forces, and where not.	161, 162
		The

THE TABLE.

Where writ to remove a Force grounded upon the statute of 2 E. 3. cap. 3.	162	Where a man that pronounceth and publishes a deed to be true which he hath been told to be false, shall be punished within this statute.	171
Where and in what cases a man shall be restored to his possession upon a forcible entry.	242, 243	What Statutes and Recognizances are within this Law, and what not.	ib.
Forefallers.		Where a Forgery before this statute is not punishable by it.	172
The Etymology of the word.	195	Where Forgery shall be Felony, and where not, and its forfeiture.	103, 172
What a Forefaller is, and his punishment.	ib.	How Forgery anciently was punished.	168
Forefallers punishable at the Common Law.	196	Forgery whence so called.	169
Where an attempt by words to enhance the price of Merchandize is punishable.	ib.	Where the ante-dating of a Deed shall be adjudged Forgery.	ib.
Where a deceit to abate the price of wares is punishable.	ib.	Where a false Deed shall be as penal as a forged.	ib.
The policy of former times to prevent forefalling.	ib.	The making of a false Customary adjudged Forgery.	169, 170
Forfeiture.		Forein Plea.
What things a man attainted of Treason shall forfeit, and what not.	18, 19, 21	Where upon an indictment, a man may plead a Forein Plea, and where not.	27
Things that lie not in Tenure are not forfeitable for Felony, but shall extinguish.	21	Forests.
The forfeiture of a man convict of Heresie.	43	An exposition upon the statute of 1 H. 7. cap. 1, concerning hunting with vizors.	75, 76
What an offender that is killed in resisting an Officer shall forfeit.	56, 227	What shall be said Forests, Parks, and Warrens within this statute.	76
Confiscare, unde?	227	What shall be said a Concealment within this statute.	77, 78
Where goods forfeited ought to appear upon Record, and where not.	ib.	Where none may erect any building upon his own ground within the Kings Forest.	204
Where a Felon waves his own goods they are forfeited, though they be not properly Bona Waviata .	ib.	Franchises.
In an Appeal of robbery, if the Plaintiff omit any of the goods stolen, they are forfeited.	ib.	What the Franchises de Furca &amp; Fossa be.	58
Where the Plaintiff for a false Appeal shall forfeit his goods.	ib.	Fugam Fecit.
Where the goods and issues that are attached or distrain'd by process out of any Court shall be forfeited, and what the Sheriffs Return shall be thereon.	228	Where a Fugam fecit may be falsified by traverse, and where by matter of Law.	232
Where none may seize the goods of any person before conviction, and the punishment of them that do it.	228, 229	Fugitives.
The begging of the estate of a man before Attainder or conviction altogether unlawful.	229	What statutes have been made and are now in force against Fugitives.	178
No goods of an Offender ought to be searched or inventoried before Indictment, nor removed before conviction.	ib.	Where and how the Common Law prohibited men to pass beyond the Seas without the Kings license.	178, &c.
Forgery.		What persons may go beyond Sea without license, and what not.	179, 180
An exposition upon the statute of 5 El. cap. 14. concerning Forgery.	168	The punishment of such as go beyond Sea without License, or return not at the Kings command.	ibid.
Where the inserting of a clause into a Will without direction of the devisor shall be a Forgery within this Statute.	170	By what Seals the King may give License to travel, and by what Seals he may command back again.	180
Where the Forgery of a Lease or a Rent for years is within this statute.	ib.	Where a Subject of one Kingdom flies into another, he ought not by the Law of Nations to be sent back again.	ib.

T H E T A B L E.

Gentlemen. THE ancient punishment of a Russian striking a Gentleman. 141, 157 Gaoler and Prisoner. How Prisoners ought to be used. 34, 35 Where a Prisoner by dares of the Gaoler comes to an untimely end, it is murder in the Gaoler. 52, 91 Where it shall be Felony in a Gaoler by dares of imprisonment to make a man become an Approver against his will. 91 Where the Coroner ought to sit upon the Body of every Prisoner that dies in Prison. 52, 91 Where it shall be Felony in the Northern Counties to imprison or detain another against their will. 106 How a man that is imprisoned must be discharged. 209 Where a Judge or Justice may discharge a man out of Prison, and where not. ib. Where the Plaintiff may discharge the Defendant out of Prison, and where not. 209, 210 Guns. Ordnance, whence so called. 79 No Guns ought to be transported. 57 Habiliment. WHAT it signifies. 9 Hawks. An exposition upon the statute of 37 E. 3. cap. 19, concerning stealing of Hawks. 97 What Hawks it shall be Felony to steal by this Law, and what not. 97, 98 The punishment anciently for taking away and concealing a Hawk. 97 In what Hawks a man may have a property. 98, 99 How the party that finds a Hawk ought to demean himself. 97, &amp;c. Heir. Nun est Hæres viventis. 9 Heretic. Who are Judges of Heresie. 39, 40, 42 What shall be accounted Heresie. 40, 42 Lollards formerly indicted for Heresie. 41 The punishment of an Heretick. 43, 44 At what time an Heretick may abjure his opinion. 43	The forfeiture of one convict of Heresie. 43 Words may make an Heretick, but no Traitor. 14 Hobelarius; quid? 79 Hockettors or Hocquetours; quid? 175 Homicide. How many sorts of Homicides there are. 54 What Homicides are Felony, and what not. 54, 55 The description of Homicide. 55 What Homicide se defendendo is, and what he shall forfeit. 56 Where a man ought to give back to prevent Homicide, and where not. ib. What Homicide per Infortunium is, and what he forfeits. 56, 57 The definition and derivation of Chancesmedy. 57 Where the Jury cannot find generally that the party killed him se defendendo, but the case ought to be specially. 220 Where an Officer may kill an Offender that resists or flies away, and where not. 221 Hue and Cry. From whence it is derived, and how divided. 116 The description of Hue and Cry at the Common Law. ibid. The punishment of them that shall not levy or pursue an Hue and Cry. 117 5 Cases wherein Hue and Cry shall be by statute. ib. A difference between the prosecution of a Hue and Cry at the Common Law, and of an Hue and Cry by the statute. ib. The punishment of him that levies a Hue and Cry upon a fained cause. 118 Where the City of London was taken into the Kings hands for not levying a Hue and Cry. ib. Indictment. THE form of an Indictment for Treason. 12 Proditorie necessarily to be used in all Indictments for Treason. 4, 15 The Indictments of Treason and Felony against Edward Duke of Somerset. 12, 13 Where a general Indictment shall be good without expressing any particular. 16 Where an Indictment of a Peer shall be by Freeholders. 26 Where upon an Indictment a man may plead a forein plea, and where not. 27 The
--	--

