

The Ordering of Justice

RICHARD V. ERICSON
PATRICIA M. BARANEK

A Study of Accused Persons as Dependants in the Criminal Process

Contents

---

TABLES / ix

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS/ xi

FOREWORD by Edgar Z. Friedenberg / xiii

- 1 The Ordering of Justice / 3
  - The Ordering of Justice / 3
  - A View from the Accused / 5
  - A View from the Literature / 19
  - A Research Strategy / 29
  - A Profile of the Accused / 38

- 2 Police Orders / 41
  - Arrest / 42
  - Search / 46
  - Interrogation and Confession / 49
  - Access to a Third Party / 54
  - Right-to-Silence Cautions / 56
  - Dealings between Police and the Accused for Information and Confessions / 59
  - Legitimacy of Charges / 67

- 3 Lawyers' Orders / 76
  - The Relation between the Accused and the Lawyer / 76
  - Retaining Counsel / 79
  - Legal Dependency / 92
  - The Election Decision / 100
  - The Decision to Appeal / 105

viii Contents

- 4 Order out of Court I: The Process of Plea Transaction / 111
  - The Process of Plea Transaction in Perspective / 111
  - Lawyers' Accounts of Plea Transactions / 117
  - The Process of Plea Transaction / 122
  - Lawyers' Perceptions of Plea Bargains / 143

- 5 Order out of Court II: The Position of the Accused and the Plea Decision / 152
  - The Views of the Accused on Plea Transactions / 152
  - The Plea Decision / 156
  - Pleading Guilty while Maintaining Innocence / 157
  - Reasons for Pleading Guilty / 164
  - Reasons for Pleading Not Guilty / 172
  - The Plea Decision in Retrospect / 175

- 6 Order in Court / 179
  - The Court Setting / 179
  - Understanding of Court Proceedings by the Accused / 185
  - Silence of the Accused in Court / 191
  - Sentencing: The Trial of Moral Character / 203
  - Perception of Outcomes by the Accused / 211

- 7 The Reordering of Justice / 216
  - Summary / 216
  - The Nature of Reform / 219
  - Prospects for Change / 229
  - Directions for Further Enquiry / 238

- NOTES / 243

- BIBLIOGRAPHY / 253

- INDEX / 263