Reproduction of the proceedings of the House of Commons and its Committees, in whole or in part and in any medium, is hereby permitted provided that the reproduction is accurate and is not presented as official. This permission does not extend to reproduction, distribution or use for commercial purpose of financial gain. Reproduction or use outside this permission or without authorization may be treated as copyright infringement in accordance with the Copyright Act. Authorization may be obtained on written application to the Office of the Speaker of the House of Commons.

Reproduction in accordance with this permission does not constitute publication under the authority of the House of Commons. The absolute privilege that applies to the proceedings of the House of Commons does not extend to these permitted reproductions. Where a reproduction includes briefs to a Committee of the House of Commons, authorization for reproduction may be required from the authors in accordance with the Copyright Act.

Nothing in this permission abrogates or derogates from the privileges, powers, immunities and rights of the House of Commons and its Committees. For greater certainty, this permission does not affect the prohibition against impeaching or questioning the proceedings of the House of Commons in courts or otherwise. The House of Commons retains the right and privilege to find users in contempt of Parliament if a reproduction or use is not in accordance with this permission.

Permis de reproduction conforme à la présente permission ne constitue pas un avertissement pour l’autorité de la Chambre. Le privilège absolu qui s’applique aux délibérations de la Chambre ne s’étend pas aux reproductions permises. Lorsqu’une reproduction comprend des mémoires présentés à un comité de la Chambre, il peut être nécessaire d’obtenir de leurs auteurs l’autorisation de les reproduire, conformément à la Loi sur le droit d’auteur. La présente permission ne porte pas atteinte aux privilèges, pouvoirs, immunités et droits de la Chambre et de ses comités. Il est entendu que cette permission ne touche pas l’interdiction de contester ou de mettre en cause les délibérations de la Chambre devant les tribunaux ou autrement. La Chambre conserve le droit et le privilège de déclarer l’utilisateur coupable d’outrage au Parlement lorsque la reproduction ou l’utilisation n’est pas conforme à la présente permission.

COMMITTEES OF THE HOUSE

SCRUTINY OF REGULATIONS—THIRD REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

Mr. Derek Lee (Scarborough—Rouge River): Mr. Speaker, I have the honour to table the third report of the Standing Committee on the Scrutiny of Regulations.

It is my duty to inform the House that this report contains a resolution pursuant to Standing Order 123 for the disallowance of sections 8, 13, 14 and 15 of the Indian health regulations, chapter 935 of the 1978 Consolidated Regulations of Canada. The text of the section subject to disallowance is included in Appendix A to this report.

Pursuant to Standing Order 35(1), I would like to give a succinct explanation of the procedure here. In the view of the committee the Indian health regulations contain provisions not authorized by the legislation passed by Parliament, as well as provisions that derogate from the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms and the Canadian Bill of Rights.

Furthermore, the joint committee believes these same provisions contravene its scrutiny criterion No. 9 as they trespass unduly on the rights and liberties and its scrutiny criterion No. 10 in that they make the rights and liberties of the person unduly dependent on administrative discretion and are not consistent with the rules of natural justice.

These provisions would authorize government officials to order the arrest, detention and forcible medical treatment of Canadian citizens without judicial authorization.

Other provisions provide officials with an unfettered right of entry into private residences and with the authority to order the destruction of premises without prior notice.

Faced with the reluctance of responsible departments to revoke these regulations, the committee which I have the privilege to chair with Senator Norman Grimard and my colleague, the hon. member for Red Deer, has no choice but to resolve that these regulations be revoked.

JUSTICE AND SOLICITOR GENERAL—THIRD REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

Mr. Bob Horner (Mississauga West): Mr. Speaker, I have the honour to present, in both official languages, the third report of the Standing Committee on Justice and Solicitor General.

In accordance with its order of reference of Friday, October 4, 1991, your committee has considered Bill C-30, an act to amend the Criminal Code concerning mental disorder and to amend the National Defence Act and the Young Offenders Act in consequence thereof, and has agreed to report it with amendments.

CRIMINAL CODE

MEASURE TO AMEND

Mr. John Reimer (Kitchener) moved for leave to introduce Bill C-324, an act to amend the Criminal Code (firearms).

The Acting Speaker (Mr. DeBlois): Pursuant to Standing Order 68(2), the motion is deemed adopted.

Mr. Reimer: Mr. Speaker, the purpose of this bill is to send a powerful message of deterrence to anyone thinking of taking a gun along to commit a crime.

This bill would toughen section 85 of the Criminal Code, the section which makes it an offence to use a firearm while committing a crime. The minimum mandatory sentence would be increased from one to five years for a first offence and raised from three to eight years for any subsequent offences.