THE TABLE.

The Indictment of Wefon for poisoning Sir Thomas Overbury, and the proceedings against him and his Accessories. 49, 50, 135
 The difference between the Indictment for Burglary, and burning of houses. 67
 An Indictment, Quare bona Capella in Custodia, &c. is good. 110
 Where one man is Coroner both of the Kings house and County, an Indictment taken before him alone is good. 134
 Where the substance of an Indictment is proved, no matter for circumstances. 135
 Where a man is indicted for poisoning another, no other cause of his death can be given in evidence. ib.
 Where a Murder is laid in an Indictment to be by one kind of weapon, any other kind of weapon may be given in evidence. ib.
 The Indictments against Empson and Dudley. 208
 Where upon an insufficient Indictment, the party may be indicted anew, and where not. 214
 Where the very day of a Felony committed is not necessary in an Indictment. 230

Infant.

Where an Infant is capable of committing Treason, and where not. 4, 5

Informers.

An exposition upon the statute of 21 Jac. cap. 4. concerning Informers. 191
 Where and before whom an Information upon a penal statute shall be tried by this Law. 193
 Where an Information is laid in a foreign County, the Defendant shall be found not guilty. ib.
 Where the Informer shall take an Oath that he believes the offence was committed within a year before the Information brought, and in no other County. ib.
 Where in Informations upon Penal Laws, the Defendant may plead the general issue. ib.
 Where an Action upon a Penal Statute must be brought by Information or Original, and not by Bill. 194
 Where the Kings Attorney may proceed for the King after the death of the Informer. ib.
 Where an Informer may proceed for his part although the Kings Attorney enter a Non vult prosequi for the King. ib.
 Where an Informer may proceed upon a Popular Action, notwithstanding the Kings Pardon of the offence, and where not. 194, 195

Ingrosser.

From whence derived. 195
 Salt, a victual within the statute of 5 E. 6. cap. 14. that may be ingrossed. ib.
 Where the Ingrossing of Apples is not punishable by that statute. ib.
 Where a Merchant that sells in gross shall be termed an Ingrosser, and where not. 196

Institution.

Where a Church shall be said full by Institution, and where not. 155

Joint-tenant.

Where a Joint-tenant becoming Felo de se shall forfeit but part, and where the whole. 55
 Where a release to one joynt-debtor shall enure to both, and where not. 239

Ireland.

Where Ireland shall be said out of the Realm, and where not. 11, 18
 Where a writ of Error shall be maintainable here in the Kings Bench, upon a judgment given in the Kings Bench in Ireland. 18

Judges and Justices.

Where Judges in criminal causes ought not to deliver their opinions before-hand. 29
 Where Justices of Peace are not included under the name of Justices of Oyer and Terminer. 103
 The punishment of those that seek revenge against a Judge, or any other, for doing any thing in discharge of their office, or for complaining in any Court of Justice. 142
 The attainder of certain Judges. 146, 147
 The properties of a Judge, and how he ought to be qualified. 147, 225
 Certain provisions made against strangers executing any judicial offices. 225, 226
 The oath of the Kings Justices in Anno 18 E. 3. printed amongst the statutes, no Act of Parliament. 223, 224
 Judgement given against a corrupt Judge. 223

Judgement.

Unde derivatur. 210
 How many sorts of Judgements there are. ib.
 The Judgement in case of High Treason how warranted by Scripture, and what is implied in it. 20, 211
 The

T H E T A B L E.

