

“Source: Consent to Medical Care, Protection of Life Series, A Study Paper, 1980.
Department of Justice Canada.
Reproduced with the permission of the Minister of Public Works and Government Services Canada, 2007.”

Table of Contents

INTRODUCTION .....	1
CHAPTER I. Fundamental Principles Underlying Consent .....	3
A. Right of self-determination .....	3
B. Right to inviolability .....	8
CHAPTER II. The Doctrine of “Informed” Consent .....	11
A. Informing the patient .....	12
1. The duty to inform the patient or research subject for the purpose of obtaining “informed” consent .....	12
2. The duty to inform the patient of his medical record or of experimental results .....	26
B. Obtaining consent of the patient or research subject .....	28
1. What is the purpose of consent? .....	28
2. Should consent be defined? .....	34
3. Is consent possible? .....	37
4. Is consent always necessary? .....	39
5. Is consent sufficient? .....	43
6. Must consent be in any particular form? .....	44
C. Voluntariness or defects of consent of the patient or research subject .....	46
1. Coercion and duress .....	48
2. Mistake and deception .....	53
D. The relationship of “informed” consent and privacy .....	58
CHAPTER III: How are Consent in the Medical Relationship, and the underlying Principles of Autonomy, Inviolability and Privacy, affected by “Disability” of the Patient or Research Subject? .....	67
A. Consent with respect to the dying, incurable or “dead” as patients or subjects of medical research .....	68

B. Consent and children as patients or subjects of medical research .....	71
1. Consent to therapy and therapeutic research .....	71
2. Consent to non-therapeutic research .....	75
3. Institutionalized children .....	83
4. "Consent" by the state and its refusal to recognize consent with respect to medical interventions on children .....	84
C. Consent and foetuses as patients or subjects of medical research .....	85
D. Consent and mental incompetents as patients or subjects of medical research .....	89
E. Consent and prisoners as patients or subjects of medical research .....	94
CHAPTER IV. Criminal Law Aspects of Consent to Medical Interventions .....	105
CONCLUSION .....	111
ENDNOTES .....	115