Dear Mr. Lareau:

Thank you for correspondence concerning the Independent Review of the National Defence Act. Your correspondence of July 13, 2010, addressed to the Judge Advocate General, was also forwarded to me. Once again, please accept my apology for this delay in responding.

I commend you for your interest in the review provided for in clause 96, Statutes of Canada, 1998, C.35, but also note that my correspondence to you of June 30, 2010, responds to the questions you pose.

I trust this is of some assistance, and thank you for your continuing interest in Canada's military justice system.

Sincerely,

Peter MacKay
Minister of National Defence

Bonjour,

I have written to the Minister of National Defence about the statutory review under the NDA and the fact that the law was not followed. I was told that I should get an answer by mid-May. Can you give me an update on my request and who in the Minister's office is responsible for my file so I can phone him. Thank you.

Sincerely,

François Lareau