The Judgement in case of Petit Treason. 20, 211	Where in an Assise the Jury is informed but on one side, there is good cause of Challenge. 175
The Judgement in case of Felony. 211	Where Attaints shall be brought. 223
The Judgement in case of an Appeal where the Defendant is slain or vanquished. 212	The Judgement in an Attaint. 222
The Judgement to reverse or avoid an Outlawry in case of Treason or Felony. 214	Where the party grieved may have an Attaint at the Common Law, or grounded upon the Statute of 23 H. 8. cap. 3, at his election. 223
The Judgement in case of abjuration, and what is implied in it. 217	Larceny.
The Judgement in case of Petit Larceny. 218	T HE description and derivation of it. 107
The Judgement in case of Misprision of Treason. ib.	Where there must be a felonious taking as well as a felonious carrying away, to make a Larceny. ib.
The Judgement for striking in Westminster Hall sitting the Court. ib.	What shall be said a felonious taking, to make a Larceny. 107, 108
The Judgement for striking and drawing blood in the Kings Court. ib.	What shall be said a felonious carrying away, to make a Larceny. 108, 109
The Judgement in case of a Premuure. ib.	Of what things Larceny may be committed. 109, 110
The Judgement in case of Theftbote. ib.	The judgement and punishment of Petit Larceny. 109, 218
The Judgement where the party is fined, and where amerced. ib.	Where a man may have a property in some things, and yet no Larceny can be committed of them. 109
The Judgement given for the death of a man per Infortunium . 220	Where a Larceny may be committed of things contra naturam , and where not. 109, 110
The Judgement given for the death of a man se defendendo . ib.	The punishment of such as steal the eggs of any Bird or Fowl. 110
The Judgement given for the death of a man that was slain attempting to rob another. ib.	Where it is Larceny to steal the sheets from the dead. ib.
The Judgement in case of Conspiracy at the suit of the King, and at the suit of a party. 222	Where a man may steal his own goods. ib.
The Judgement given in an Attaint. ib.	Where the wife cannot steal the goods of her husband. ib.
A Judgement given against a corrupt Judge. 223	Where an Attainder of Petit Larceny shall be no plea to another Felony. 213
Where a man that stands mute upon an Indictment of Treason shall receive the same Judgement as if he were convicted by Verdict or Confession. 24	Where a man flies, or is put in Exigent for Petit Larceny, he forfeits his goods. 218
Where an Approver refusing the Combate shall have Judgement as in case of Petit Treason. 21	Law.
What things are implied in the Judgement against a Felon. 47	How our Law is a Law of it self divided from all others. 100
Where a saying that is repugnant to the express Judgement shall be void. ib.	Where the Law shall give no benefit to any thing that is done in fraudem Legis . 64, 108
When the certain judgement for Felony came in. 53	What amittit liberam Legem signifies. 221, 222
Where no Court of Equity under penalty of a Premuure can proceed after judgement at the Common Law. 123, &c.	Letherwite, quid? 206
Jurors.	Libels.
What men grand Jurors ought to be. 32, 33	A Libel punished at the Common Law. 374
The punishment of a grand Juror for declaring publickly who is indicted. 106, 107	A French Libel punishable. ib.
The punishment of those that shall abuse Jurors. 142	London.
Perjury in Jurors how anciently, and how now punished. 163	Where the Mayor of London shall be principal in Commissions in London by the Charter of the City, and where not. 73
	What

THE TABLE.

What part of the Tower is within London, and what within Middlesex. . . . .	136	Where it shall be Felony to bring in, pay, or coin foreign Moneys. . . . .	92
The custom of London for entering into a house, and carrying a Harlot to prison, good. . . . .	206	Where the transportation of silver, and the importation of evil Money shall be Felony, and in whom. . . . .	92, 93
Machecarii.		Monopoly.
ITS description and derivation. . . . .	110	The definition and Etymology of it. . . . .	181
Maihem.		All Monopolies against the fundamental Laws of the Land, and punished by them. . . . .	ib.
The ancient punishment of it. . . . .	118	An exposition upon the Statute of 21 Jac. cap. 3. concerning Monopolies. . . . .	181, 182, &c.
Where felonia Maihemavit ought to be in all Appeals and indictments of Maihem. . . . .	ib.	What offices and other priviledges are excepted out of this Statute, . . . . .	185
Where the cutting off of a mans privities was anciently Felony, now Maihem only. . . . .	62, 63, 118	Where and how Monopolies shall be tried, and the penalty of such as delay the Actions. . . . .	182, 183
Marriage.		Where new Manufactures shall be a Monopoly, and where not. . . . .	184
Where a man may disagree to a Marriage, though he were of the age of consent at the time of the marriage solemnized. . . . .	89	Monuments.
The ancient punishment for a Christian marrying with a Jew, . . . . .	ib.	The punishment of those that shall deface any tomb or Monument. . . . .	202
Marshall, vide Constable.		Where the erecting of a tomb shall be lawful, and where not. . . . .	ib.
Medietas Linguae. vide Trial.		The reverence to be given to Monuments, and the use of them. . . . .	202, 203
Metall.		Monumentum, unde? . . . . .	203
Six sorts of them; what they are. . . . .	74	Where our law takes no cognizance of the burials of the dead. . . . .	ib.
Mines.		Cadaver, unde? . . . . .	ib.
What Mines belong to the King, and what to the Subject. . . . .	132	Where the Jews anciently had their Burial. . . . .	ibid.
Misprision.		Mordancestor.
The derivation of the word, and the definition or signification of it. . . . .	35	Where a writ of Mordancestor is maintainable, though there be no immediate descent to the heir. . . . .	231
Several sorts of Misprisions, and their punishments. . . . .	36, 139, 140	Multiplication.
Where words without an overt Act are as punishable as Misprision of Treason. . . . .	14	An Exposition upon the Statute of 5 H. 4. cap. 4. concerning Multiplication. . . . .	74
Where forging or counterfeiting of foreign Money is Misprision of Treason. . . . .	17, 36	Licences granted by the King to certain persons to use the Art of Multiplication. . . . .	ib.
Every Treason and Felony includes in it a Misprision. . . . .	140	Murder.
Where to strike in Westminster Hall or the Kings Palace is a great Misprision, and the punishment of it. . . . .	ib.	The derivation and Etymology of it. . . . .	47, 48
Where it shall be a Misprision to rescue a Prisoner, and what he shall forfeit. . . . .	142	Poisoning the worst of Murders. . . . .	48
What Courts it shall be a Misprision to strike in, and in what not. . . . .	ib.	How many waies a man may be poisoned. . . . .	52
The judgement in case of Misprision of Treason. . . . .	218	What persons are capable of being murdered. . . . .	50
Money.		The drowning of certain Jews adjudged Murder. . . . .	ib.
No Money is to be imposed upon the Subject but of gold and silver. . . . .	17	Where it is no Murder to kill an Infant in Futre sa Mere. . . . .	ib.
		What

T H E T A B L E.

What shall be said malice prepenced to make a Murder. 51	Sacramentum, Jusamentum, &amp; Jusjurandum unde? 167
Where a mistake in the Principal shall make the Accessory guilty of Murder, and where not. ib.	An Oath not to be imposed or altered but by Authority of Parliament. ib.
Where there ought to be a continued malice to make it Murder, and where not. ib.	The punishment of such as shall administer an Oath without authority of Law. ib.
How many kinds there be of malice implied. ib.	What things are requisite to a true Oath. 166
What Officers it is Murder to kill. 52	Where a Court may administer the Oath of Allegiance to a suspicious person. 167
Where to kill another without provocation is malice implied. ib.	Office.
Where a prisoner by duress of the Gaoler comes to an untimely end, it is Murder in the Gaoler. 52, 91	Where no Office is requisite to find a title which stands with the title of the King. 216
Where a Sheriff or other Officer executes an offender contrary to the judgement, it is Murder in them. 52	Ordinance. vide Guns.
Where it is Murder for any one to execute another by Martial Law in time of Peace. ib.	Ordinary.
How the year and day in case of Murder shall be counted. 53	The fees of the Ordinary for Probate, &amp;c. 149, 150
Where the killing of another by misfortune shall be Murder, and where not. 56, 57	Where, and how the Ordinary may dispose of some goods of an Intestate to pious uses. 150
Several Laws made to prohibit pardons of wilful Murder. 157	Outlawry.
Murder never pardoned by express name. 235	Where a man out of the Realm at the time of an Outlawry pronounced may reverse it, and where not. 32
News.	Where a man out of the Realm may be Outlawed for Treason, and how he may discharge himself of it. 216
THE ancient punishment to those that spread false news. 198	Where the Court may award execution upon one that is taken upon a Capias Utlegatum for Felony, and where not. 212
Non compos mentis.	By a pardon of an Outlawry the goods are not restored. 234
Where a man non compos mentis may commit Treason, and where not. 4, 6	Pagans.
Where a man non compos mentis shall not answer for a Felony or a Treason by him committed, nor shall suffer execution for them. ib.	AN ancient Law against the abuse of Pagans. 209
Non obstante.	Pain fort &amp; dure.
Where the King by a Non obstante may dispense with a penal Law, and where not. 154	In what cases a man that stands mute shall have judgement of Pain fort &amp; dure , and in what not. 217
Where the King by a Non obstante may dispense with the Statutes concerning pardons. 236	Where the judgement of Pain fort &amp; dure shall be no plea to a former Felony. 213
Nufance.	Pardon.
Where none ought to erect any building to anothers Nufance. 201, 202	The description and Etymology of it. 233
Oath.	How many sorts of Pardons there are. ib.
THE definition and derivation of it. 165	Where a Pardon granted by a King de jure shall be void. 7
How many sorts of Oaths there are. ib.	Where a Pardon of Felonies shall be no Pardon of Treason at this day. 15
	What the King can restore by a Pardon, and what not. 233
	What

T H E T A B L E.

What Pardons the Court ought to take notice of without pleading.	234
The form of pleading a general Pardon.	ib.
Where an offence is excepted out of any general Pardon, an Attainder for that offence is also excepted.	234, 238
Where a Writ of allowance is necessary to a Pardon, and where not.	234, 235
Forms of ancient Pardons.	235
Where the King pardons Señam pacis de homicidiis , he pardons the offence itself.	ib.
Where the foundation of a debt is pardoned, the debt itself is pardoned.	236
What, and how the King may pardon, and what not.	236, 237
How far a pardon of all Felonies extends.	236
Where the King may dispense with the Statutes concerning Pardons with a Non obstante .	ib.
Where the King cannot pardon an Appellee.	237
Where the King may pardon a collateral Act in an Appellee.	ib.
Where the King may pardon an exemplary punishment that tends not to the damage of the Plaintiff.	ib.
Where the King may pardon a corporal punishment which tendeth to common example.	171
Where in some Actions the King may pardon some things though a Subject be sole party, and in other actions the King can pardon nothing though himself be sole party.	237
Where a Bond is made to a Subject or to the King pro bono publico , the Subject can neither release it, nor the King pardon it.	238
What actions popular the King may pardon, and what not.	ibid.
What suits in the Star-chamber the King may pardon, and what not.	ib.
Where Suppresso veri , or expressio falsi shall avoid a Pardon.	ib.
Where an Outlawry shall be pardoned, though the King be not certainly informed.	ib.
Where the King may pardon Heresie, and any other offence punishable in the Ecclesiastical Court.	ib.
Where the King pardons the Debt, the Action is discharged; so if he pardons the Action, the Debt is discharged.	239
Where the King may pardon the Outlawry, and yet the fine remain.	ib.
Where the King under the Great Seal may command all process and proceedings in criminal causes to cease.	ib.
Where a Superſedeas was sent to the Judges to proceed no further against one that had obtained his pardon.	137
		Parliament.
		Names appropriated to certain Parliaments.	2
		The use of proclaiming Acts of Parliament.	41
		How dangerous it is to bring new words into Acts of Parliament.	126
		No Armour is to be worn, no plays or games used where the Parliament is holden.	160
		The King and one House of Parliament alone, or both houses of Parliament without the King, cannot declare a Treason within the Statute of 25 E. 3.	22
		Peers.
		Where the Indictment of a Peer is by Freeholders.	26
		How the Trial of a Peer and a common person differs, and the form of his Trial.	28, 29
		Where a Peer cannot waive his Trial by Peers.	30
		No Bishop, Abbot, &c. shall be tried by Peers.	ib.
		In what cases a Peer shall be tried by Peers, and in what not.	ib.
		What Lords shall be tried by Peers, and what not.	ib.
		How Lords Spiritual ought to withdraw at all Trials of Peers in Parliament, but they may make their Proxies.	31
		How a Peer shall be outlawed.	ibid.
		Pensions.
		Where it is not lawful to receive a Pension from any Foreign State.	144
		Pera, quid?	204
		Perjury.
		An Exposition upon the Statute of 5 El. cap. 9. concerning Perjury.	163, 164
		Where in an Action brought upon this Statute, the Plaintiff ought to declare in certainty whether the Defendant was perjured by his own proper act, or by subornation.	167
		Where in an Action brought upon the Statute, it shall not be enough to say that the Defendant falso dixit &amp; deposuit , but he must say likewise voluntarie &amp; corrupte .	ib.
		The ancient punishment of Perjury.	163
		Perjury, whence so called.	ib.
		Perjury in Jurors how anciently, and how now punished.	ib.
		Perjury in a witness punished at the Common Law.	164
		Where Perjury shall be punished in the Ecclesiastical Court, and where not.	ib.
		Where Perjury upon an information is punishable, and not upon an indictment.	ib.

The

THE TABLE.

The definition of Perjury.	164	Where auterfois attainé for another offence is a good Plea, and where not.	213
Where a false oath shall be Perjury, and where not.	166	Where the judgement of Pain fort &amp; dure shall be no Plea to a former Felony.	ib.
Where Perjury ought to be in a Judicial proceeding.	ib.	Where an Attainder of Petit Larceny shall be no Plea to another Felony.	ib.
Where to call another perjurd man, will bear an Action, and foresworn man, none.	ib.	Where auterfois acquit is a good Plea, and where not.	ib.
How Perjury may answer in the Chancery, Exchequer chamber, &c. shall be punished.	ib.	Where upon an Indictment or Appeal for the death of a man, it is found that he killed him in his own defence, he shall be acquit for ever.	213, 214
Where an oath ought to be absolute to make it perjury.	ib.	Where auterfois convict devant judgement is a good Plea, and where not.	214
How a man that swears falsely, and yet swears the truth, shall be punished.	ib.	Where an Attainder is no Plea in an Action of Debt, or any other Action.	215
Where Perjury ought to be in a point material.	167	Where a Defendant may plead without having a day in Court, and where not.	214, 236
Subornation ; unde derivatur ? ib.
What a Suborner of witnesses shall forfeit.	ib.	Polygamy.
Where an Action lies in the Chancery for Perjury committed there.	ib.	The definition of it, and how it differs from Bigamy.	88
Pillory and Tumbrel.
The derivation and signification of them.	219	An Exposition upon the Statute of 1 Jac. cap. 11. concerning Polygamy.	ib.
What the punishments of them be.	ib.	At what age a man or woman may be guilty of Polygamy.	ib.
A Pillory and Tumbrel ought to be in every Leet and Market.	ib.	Where a Marriage de facto , and not de jure , may make a man guilty of Polygamy.	ib.
The Pillory and Tumbrel were ordained for great offences only.	ib.	Where notice of a Husbands life is material to make a wife guilty of Polygamy, and where not.	ib.
Piracy.
The Etymology of the word.	112	Where, and what divorces shall save a man from being guilty of Polygamy.	89
An exposition upon the statute of 28 H. 8. cap. 15. concerning Piracy.	111	Powdike.
How Piracy was punished before this Act.	112	Where it shall be Felony to cut down the Powdike in Marshland in Norfolk.	106
Where a Pardon of all Felonies shall not extend to Piracy.	ib.	Priests.
Where there shall be no corruption of blood in case of Piracy.	ib.	Where it shall be Felony to receive a Jesuit or Priest.	101
No Accessories to Piracy.	ib.	Premunire.
Where Piracy was anciently Treason, and where not.	8, 113	Whence so called.	120
Where Piracy may be committed between the high-water and low-water mark.	113	An Exposition upon the Statute of 27 E. 3. cap. 1. and other Statutes concerning Premunires.	119, 120, &c.
The punishment of a Pirate standing mute.	114	Where suits in the Ecclesiastical Courts concerning temporal causes shall incur a Premunire.	120, 121, 122
Plague.
An Exposition upon the statute of 1 Jac. cap. 31. concerning Plague-sores.	90	What Courts it shall incur a Premunire to sue in.	120, 121
Plea.
Where auter fois attainé for the same offence is a good Plea, and where not.	213	The Bishop of Norwich attaind in a Premunire, for holding plea of a temporal cause.	121
		Where no Court of Equity under penalty of a Premunire can proceed after judgement at the Common Law.	123, &c.
		Where

THE TABLE.

Where the Defendant in a Premunire ought to appear in person, and not by Attorney. 125 Where he that procures another to sue in the Ecclesiastical Court may be made a Principal in a Premunire. ib. The punishment of a Premunire. 126 What lands and hereditaments a man convict of a Premunire shall forfeit. ib. How largely the word [Favor] in the statute of 16 R. 2. c. 5. concerning Premunires was construed. ib. What statutes have been made, and are now in force concerning Premunires, 126, 127 The form of a renunciation in case of a Premunire. 127 The judgement in case of a Premunire. 218 Presentation. Where a Garden in Soccage shall not present to an Advowson, nor an heir of Tenant in Capite that hath livery cum exitibus. 156 Prince. The Prince committed to prison by the Chief Justice of the Kings Bench. 225 Principal and Accessory. In what Treasons all are Principals, and in what not. 9, 16, 21, 138 Where an Accessory cannot be guilty of Petit Treason when the Principal is guilty of Felony only. 20 Where there may be Accessories after a Witchcraft committed as well as before. 45 How the trial shall be where the Felony is done in one County, and the Accessory is guilty in another. 49, 135 Where a mistake in the Principal shall make the Accessory guilty of Murder, and where not. 51 Where the Common Law or Statute Law makes a Felony, Accessories are still included. 59, 72 Where the being present, and abetting an offence, makes all Principals, though the offence be personal. 59, 64 Where a man may be Accessory to his wife, but not the wife to the husband. 103 Where the Accessory shall not be tried if the Principal hath his Clergy, or be pardoned. 114, 139 Where a man may be Accessory to the stealing of his own goods. 134 Who shall be said a Principal, and who an Accessory. 138 Where a man may be Principal, though he be not present at the act. ib.	Where the Accessory cannot be guilty of a greater offence then the Principal. 139 Where a man may be both Principal and Accessory. ib. Where the Attainder of an Accessory depends upon the Attainder of the Principal. 231, 232 Prisoners. vide Gaoler. Priviledges. Westminster Hall, and the Kings Palaces, priviledged places from all Summons or Citations. 140, 141 Where an ancient Priviledge shall remain to a new erection, and where not. 204 Proclamations. Where Proclamations are of great force. 162 Prophecies. The punishment of Prophefying. 128 The vanity and uncertainty of predictions. ib. Protections. Where no Protection lies for a Felon, nor any that is Prisoner to the Court. 240 Provisors. An exposition upon the statute of 13 R. 2. c. 3. concerning Provisors. 100 All provisions against the Common Law. ib. Punishments. Exemplary Punishments adjudged in the Kings Bench. 219, 220 Ancient Rules of Law in Corporal punishment. 220 Purveyors. Wherein Purveyors may commit Felony. 82 An Exposition upon the Statutes of Purveyors. ib. Where a Purveyor shall observe a discharge of Purveyance, and where not. ib. Where a Purveyor shall have his remedy at the Common Law, and not by a Privy Seal. ib. A Commission granted for the taking up of Boies for the King's Chappel. ib. How and in what manner the King shall have purveyance of Salt-peire. 82, 83, &amp;c. Quare
--	---

T H E T A B L E.

Quare Impedit.		Where, and in what cases a man shall be re- stored to his possession upon a forcible entry. 241, 242
N O damages in a Quare Impedit or Dar- rains presentment at the Common Law. 156		Where Restitution may be granted by writ after execution upon a Statute Staple. 243
Rack. vide Torture.
Rape.		Riots, Routs, and unlawful Assemblies.
W HAT Rape is, and the punishment of it at the Common Law. 60		The description of them and their deriva- tion. 176
What makes a Rape, and what not. 59, 60		The difference between levying of war, and committing of a great Riot. 9, 10
The heinousness of the offence. 60		Roberdfmen.
Appeals of Rape. ib.		Whence so called. 197
Records.		Several Statutes made against them. ib.
An Exposition upon the Statute of 8 H. 6. cap. 12. concerning embezzling of Records. 70, 71, &c.		The description of Robin Hood . ib.
The punishment of this offence before this Statute. 71		Robbery.
What Records it shall be Felony to embezzle within this Statute. 72		The definition and derivation of it. 68
Where this Statute shall be a sufficient Com- mission to the Justices of either Bench to enquire of this Felony, and where not. 73		The difference between a Robber and a Cut- purse. ib.
The definition and derivation of a Record. 71		The punishment now and anciently of Cut- purses. ib.
A Record is proved by itself, and ought to be common to all. ib.		What shall be said a taking in case of Rob- bery, and what shall be said a taking from his person. 68, 69
In what cases the Chancery is a Court of Record, and in what not. ib.		Rogues.
A Judge fined for razing a Record. 72		Where it shall be Felony in dangerous Rogues to beg or wander. 103
Redoubbons and Addoubbons.		Roy.
The description of them. 134		Where a pardon granted by a King de Jure shall be void. 7
Regrator; unde ?	195	Where a King is King before Coronation. ib.
Relation.		Where the King may put a man to answer without Indictment or Presentment. 136
Where a Relation shall never make a man a Felon. 70		Where a man shall lose his right hand for striking in the King's Palace, and where not, and how anciently it was punished. 140
Where a Relation shall never work a bar, nor a wrong to a stranger. 216		The Kings Palace a privileged place from all Summons or Citations. 140, 141
Religion.		What shall be said the Kings Will. 146
Where a man that is entred into Religion cannot be a purchaser to him and to his heirs. 215		Where a Subject is bound to do any thing to the King as his Liege Lord, no bond is to be exacted of him to do it. 149
Restitution.		All bonds or writings made to the Kings dishonour, are against Law, and void. ib.
What it is, and how divided. 240		Sacriledge.
Several sorts of Restitutions. 242		T H E Etymology of it. 64.
What Restitution the King may make, and what not. 240		Sakebere.
Where Restitution is much favoured in Law, and several cases of it. 241, 242		What it signifies, and from whence it is de- rived. 69
Where Restitution shall be of goods stolen, and to whom. 242		Saving.

THE TABLE

Saving. Where a saving is repugnant to the express judgement, it shall be void. 47 Seal. Sigillum, quid? 169 Servants. Where it shall be Felony in servants to embesfil their Masters goods after their death. 104 Where it shall be Felony in Servants to embesfil their Masters goods committed to their trust. 105 What Servants this Felony shall extend to, and to what goods. ib. Sheep. The penalty of conveying sheep alive out of the Realm. 104 Sheriff. Where the Sheriff may raise the Poffe Comitatus, and where not. 161 Simony. Whence so called. 153 An Exposition upon the Statute of 31 El. cap. 6. concerning Simony. ib. Where an Usurper may commit Simony. ib. Where the Simony of an Usurper shall not prejudice the rightful Patron. ib. In what the Simony of the Patron only shall prejudice the Incumbent, and in what not. 154 What a Simonist shall forfeit. ib. The punishment of those that shall take or give any reward for Resignations, admissions to Churches, or any other Ecclesiastical promotions. 155, 156 Simony and perjury go together. 156 Soldiers, An Exposition upon the Statute of 39 El. cap. 17. concerning wand'ring Souldiers. 85 How Souldiers anciently were retained. 86 Where a Souldier was fined for refusing to re-deliver his armour. 79 An Exposition upon the Statutes concerning Souldiers departing without License. ib. How a Souldier that departs without license shall be proceeded against, though he be never taken. 87 Where a Souldier that departs without License shall have his Clergy, and where not. ib. III. INST.	The ancient punishment of Souldiers that depart without License. ib. Statutes. Where a Statute is made contrary to Magna Charta, it shall be holden for none. 111 An Exposition upon these Statutes following. 2 E. 3. cap. 3. concerning riding armed. 160 25 E. 3. cap. 2. of Treasons. 1, &amp;c. 37 E. 3. cap. 1. concerning Premunires. 119 27 E. 3. cap. 3. Statutum Stapule. 95 37 E. 3. cap. 19. concerning stealing of Hawks. 97 13 R. 2. cap. 13. concerning Provisors. 100 5 H. 4. cap. 4. concerning Multiplication. 74 5 H. 4. cap. 5. concerning cutting out of Tongues. 62 11 H. 4. cap. 9. concerning Trials. 32 8 H. 6. cap. 12. concerning embesfelling of Records. 70 1 H. 7. cap. 7. concerning hunting with Vifors. 75 3 H. 7. cap. 2. concerning the carrying of women away against their will. 61 3 H. 7. cap. 14. of Felony for conspiring the death of the King, or of any Privy Counsellor. 37 3 H. 8. cap. 12. concerning Trials. 33 28 H. 8. cap. 15. concerning Piracy. 111 28 H. 8. cap. 1. concerning false Tokens. 133 35 H. 8. cap. 2. concerning Trials, of Foreign Treasons. 11 1 E. 6. cap. 2. concerning witnesses in case of Treason. 24 2 E. 6. cap. 24. concerning Trials. 43 5 E. 6. cap. 11. concerning Treasons. 24 1 Mar. cap. 1. concerning Treasons. 23 1 &amp; 2 Phil. &amp; Mar. cap. 10. concerning Treasons. 24 5 El. cap. 9. concerning Perjury. 163, 164 5 El. cap. 14. concerning Forgery. 163 21 El. cap. 4. against embesfiling of the Kings Armour. 78 31 El. cap. 6. concerning Simony. 153 39 El. cap. 17. concerning wandering Souldiers. 85 1 Jac. cap. 11. concerning Polygamy. 88 1 Jac. cap. 12. concerning Witchcraft. 45, 46 1 Jac. cap. 31. concerning Plague-soars. 90 3 Jac. cap. 4. concerning the serving of Foreign Princes. 80, 81 21 Jac. cap. 2. concerning Concealors. 188, &amp;c. 21 Jac. cap. 3. concerning Monopolies and Dispensations. 181, 186 21 Jac. cap. 4. concerning Informers. 191
---	--

THE TABLE.

Superfedeas. Where a Superfedeas was sent to the Judges to proceed no further against one that had obtained his pardon. 137 Sylliva or Sulliva; quid? 204 Theftbote. THE definition and Etymology of it. 134  ib. The punishment of it. ib.            What shall be said Theftbote, and what not. ib.            The judgement in case of Theftbote. 213 Tort. No man shall take advantage of his own Tort. 215 Torture. No Torture to be used by our Law. 35            By whom the Rack was first brought in. ib. Treason. An Exposition upon the statute of 25 E. 3. cap. 2. de Proditionibus. 1, 2, &amp;c.            What are Treasons by the said statute. 3            What King is within this statute. 6, 7            What shall be said a levying of war within this statute to make a Treason. 9, 10, 12            What shall be said an adhering to the Kings enemies to make a Treason, within this statute. 10            What shall be said a counterfeiting of the Great Seal to make a Treason within this Law. 15, 16            What shall be said a counterfeiting of the Kings Money to make a Treason within this Law. 16, 17, 18.            What shall be said a bringing in of counterfeit Money into this Realm to make it Treason within this Law. 18            Where the Judges may not construe this statute a Simili, or, a minore ad majus. 22            The King and one House of Parliament alone, or both Houses of Parliament without the King, cannot declare a Treason within this statute. ib.            An Exposition upon the statute of 1 Mar. cap. 1. concerning Treasons. 23, 24, &amp;c.            Where declarations of Treason may have limitations. 24            Treason its derivation, and how divided. 4	Proditio necessarily to be used in all Indictments of Treason. 4, 15            Where a man non compos mentis, nor an Infant is capable of committing Treason at this day. 4, 6            What Aliens may commit Treason. 4, 5            Where anciently in Treason voluntas reputabatur pro facto. 5, 161            Appeals anciently of High Treason. 5, 132            Where the compassing the death of the King was Treason at the Common Law. 9            Where the death of the King per infortunium shall be no Treason. 6            Where to set a Figure to know how long the King shall reign or live, is no Treason. ib.            Where to practice to depose the King, to imprison him, or to take him into their power, shall be Treason. ib.            Where to compass the death of the Father of the King, or of the Kings Uncle, anciently was Treason. 7            Where to leave the King in periculo Hostium was anciently Treason. ib.            Where Piracy was anciently Treason. 8            Where it shall be Treason for the Husband of a Queen Regnant to compass the death of his wife, so on the contrary. ib.            Where the killing of an Ambassador was adjudged Treason. ib.            Where the killing or the violating of a Queen Dowager shall be no Treason. 8, 9            Where the killing of a Collateral Heir apparent shall be no Treason. 9            Where the compassing or conspiring to levy war without levying of it, shall be no Treason. 9, 10, 14            In High Treason all are Principals, but not in Petit Treason. 9, 16, 21, 138            The difference between levying of a war, and committing of a great Riot. 9, 10            What gathering of forces shall be counted High Treason. 10, 12            Where aiding of the Kings enemies pro timore Mortis shall be no Treason. 10            Who shall be said Enemies, and who Traitors. 11            The form of an Indictment for Treason. 12            Where Conspiracy with a Foreign Prince shall be Treason, and where not. 14            Where words may make an Heretick, but no Traitor. ib.            Where words set down in writing may amount to Treason. ib.            All Treason implies a Felony, but a pardon of all Felonies is no pardon of Treason at this day. 15            Where he that counterfeits the Kings Coin shall have punishment but in case of Petit Treason,
--	--

T H E T A B L E.

Treason, otherwise if he had diminished it. 17 Where a man may be imprisoned upon suspicion for having clipped false money. 18 Where it is no Treason to kill any of the Lords or commons in parliament, but wilful murder only. ib. What things a man attainted of Treason shall forfeit, and what not. 18, 19, 21 No Treason for an Indictor to discover the Kings Council. 22 What witnesses or accusers are requisite in Indictments and trials of Treason or Misprision of Treason. 24, 25, 26 No Appeal of Treason can be brought in Parliament. 31 Treason severely punished. 35 Where the receiving and comforting a Traitor knowing him to be a Traitor is Treason. 138 The judgement in case of High Treason, how warranted by Scripture, and what is implied in it. 210, 211 Where a writ of Error lies to reverse an Attainder of High Treason, and where not. 214, 215 Three sorts of Petit Treasons. 19, 20 The judgement of a woman for Petit Treason. 20 Parricide no Petit Treason. ib. What was Petit Treason, at the Common Law, and what at this day. ib. The judgement in case of Petit Treason. 211 Treasure and Treafury. What, and where the Kings Treasure and Treafury is. 71, 72 Treasure Trove. The description of it. 132 Why Treasure Trove belongs to the King. ib. What Metal Treasure Trove must be of. ib. To whom anciently Treasure Trove belonged. ib. The punishment for concealing of Treasure Trove. 133 Trebuchet. Trebuchet or Castigatory, quid? and the punishment of it. 219 Cucking-stole, unde derivatur? ib. Trials. How a foreign Treason shall be tried. 11, 34	Where a Commission without the Kings hand shall be a sufficient assignment within the Statute of 35 H. 8. cap. 2. to try a foreign Treason. 11 Where Treasons committed upon the Sea shall be tried. ib. How trials of Treasons shall be, and where. 24, 34, 49 What witnesses or accusers are requisite in Indictments and Trials of Treason or Misprision of Treason. 24, 25, 26 Where an Alien shall be tried per medietatem lingue; and where not. 27 Where Trials may be in foreign Counties. ib. Where a Trial may be in the County where the Kings Bench sits during the Term. ib. How the Trial of a Peer and a common person differs, and the form of the Trial. 28, 29 In what cases a Peer shall be tried by Peers, and in what not. 30 What Lords shall be tried by Peers, and what not. ib. In what cases a man must be tried by a Jury of that County in which the Indictment was taken, and in what not. 34 How a Murder committed out of the Realm shall be tried. 48 How a Murder shall be tried where the blow was given out of the Realm, or upon the Sea, and the party died within the Kingdom. ib. How a Murder shall be tried when the stroke is in one County, and the Death is in another. ib. How the Trial shall be where the Felony is done in one County, and the Accessory is in another. 49, 135 Where Criminal Causes shall receive their Trial. 80 How the Lord Steward may proceed upon the Statute of 2 E. 6. cap. 24. to try an Accessory in another County. 136 Where a Blow is given in any Court, (sedente Curia;) how the Trial shall be. 141 Tumbrel. vide Pillory. Turncements. Turnamentum, unde? 160 None ought to Turney without the Kings license. ib. Where it shall be Felony to kill another at a Just or Turnement; and where not. 56, 160 Value.
---	--

T H E T A B L E.

	The punishment of Witches, Impostors, or the like. 46
Value.
HOW the Value of any thing shall be construed. 105	Witnesses.
Verdict.	Where Witnesses or Accusers are requisite in Indictments and Trials of Treason, or Misprision of Treason. 24, 25, 26
No privy Verdict can be given in case of Felony or Treason. 10	No Witnesses or Accuser by hear-say in case of Treason. 25
Usury.	Where Witnesses shall be examined upon oath against the King in Criminal Causes. 79
The Definition and Derivation of it. 151	Women.
Usury against the Law of God, and the Laws of the Realm. 151, 152	An Exposition upon the statute of 3-H. 7. cap. 2. concerning the carrying away of Women against their will. 61
Why Usury was permitted for an Hebrew to an Infidel. 151	To what women this Statute extendeth, and to what not. ib.
The ancient punishment of Usury. 151, 152	Wooll.
Vast sums that the Kings in former times received of the Jews for Usury. 151	Where it shall be Felony to transport Wooll. 95
Witchcraft.	What a Sack, Pochet, Sarpler, Weigh, Wrapper, Todd and Stone of Wooll signifie. 96
WHEN Witchcraft was made Felony, and how anciently it was punished. 44	Writs.
The description of a Conjuror, a Witch, an Enchanter, and a Sorcerer. ib.	The Writ ad jura Regia , where it lies. 100
An Exposition upon the Statute of 1 Jac. cap. 12. concerning Witchcraft. 45, 46	Where a Writ may be devised for the better execution of a Statute. 162
Where there may be Accessories after the Witchcraft committed as well as before. 45

F I N I S.